Painting Redefined Mitchell Benjamin Frank, 2017-07-05 The modernist aesthetic and later Nazi ideology split German Romantic painting into two opposed phases an early progressive movement represented by Caspar David Friedrich 1774 1840 and Philipp Otto Runge 1777 1810 and a later reactionary one epitomized by Friedrich Overbeck 1789 1869 and Peter von Cornelius 1783 1867 In this rich and engaging book Mitchell Frank explores the continuities between these two phases to reconstruct the historical position that existed in the nineteenth century and to look once again at the Nazarenes and Overbeck in particular as a fully integrated part of the Romantic movement His innovative book is crucial to an understanding of German Romanticism and the legacy of this period in European art Periodization in the Art

Historiographies of Central and Eastern Europe Shona Kallestrup, Magdalena Kunińska, Mihnea Alexandru Mihail, Anna Adashinskaya, Cosmin Minea, 2022-06-07 This volume critically investigates how art historians writing about Central and Eastern Europe in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries engaged with periodization At the heart of much of their writing lay the ideological project of nation building Hence discourses around periodization such as the mythicizing of certain periods the invention of historical continuity and the assertion of national specificity contributed strongly to identity construction Central to the book's approach is a transnational exploration of how the art histories of the region not only interacted with established Western periodizations but also resonated and entangled with each other In their efforts to develop more sympathetic frameworks that refined ignored or hybridized Western models they sought to overcome the centre periphery paradigm which equated distance from the centre with temporal belatedness and artistic backwardness The book thus demonstrates that the concept of periodization is far from neutral or strictly descriptive and that its use in art history needs to be reconsidered Bringing together a broad range of scholars from different European institutions the volume offers a unique new perspective on Central and Eastern European art historiography It will be of interest to scholars working in art history historiography and European studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Art, Architecture and Design in Poland, 966-1990 Stefan Muthesius, 1994 This is the first comprehensive history of Polish Art to appear outside Poland Many areas of Poland boast works of Medieval art and Italian Renaissance The refined 18th century was thoroughly imbued with the latest Italian French and English fashions in design The divided and dispossessed country of the 19th century then developed its own national historical subjects and mythologies in painting which culminated in the work of the great artists of the late 19th and early 20th Centuries In the 20th Century Poland prided itself again in its participation in international Modernism and Modern art reigned also for most of the decades after WW II in church building and poster design Compact yet comprehensive with 323 illustrations with an extensive bibliography geographical and historical maps this book serves as a work of reference as well as a guide The lengthy Introduction takes on the history of Polish art history as a critical and academic discipline
