Facing the Crises Ljubica Matek, Jasna Poljak Rehlicki, 2014-06-26

Owing to the diverse research interests of the contributors, this collection of essays offers a varied picture of the current approaches to Anglo-American literature and culture and points to the need for a deeper understanding of current cultural, economic, and social processes in the globalizing and globalized culture of the West. Because crisis seems to be the key word of contemporary Western culture, the first part of the book, titled In the Face of Crises, explores the implicit or explicit idea of a crisis between the real and the simulated, suggesting that one of the major issues for the contemporary man is how to deal with the virtual or with the absence of the real. Our fast-paced, technology-laden and materialist-oriented existence brings about the need to rethink our human identity, putting into perspective our relationship to technology, the impact of capitalist economy and colonial past, as well as consequences of constant warfare. The second part of the book, New Perspectives on Literary Genres, analyzes forms, topics, and styles in literary texts belonging to specific, sometimes marginalized genres. Literary analyses in this section also touch upon the idea of crisis, be it the crisis of understanding and redefining a particular genre or a crisis that is inherent in the controversial topic or form of the text. As a reaction to recent allegations concerning the crisis of humanities as non-profitable, this book shows that humanist research is indispensable and crucial for understanding the human condition, making this book a relevant addition to the contemporary discussion of literature and culture.
