Congressional Record United States. Congress,1999 Eyes Off the Prize Carol Elaine Anderson,2003-04-21 This book was first published in 2003 As World War II drew to a close and the world awakened to the horror wrought by white supremacists in Nazi Germany African American leaders led by the NAACP National Association for the Advancement of Colored People sensed the opportunity to launch an offensive against the conditions of segregation and inequality in America The prize they sought was not civil rights but human rights Only the human rights lexicon shaped by the Holocaust and articulated by the United Nations contained the language and the moral power to address not only the political and legal inequality but also the education health care housing and employment needs that haunted the black community But the onset of the Cold War and rising anti communism allowed powerful Southerners to cast those rights as Soviet inspired Thus the Civil Rights Movement was launched with neither the language nor the mission it needed to truly achieve black equality

Have No Fear Charles Evers,Andrew Szanton,2008-04-21 Have No Fear reminds us what it meant to live under a system where segregation was important enough to kill for and where being treated with dignity and respect was a whites only entitlement The New York Times Book Review A gutsy American patriot and treasure an important slice of American history Dan Rather Charles Evers has given us one of the most extraordinary memoirs about race in America that I know This holy sinner of the civil rights era who kept company with mobsters bootleggers call girls Kings Kennedys and Rockefellers has produced with Andrew Szanton a salient one man s history of Mississippi and the United States before and after Brown v Board of Education The fascinating interplay of racial nihilism and political sagacity is reminiscent of the early Malcolm X and the mature Frederick Douglass David Levering Lewis Truly spellbinding relives the fear desperation and confrontation that marked the civil rights struggle The seattle times
