Ida Lupino, Forgotten Auteur Alexandra Seros,2025-01-14 An archival study of Ida Lupino s work in film and television directing writing producing and acting from the 1940s to the 1970s Though her acting career is well known Ida Lupino was until very recently either unknown or overlooked as an influential director One of the few female directors in Classical Hollywood Lupino was the only woman with membership in the Directors Guild of America between 1948 and 1971 Her films were about women without power in society and engaged with highly controversial topics despite Hollywood s strict production code Working in a male dominated field Lupino was forced to manage her public persona carefully resisting attempts by the press to paint her solely as a dutiful wife and mother a continual feminization just so that she could continue directing Filmmaker Alexandra Seros retells the story of Ida Lupino's career from actor to director first in film then in television using archival materials from collections housed around the world The result provides rich insights into three of Lupino's independently directed films and a number of episodes from her vast television oeuvre Seros contextualizes this analysis with discussions of gendered labor in the film industry the rise of consumerism in the United States after World War II and the expectations put on women in their family lives during the postwar era Seros's portrait of Lupino ultimately paints her life and career as an exemplar of collaborative auteurship
