Worship and the New Cosmology Catherine Vincie, 2014 What is the Christian response to developments in the hard sciences? What do discoveries at the macro and micro levels have to say about Christian theology about a theology of God, Christology, pneumatology, and creation? How do the developments in systematic theology that do take the advances in cosmology and the New Sciences seriously come to bear on our worship life? These are the questions that are addressed in this text. It is an initial effort to bring cosmology and the New Sciences into dialogue with developments in systematic and sacramental theology. This book also suggests some ways in which these developments might appear in our worship. Overall, the author is concerned to reduce the cognitive dissonance between our scientifically informed everyday lives and our life of faith.

Be Still and Listen Amos Smith, 2018-06-12 The various crises we experience in society and culture today at their root reveal a spiritual problem: a profound lack of meaning. The mystical truths revealed in scripture can surely help. With Be Still and Listen, it is possible to explore the contemplative dimensions of the Bible either on your own or in a group setting as you perhaps never have before. Part One, Entering the Desert, introduces the reader to principles of awareness, deep listening, and contemplation as essential for hearing what Scripture has to say. Part Two details the importance of mystery and struggle in the process of healing from any past or present wounds. And Part Three explores the undivided heart that is possible when we come to know God in silence and stillness. Amos Smith's unique voice is rooted in his long-term centering prayer practice and his international background. Be Still and Listen is a trumpet call to the inner treasures of contemporary Christian mysticism.

RICHARD ROHR, author of Falling Upward. In a lively, accessible, and masterful style, Amos Smith unveils the mystical foundations of Christianity and the spiritual wealth found in Scripture.
