The RoutledgeFalmer Reader in Higher Education Malcolm Tight, 2004 All those with an interest in higher education and higher education research will find this comprehensive collection of the past two decades most influential readings on the topic an absolutely essential companion The RoutledgeFalmer Reader in Gender & Education ,

The RoutledgeFalmer Reader in Education Policy and Politics Bob Lingard, Jenny Ozga, 2007-01-24 This Reader brings together selected papers from leading scholars to address the most significant recent development in educational policy and politics the impact of globalisation The papers discuss document and analyse evidence of globalisation s effects on the new direction of education policies and practices and in the production of globalised agendas for the redesign of state provision and the governance of education The Reader is organised in two parts The first part provides a selection of articles that interrogate globalisation and its effects from a variety of analytical perspectives and explore what kind of politics are possible in the framing context of globalisation The second part documents and discusses different types of engagement with politics and policy in a variety of settings and sectors including numerous European and Pacific Rim policy contexts This important collection underlines the need to approach globalisation education policy and politics from numerous perspectives and offers analytical empirical and theoretical resources for the reframing of contemporary education politics Students of educational policy and politics will find this Reader an invaluable resource for understanding theorising and researching in these academic fields

Globalizing Education Policy Fazal Rizvi, Bob Lingard, 2009-12-04 Rizvi and Lingard s account of the global politics of education is thoughtful complex and compelling It is the first really comprehensive discussion and analysis of global trends in education policy their effects structural and individual and resistance to them In the enormous body of writing on globalisation this book stands out and will become a basic text in education policy courses around the world Stephen J Ball Karl Mannheim Professor of Sociology of Education Institute of Education University of London UK In what ways have the processes of globalization reshaped the educational policy terrain How might we analyse education policies located within this new terrain which is at once local national regional and global In Globalizing Education Policy the authors explore the key global drivers of policy change in education and suggest that these do not operate in the same way in all nation states They examine the transformative effects of globalization on the discursive terrain within which educational policies are developed and enacted arguing that this terrain is increasingly informed by a range of neo liberal precepts which have fundamentally changed the ways in which we think about educational governance They also suggest that whilst in some countries these precepts are resisted to some extent they have nonetheless become hegemonic and provide an overview of some critical issues in educational policy to which this hegemonic view of globalization has given rise including devolution and decentralization new forms of governance the balance between public and private funding of education access and equity and the education of girls curriculum particularly with respect to the teaching of English language and technology pedagogies and high stakes testing and the global trade in education These issues are explored within the context of major shifts in global processes and ideological discourses currently being experienced and negotiated by all countries The book also provides an approach to education policy analysis in an age of globalization and will be of interest to those studying globalization and education policy across the social sciences

Governmentality Studies in Education ,2009-01-01

Michel Foucault s concept of governmentality originated in a lecture series in the late 1970s at the Coll ge de France and soon became the basis for a range of historical and contemporary studies across the social sciences and humanities The concept in part rests on a simple but powerful idea that links government to the freedom of the subject in a novel understanding of liberal politics It also provides an analytics of power based on the examination of actual practices This is the first collection to use Foucault s concept in relation to the field of education where it has a natural home given that much educational theory and practice in the liberal tradition at least since Kant has been directed at the goals of autonomy and self government The volume has three sections a general section on Foucault and governmentality with contributions from some of the world s leading scholars in the area including Colin Gordon Jacques Donzelot and Thomas Lemke and two sections devoted to governmentality and education the first outlining Anglo American perspectives the second focusing on European perspectives with contributions from leading scholars such as Tom Popkewitz James Marshall Tom Osborne Michael Peters Mark Olssen Tina Besley Hermann J Forneck Bernadette Baker Susan Weber Susanne Maurer Linda Graham and Maarten Simons and Jan Masschelein among many others

Building Knowledge in Higher Education Christine Winberg, Sioux McKenna, Kirstin Wilmot, 2020-05-27 From pressures to become economically efficient to calls to act as an agent of progressive social change higher education is facing a series of challenges There is an urgent need for a rigorous and sophisticated research base to support the informed development of practices Yet studies of educational practices in higher education remain theoretically underdeveloped and segmented by discipline and country Building Knowledge in Higher Education illustrates how Legitimation Code Theory is bringing research together from across the disciplinary map and enabling practical change in a rigorously theorized way The volume addresses both students and educators Part I explores ways of supporting student achievement from STEM to the arts from introductory courses to doctoral training and from using new digital media to reflective writing Part II focuses on academic staff development in higher education reaching from curriculum design to pedagogic practices All chapters focus on issues of contemporary relevance to higher education showing how Legitimation Code Theory enables these issues to be understood and practices improved Building Knowledge in Higher Education brings together internationally renowned scholars in higher education studies academic development academic literacies and sociology with some of the brightest new researchers The volume significantly extends understandings of teaching and learning in changing higher education contexts and so contributes to educational research and practice It will be essential reading not only to scholars and students in these fields but also to scholars and educators in higher education more generally

