Political Democracy And Ethnic Diversity In Modern European History:

Political Democracy and Ethnic Diversity in Modern European History André Gerrits, Dirk Jan Wolffram, 2005 This is the first volume in which the fate of democracy is directly related to ethnic diversity It highlights the crucial episodes in modern European political history and shows in what sense ethnic diversity was of vital importance The Kuyper Center Review, Volume 4 Gordon Graham, John Bowlin, 2014-04-20 This volume of essays is a new step by the Abraham Kuyper Center for Public Theology at Princeton Theological Seminary to stimulate new work in the broad area of Reformed theology and public life The contributions here deal largely with political themes some contemporary some historical Ethnicity, Nationalism and the European Cold War Robert Knight, 2012-04-26 This book questions the prevalent assumption that ethnicity and nationalist politics had nothing to do with the Cold War and that far from being frozen until the fall of communism they remained central to the conflict in Europe Leading scholars bring their understanding of particular regions to bear on the wider issue of why ethnic explanations were written out of the discourse and whether this was a failure on the part of Western observers This in turn has led to an overly simple understanding of power flowing downwards from superpower to nation state and from state to society Engaging with key thinkers such as Gaddis Moynihan and Adam Roberts this collection ultimately allows such speculation to be replaced by historical research and bridges the gap between high politics and ethnic concerns Economies, Institutions and Territories Luca Storti, Giulia Urso, Neil Reid, 2022-08-29 Presenting multidisciplinary and global insights this book explores the nexus between economies institutions and territories and how global phenomena have local consequences It examines how original and innovative economic related processes embed themselves in societies at the local level how boundaries between the state and the market are placed under stress by unexpected changes It explores whether new types of elites and forms of social inequalities are emerging as a result of institutional and economic changes and whether peripheral areas are experiencing insidious forms of economic and institutional lock in Presenting empirical cases and useful analytical and conceptual tools the book makes current economic and territorial phenomena more understandable This is an important read for students and scholars in the fields of geography sociology political sciences anthropology economics regional science and international relations It is also a valuable resource for policymakers well educated lay readers and economic political and international relations journalists

Literature and the Arts since the 1960s Jorge Almeida e Pinho, Márcia Lemos, 2020-08-13 This collection of essays focuses on addressing the imaginative wake of the rebellious late 1960s with a particular but not exclusive focus on word and image relations The volume showcases and discusses the impact of such processes on literature and the arts of that mythologized historical period It explores the impact of its defining causes hopes and regrets on the creative imagination The awakening moment for that extraordinary momentous period in the global socio political memory was May 1968 which came to be seen as the culmination and epitome of a series of processes involving protest and the affirmation of previously silent or

subaltern causes Such processes and causes were predicated on challenges to established powers and mindsets and hence on demands for change which have had rich consequences in literature and the arts The Endurance of Nationalism Aviel Roshwald,2006-09-14 A major new study of the ancient roots of nationalism and its enduring power in the modern world

Democratic Stability in an Age of Crisis Agnes Cornell,Jørgen Møller,Svend-Erik Skaaning,2020 This book explains why several democracies during the period between the two world wars broke down and others survived and examines the extent to which present day democracies are fragile in the face of crises Conditioning Democratization Ridvan

