Rosamond Lehmann And Her Critics:

Rosamond Lehmann and Her Critics Wendy Pollard, 2017-11-28 This study of contemporary and later critical responses to the work of the novelist Rosamond Lehmann 1901-1990 offers an original approach to twentieth century literary history by foregrounding the cultural and commercial fields in which Lehmann's writing was situated Wendy Pollard examines the effect recent developments in literary theory and movements from modernism to feminism have had on Lehmann's literary reception She also considers the interpolation of a damning third category between the and popular culture namely middlebrow a widening gender divide in readership controversies within book reviewing changes in the publishing world and the introduction of popularist means of book marketing While considering the general privileging of male authors from the 1920s to the 1950s Lehmann's most prolific period Pollard argues that her novels have been unfairly subjected to specific forms of neglect and their exclusion from many academic comparative studies is due to a diversity of form and content that can also be considered their strength

Domestic Modernism, the Interwar Novel, and E.H. Young Chiara Briganti, Kathy Mezei, 2016-12-05 Domestic Modernism the Interwar Novel and E H Young provides a valuable analytical model for reading a large body of modernist works by women who have suffered not only from a lack of critical attention but from the assumption that experimental modernist techniques are the only expression of the modern In the process of documenting the publication and reception history of E H Young's novels the authors suggest a paradigm for analyzing the situation of women writers during the interwar years Their discussion of Young in the context of both canonical and noncanonical writers challenges the generic label and literary status of the domestic novel as well as facile assumptions about popular and middlebrow fiction canon formation aesthetic value and modernity The authors also make a significant contribution to discussions of the everyday and to the burgeoning field of homeculture as they show that the fictional embodiment and inscription of home by writers such as Young Virginia Woolf Elizabeth Bowen Ivy Compton Burnett Lettice Cooper E M Delafield Stella Gibbons Storm Jameson and E Arnot Robertson epitomize the long standing symbiosis between architecture and literature or more specifically between the house and the novel

Censorship across Borders Alberto Lázaro, Catherine O'Leary, 2011-07-12 This volume brings together twelve essays which explore European censorship of English literature in the last century Taking into consideration the various social political and historical contexts in which literary controls were imposed and the extent to which they were determined by national and international concerns these essays comment on political and moral censorship self censorship and the role of the translator as censor Besides systematic state control other hidden and insidious forms of censorship are also surveyed in the essays This study considers why certain works and authors many of them now regarded as canonical were targeted in various states and often under opposing ideologies such as those dominated by conservative Catholic morality and those governed by communism or socialism The essays contain previously unpublished material cover a wide range of authors including Beckett Eliot Joyce and Orwell and analyse diverse censorship systems operating across Europe thus serving as a useful comparative resource Despite the variety of structures of suppression the study shows that certain common practices can be discerned across national borders and that general conclusions can be drawn about the complex and ambiguous nature of the state s relationship with culture and about the immediate and long term impact of censorship not only on the author and publisher but on society as a whole Finally the essays are also significant for what they tell us about the survival of literature despite the best efforts of the censors

The Single Woman, Modernity, and Literary Culture Emma Sterry,2017-06-22 This book situates the single woman within the evolving landscape of modernity examining how she negotiated rural and urban worlds explored domestic and bohemian roles and traversed public and private spheres In the modern era the single woman was both celebrated and derided for refusing to conform to societal expectations regarding femininity and sexuality The different versions of single women presented in cultural narratives of this period including the old maid odd woman New Woman spinster and flapper were all sexually suspicious The single woman however was really an amorphous figure who defied straightforward categorization Emma Sterry explores depictions of such single women in transatlantic women s fiction of the 1920s to 1940s Including a diverse selection of renowned and forgotten writers such as Djuna Barnes Rosamond Lehmann

Elizabeth von Arnim Isobel Maddison,2016-04-29 In the first book length treatment of Elizabeth von Arnim's fiction

Isobel Maddison examines her work in its historical and intellectual contexts demonstrating that von Arnim's fine comic writing and complex and compelling narrative style reward close analysis Organised chronologically and thematically Maddison's book is informed by unpublished material from the British and Huntington Libraries including correspondence between von Arnim her publishers and prominent contemporaries such as H G Wells Bertrand Russell and her cousin Katherine Mansfield whose early modernist prose is seen as indebted to von Arnim's earlier literary influence Maddison's exploration of the novelist's critical reception is situated within recent discussions of the middlebrow and establishes von Arnim as a serious author among her intellectual milieu countering the misinformed belief that the author of such novels as Elizabeth and Her German Garden The Caravaners The Pastor's Wife and Vera wrote light hearted fiction removed from gritty reality On the contrary various strands of socialist thought and von Arnim's wider political beliefs establish her as a significant author of British anti invasion literature while weighty social issues underpin much of her later writing Index to Theses with Abstracts Accepted for Higher Degrees by the Universities of Great Britain and Ireland and the Council for National Academic Awards ,2003 Theses on any subject submitted by the academic libraries in the UK and Ireland
