Languages of the Kimberley, Western Australia William B. McGregor, 2013-03-07 The Kimberley the far north west of Australia is one of the most linguistically diverse regions of the continent Some fifty five Aboriginal languages belonging to five different families are spoken within its borders Few of these languages are currently being passed on to children most of whom speak Kriol a new language that arose about half a century ago from an earlier Pidgin English or Aboriginal English a dialect of English as their mother tongue and usual language of communication This book describes the Aboriginal languages spoken today and in the recent past in this region Bush, City, Cyberspace John Foster, Ern Finnis, Maureen

Nimon, 2005-06-01 Aimed at academic professional and general readers Bush city cyberspace provides a snapshot of the state of Australian children's and adolescent literature in the early twenty first century and an insight into its history In doing so it promotes a sense of where Australian literature for young people may be going and captures a literary and critical mood with which readers in Australia and beyond will identify The title of the work is intended to capture the fact that the field has changed dramatically in the century and a half that Australian children's literature has existed from the bush myths and heroism that inform the past and the present through the recognition that the vast majority of authors and readers live in cities to the third wave of cyberliterature that incorporates multimedia hypertext weblinks and e books none of which lessens the enduring enthusiasm of practitioners and readers for books Bush city cyberspace is not meant to be an encyclopedic volume Rather well known recent and or award winning works have been emphasised with the addition of others where these help to illuminate particular points The book is similar in coverage and approach to Australian Children's Literature An Exploration of Genre and Theme written by the same three authors and published by the Centre for Information Studies in 1995 In the intervening period much has changed in the field notable examples including the blurring of the dividing line between quality and popular literature the blending of genres the rise of a truly indigenous literature the demise to a significant extent of Outbackery in fiction the acceptance of multiculturalism as the norm and the advent of the literature of cyberspace with new methods and the sheer speed of communication between writer and reader All these trends and others are reflected in this work

Bottersnikes and Other Lost Things Juliet O'Connor, 2009 Lazy Bottersnikes in outback rubbish tips Sir Pronoun's dilemma about standing in Miss Noun's place and the story of how Jack built a house a hut or a shack are all to be found in this treasury of Australian children's books This book illuminates the icons of Australian children's literature from Gibbs and Outhwaite to Shaun Tan

Teaching Literature at a Distance Takis Kayalis, Anastasia Natsina, 2011-11-03 Featuring essays by an international array of literature scholars this volume examines the challenges and opportunities of teaching literature at Open and Virtual Universities in a wide range of national cultural and linguistic contexts It presents cutting edge explorations of seminal issues including literature pedagogy and curriculum building canon and theory debates the uses of hypertext and other digital tools for literary instruction the writing and evaluation of educational material and the teaching of digital literature These issues are addressed from various critical and theoretical viewpoints which reflect the contributors long educational and administrative involvement with open and distance learning ODL in a rich diversity of cultural and academic frameworks As the first scholarly attempt to bring together questions of literature pedagogy and issues in open and distance online and blended learning this book is an essential resource for literature instructors and administrators in ODL e learning and b learning programs It offers techniques enabling scholars in more traditional academic settings to make literature courses more effective and stimulating by using tools developed for distance learning

Re-writing Spatiality Britta Kühlenbeck, 2010 The objective of this project is to encourage new ways of thinking about the meaning and significance of space It follows a desire that has been expressed and theorized by Henri Lefebvre and by extension Edward W Soja to remove Spatiality from the margin of the Triad of Being and to bring it into the Trialectics fold alongside with and of at least equal significance to Historicity and Sociality The thesis focuses on how space of the Pilbara region in Western Australia is produced in contemporary Australian writing film art and through lived experience The thesis argues for an understanding of space as essentially dynamic Australian Folklore ,1995 The Oxford Companion to Australian Literature William Henry Wilde,Joy W. Hooton,B. G. Andrews,1994 Unique in its field exhaustive in scope the Oxford Companion to Australian Literature offers a comprehensive account of Australian writing from European settlement in 1788 to the 1990s It presents the most important achievements in the fields of fiction poetry and drama and also covers non fictional prose in journals diaries biographies and autobiographies and the impact of key historical events on Australian literature Fully revised and updated the second edition contains 500 new entries bringing the total to 3050 reflects the greater influence and volume of women s and multicultural writing and includes major new articles on crime fiction and the immigrant experience Written in clear and accessible language this major reference belongs on the shelf of every library and every lover of world literature Aboriginal Australian Art Ronald Murray Berndt,Catherine Helen Berndt,1998 Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples are advised that this resource may contain images transcripts or names of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples now deceased It may also contain historically and culturally sensitive words terms and descriptions Children's Literature Abstracts ,1993 Australian Book Review ,1992