Peshkopia,2014-04-15 This book analyzes the effects of European Union membership conditionality on institutional reforms in Eastern Europe building on concrete examples from four sectors in Albania and Macedonia two postcommunist countries that have yet to join the EU The author discusses the theory of consociational democracy often considered the key to stabilizing deeply divided countries and reapplies it on the international stage to argue for how the EU can better direct democratization Contemporary European History ,2005 Peremptory International Legal Norms and the Democratic Rule of Law Sonja Grover,2020-05-21 Peremptory International Legal Norms and the Democratic Rule of Law explores the risks to the democratic State inherent in the attempt to divorce the notion of democratic rule of law from respect for and adherence to peremptory international legal norms which allow for no derogation therefrom such as the prohibition of torture and inhumane treatment or punishment by the State The chapters address with specific current case examples in what ways the democratic rule of law within certain democratic States risks being undermined through those States acquiescing to the erosion of peremptory international law norms in the domestic and international context The book therefore explores the question of in what ways such democratic State acquiescence in effect may ultimately disrupt the investment within the State in the shared culture of core human rights values that underlies democratic rule of law itself and highlights the fragility of that shared culture The contributors argue for a renewed commitment in principle and practice to the democratic rule of law and to its human rights international normative underpinnings Peremptory International Legal Norms and the Democratic Rule of Law will be of great interest to scholars of international law human rights and democracy The chapters originally published as a special issue of The International Journal of Human Rights Immigration Policy in the Federal Republic of Germany Douglas B. Klusmeyer,Demetrios G. Papademetriou,2009 German migration policy now stands at a major crossroad caught between a fifty year history of missed opportunities and serious new challenges Focusing on these new challenges that German policy makers face the authors both internationally recognized in this field use historical argument theoretical analysis and empirical evaluation to advance a more nuanced understanding of recent initiatives and the implications of these initiatives Their approach combines both synthesis and original research in a presentation that is not only accessible to the general educated reader but also addresses the concerns of academic scholars and policy analysts This important volume offers a comprehensive and critical examination of the history of German migration law and policy from the Federal Republic's inception in 1949 to the present Law, Society and Community Richard Nobles, David Schiff, 2016-04-22 This collection of socio legal studies written by leading theorists and researchers from around the world offers original perceptive and critical contributions to ideas and theories that have been expounded by Roger Cotterrell over a long and distinguished career Engaging with many classic issues and theories of the sociology of law the contributions are likely to become classics themselves as they tackle some of the most significant challenges that modern law faces They do not shy away from what one of the contributors describes as the complexity and multiplicity of our contemporary legal world The book is organized in three parts socio legal themes methodological and jurisprudential themes globalization cultural and comparative law themes Starting with a chapter that re engages with the need to interpret legal ideas sociologically and ending with one that explores the global significance of modern fascination with the idea of the rule of law this selection offers important additions to the oeuvre of Roger Cotterrell a list of whose academic writings is included in the book Program of the Annual Meeting - American Historical Association American Historical Association, 2006 Some programs include also the programs of societies meeting concurrently with the association The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2006 Remaking Identities Benjamin David Lieberman, 2013 Interethnic Integration in Five European Societies Nikolaï Genov, 2008 American Book Publishing Record, 2007 Turkey and the European Union J. Joseph, 2006-11-28 Turkey and the European Union makes a scholarly contribution to the debate over Turkey's participation in the European integration process and the EU's future enlargement It explores the recent history of EU Turkish relations and looks at the prospects and challenges that Turkey's membership presents to both the EU and Turkey The Routledge Handbook of Religion, Politics and Ideology Jeffrey Haynes, 2021-08-14 This comprehensive handbook examines relationships between religion politics and ideology with a focus on several world religions Christianity Islam Buddhism Hinduism and Judaism in a variety of contexts regions and countries Relationships between religion politics and ideology help mould people's attitudes about the way that political systems both domestically and internationally are organised and operate While conceptually separate religion politics and ideology often become intertwined and as a result their relationships evolve over time This volume brings together a number of expert contributors who explore a wide range of topical and controversial issues including gender nationalism communism fascism populism and Islamism Such topics inform the overall aim of the handbook to provide a comprehensive summary of the relationships between religion politics and ideology including basic issues and new approaches This handbook is a major research resource for students researchers and professionals from various disciplinary backgrounds including religious studies political science international relations and sociology European Union--the Second Founding Ludger Kühnhardt, 2008 The author is presenting a broadly structured study about the first fifty years of European integration its geopolitical context and academic reflection His study is based on the two fold thesis that since a few years the European Union is going through a process of its Second Founding while simultaneously changing its rationale
