Grant, Jr.,2014-11-01 Before the opening of the treaty ports in the 1840s Canton was the only Chinese port where foreign merchants were allowed to trade The Golden Ghetto takes us into the world of one of this city s most important foreign communities the Americans during the decades between the American Revolution of 1776 and the signing of the Sino US Treaty of Wanghia in 1844 American merchants lived in isolation from Chinese society in sybaritic albeit usually celibate luxury Making use of exhaustive research Downs provides an especially clear explanation of the Canton commercial setting generally and of the role of American merchants Many of these men made fortunes and returned home to become important figures in the rapidly developing United States The book devotes particular attention to the biographical details of the principal American traders the leading American firms and their operations in Canton and the United States Opium smuggling receives especial emphasis as does the important topic of early diplomatic relations between the United States and China Since its first publication in 1997 The Golden Ghettohas been recognized as the leading work on Americans trading at Canton Long out of print this new edition makes this key work again available both to scholars and a wider readership The fullest exposition on the subject thus far and as the final word on extant previously untapped English language sources Eileen Scully in The China Quarterly The Genealogical Magazine ,1901 The Lancet ,1891 The Connoisseur ,1907 Calendar of the Sparks Manuscripts in Harvard College Library Justin Winsor,1886 Full and Present Salvation in Christ Klaus Arnold,2018-04-11 Theodor Jellinghaus 1841 1912 theologian and leader of the Heiligungsbewegung Holiness Movement was one of the fathers of the Gemeinschaftsbewegung Fellowship Movement in Germany a new organized expression of the Pietist tradition in nineteenth century German Protestantism The key event for the life and work of Jellinghaus was his participation in the convention on Christian holiness in England in 1874 He wanted to bring the new insights he gained there to revive the Protestant and Pietist traditions in the land of the Reformation Jellinghaus believed that the doctrine of sanctification by faith in Jesus Christ which he had heard in England was an indispensable consequence of and necessary accompaniment to a clear doctrine of justification His special concern in the Gemeinschaftsbewegung was the education of laypersons The last phase of his life was characterized by crisis and illness which were related to each other and directly and indirectly led to his so called recantation We can only do justice to the overall persona of Jellinghaus if we differentiate between the former healthy and later ill Jellinghaus He has to be viewed in the contradictions and tensions within the development of the Heiligungsbewegung and the Gemeinschaftsbewegung as well as his theological teachings This book is the first comprehensive treatment of Jellinghaus which not only focuses on his doctrine of sanctification but assesses his overall life and work that is his theological system and personal involvement in and contribution to the development of the Heiligungsbewegung and Gemeinschaftsbewegung in Germany Children,
