Rosh Hashanah 5659 A Chasidic Discourse By Rabbi:

הרב שמואל דוב באר שנייטש, 2000 The Jewish mystics and philosophers call man medaber the speaker The capacity of speech is uniquely human and we make much use of it for better or worse Yet we rarely consider its workings how without any conscious premeditation words flow effortlessly out of our mouths Delivered on the second night of Rosh Hashanah 1898 Rabbi Shalom DovBer Schneersohn fifth Lubavitcher Rebbe this fundamental discourse is now presented as part of the Chasidic Heritage Series with extensive annotations and explanations Yom Tov Shel Rosh Hashanah Shalom Dov Baer Schneersohn, 2004 This Chasidic discourse delivered by the fifth Lubavitcher Rebbe at the turn of the twentieth century introduces some of the basic concepts of Chasidism and Kabbalah in a relatively easy to follow format its focus is on the faculty of speech Although geared for the advanced student of Chabad Chasidus it is one of the first discourses with which a student is initiated into the more complex Chasidic texts In addition to the lucid translation this edition offers extensive annotations which help the reader with the often obscure references Source references are provided for further study and captions are inserted throughout the text First in the Chasidic Heritage Series הרב יוסף יצחק שנייטש, 2007 In 1940 Rabbi Yosef Yitzchak Schneersohn the sixth Lubavitcher Rebbe delivered one of his very first discourses after settling on American shores Now for the first time HaChodesh HaZeh LChem an exploration of the mystical meaning of the Hebrew months of Tishrei and Nissan has been eloquently translated into English Rosh Hashanah the beginning of the New Year which also marks the creation of the physical natural universe is celebrated in the month of Tishrei In Nissan we commemorate the Exodus from Egypt a supernatural phenomenon by which the Jewish people transcended all constraints of the natural order and thus achieved their redemption Creation and Redemption illuminates this mystical dynamic expressed in terms of contraction and expansion as it exists within the world at large within the cycles of the year and within each individual as well הרב שנייטש, 2000 הרב שנייטש, 2003 A Chasidic Discourse by Rabbi Schneur Zalman of Liadi In this offering of the popular Chasidic Heritage Series Rabbi Schneur Zalman founder of Chabad outlines the struggle of the G dly soul of man as it fights against the materialistic elements of life drawing upon the sublime secrets contained in the story of Esther As in other installments of the Chasidic Heritage Series introductory remarks footnotes and a biography make this work perfect for either group or individual study With the spiritual path chartered by Rabbi Schneur Zalman we too may recognize a fresh perspective on our souls journey הרב שנייטש, 2008 The Simple Servant is part of the classic legendary treatise known to Chasidim as hemshech Samach Vov This series of sixty one discourses delivered from the beginning of 5666 through the winter of 5668 1905 1907 was revolutionary in its wealth of topics and profundity This is the first translation into English of a discourse in this historical series The discourse elaborates upon three of personalities with distinct approaches to divine service 1 The child of G d whose commitment to G d requires no work on his part no meditation or introspection yet is natural 2 The loyal servant of G d who although remaining a distinct entity with some self awareness and identity is motivated by his appreciation of and love for G d and therefore derives great pleasure and joy from doing the will of G d 3 The Simple Servant of G d who is driven by his acceptance of the yoke of heaven is not motivated by an overwhelming love for G d and has no pleasure in the work he does Yet he does his work consistently because he has no other identity outside of being a servant of G d