Teachers and Schooling Making A Difference Pam Christie, Bob Lingard, 2020-08-04 Teachers Schooling Making a Difference takes seriously the question that teachers ask What do I do on Monday and does provide answers From the foreword by Professor Michael Apple University of Wisconsin Education debates are currently dominated by free market ideologists who push privatisation and competition as the answer to every problem regardless of damage to schools and pupils Teachers Schooling Making a Difference shows that we can think about education in a far more productive way Professor R W Connell University of Sydney This book is a lesson in making hope practical It makes a compelling argument for recognising supporting and enabling teachers as central to progressive school reform Professor Jenny Ozga University of Edinburgh What teachers do in the classroom really matters even though schools cannot compensate fully for difficulties children may face at home and in society Good teachers and good schools have been making a difference in children s lives for generations but what exactly is it that works Based on extensive research in 1000 primary and secondary classrooms this book examines the tough questions about teaching methods curriculum assessment and teachers professionalism The authors isolate the key elements that make the difference in the classroom and offer teachers practical approaches to working with all their students Teachers and Schools Making a Difference is essential reading for teachers and school administrators who want to improve their professional skills and offer a genuinely democratic education

Identity, Neoliberalism and Aspiration Garth Stahl, 2015-01-09 In recent years there has been growing concern over the pervasive disparities in academic achievement that are highly influenced by ethnicity class and gender Specifically within the neoliberal policy rhetoric there has been concern over underachievement of working class young males specifically white working class boys The historic persistence of this pattern and the ominous implication of these trends on the long term life chances of white working class boys has led to a growing chorus that something must be done to intervene This book provides an in depth sociological study exploring the subjectivities within the neoliberal ideology of the school environment in order to expand our understanding of white working class disengagement with education The chapters discuss how white working class boys in three educational sites enact social and learner identities focusing on the practices of meaning making and identity work that the boys experienced and the disjunctures and commonalities between them The book presents an analysis of the varying tensions influencing the identity of each boy and the consequences of these pressures on their engagement with education Drawing on Bourdieu s theoretical tools and a model of egalitarian habitus Identity Neoliberalism and Aspiration Educating white working class boys will be of interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the field of sociology of education and those from related disciplines studying class and gender Families, Education and Giftedness Jim Campbell, Laura Mazzoli Smith, 2013-02-12 What is it like to be YOUNG GIFTED AND WORKING CLASS in contemporary England How do working class family values support high educational achievement What do researchers and policy makers have to learn about giftedness from working class families These provocative questions are explored in this ground breaking book Most studies of giftedness focus on the characteristics of individuals and draw upon psychological frameworks to understand them Participants in most gifted education programmes are recruited disproportionately from the higher social classes Sceptical of the concept of giftedness Mazzoli Smith and Campbell question conventional methodologies using a narrative approach to understand how four families of working class origins each with a gifted child construct their values in relation to education and social class They explore the influence of their family histories cultural values and life styles upon educational engagement and achievement The authors show that gifted education policies are poorly matched to the values of these families and argue that much research into giftedness has been flawed by social and cultural discrimination They propose an agenda for change in research paradigms in the giftedness field which should be characterized by interdisciplinarity and more culturally relative conceptions of giftedness Hard Labour? Academic Work and the Changing Landscape of Higher Education Tanya Fitzgerald, Julie White, Helen Gunter, 2012-01-05 Drawing on data from Australia England and New Zealand this book addresses how neo liberal policies of successive governments have decreased autonomy of academics and increased regimes of surveillance radically altering how academics think about and engage in their intellectual work The Complete Guide to Becoming an English Teacher Jo Westbrook, 2009-12-01 Praise for the previous edition This is a text that should accompany every student teacher of English and find its way on to the shelf of all practising teachers This book excited me It is written in a style that makes you want to try out activities and take up challenges This book will encourage the student teacher to embrace the subject of English along with its associated values and debates ESCalate If I was training to teach English today this is the book I would want an extraordinarily professional handbook of good practice Geoff Barton Times Educational Supplement Teacher Magazine This essential companion for aspiring secondary English teachers has been extensively reworked to help students meet the very latest professional and academic standards while also equipping them with the knowledge and skills they will need for the beginning of their teaching career Focusing on the essentials needed to be a successful English teacher the authors combine subject knowledge with ideas examples and approaches for creating an effective vibrant learning environment and real examples of lesson plans and schemes of work Each chapter clearly links practice to theoretical and critical perspectives on teaching making this an ideal text for students working towards M level credits or a Masters in Teaching and Learning There are also brand new chapters which explore in greater depth specific areas of contention and challenging issues including Diversities including global perspectives on teaching English The application and implications of using ICT Multi agency provision in personalising learning Research methodologies Transition from the training year and the first year as a teacher The latest requirements for Qualified Teacher Status are clearly signposted throughout and activities at the end of each chapter help to reinforce knowledge and encourage reflection Written by a team of highly respected authors this new edition should be on every secondary English student s bookshelf

International Perspectives on Theorizing Aspirations Garth Stahl,Derron Wallace,Ciaran Burke,Steven Threadgold,2018-11-01 International Perspectives on Theorizing Aspirations offers new insights and guidance for those looking to use Bourdieu s tools in an educational context with a focus on how the tools can be applied to issues of aspiration Written by contributors from the UK USA Australia Nigeria Jamaica and Spain the book explores how Bourdieu s tools have been applied in recent cutting edge educational research on a range of topics including widening participation migration ethnicity and class The contributors consider how aspirations are theorized in sociology as well as exploring the structure agency debates before recapitulating Bourdieu s tools and their applicability in educational contexts A key question running through the chapters is how does social theory shape research Including recommended readings this is essential reading for anyone looking to use Bourdieu in their research and for those studying aspiration in an educational research setting
