In this M X novel about friendship, first crushes and family drama, City girl Poppy has always wanted a best friend but never felt enough of a connection with anyone to gain BFF status. Even without a BFF, Poppy is horrified when her father decides to move her and her older brother out to the family farm. Away from her beloved city and away from memories of her late mom, a fresh start for everyone. And after a weird first week at her new school, Poppy is convinced she is destined for a boring year until she finds a stack of letters from 1985 hidden in the barn of the old farmhouse that they move into. Even better: Those letters are addressed to Poppy from her mom. Poppy doesn't know what supernatural event brought these letters to her, but she doesn't care. All she knows is that she finally has the connection she yearns for. Plus, her mom seems to understand everything that Poppy is going through, not quite fitting in, the desire to put down roots, and the heartbreak of losing a loved one. Has Poppy discovered the friend and acceptance she's always wanted?
