Resources in Education , 1994

Between Light and Shadow Mac Darrow, 2003-03-20 Much has been written on the human rights relevance and impacts of the policies and activities of the World Bank and IMF or International Financial Institutions IFIs However while many of the human rights based critiques of the Bank and Fund purport to link broadly defined reforms with obligations under international human rights law rarely has this been carried out through a rigorous and in depth application of international legal rules governing the proper interpretation of the institutions mandates and rarely have the policy consequences and practical possibilities for human rights integration been explored in any detail These are the principal gaps that the present book aims to fill by reference to a sample of the IFIs most important and controversial contemporary activities

Exile and Otherness

Alexander Stephan, 2005 In recent years Culture Studies Anthropology German Studies History Political Psychology and other fields have used the concept of exile in close connection with terms like migration border crossing identity and transnationality Views of a homogeneous culture and of centrality collide with ideas like multiculturalism pluralism creolization and the globalization of differences A transit culture inhabited by the flaneur and the nomad is supposed to have replaced citizenship in a nation At the same time there can be no doubt that the experience of those writers artists and intellectuals who were driven out of Germany and Europe by the Nazis was in many ways unique This book investigates the exile experience in a theoretical and comparative way by exploring the possibilities and limitations of concepts like diaspora de localization and transit culture for understanding the lives and works of German and Austrian refugees from Nazi persecution It revisits the interaction of the exiles with the culture of their host countries in light of recent debates about migration and identity studies and it analyzes texts paintings and other methods of artistic expression which connect the experience of the refugees of 1933 with postmodern notions of de localization hybridity and marginalization Theoretical Perspectives on Historians' Autobiographies Jaume Aurell, 2015-07-24 E H Carr wrote study the historian before you begin to study the facts This book approaches the life work ideas debates and the context of key 20th and 21st century historians through an analysis of their life writing projects viewed as historiographical sources Merging literary studies on autobiography with theories of history it provides a systematic and detailed analysis of the autobiographies of the most outstanding historians from the classic texts by Giambattista Vico Edward Gibbon and Henry Adams to the Annales historians such as Fernand Braudel Philippe Ari s and Georges Duby to Marxist historians such as Eric Hobsbawm and Annie Kriegel to postmodern historians such as Carolyn Steedman Robert A Rosenstone Carlos Eire Luisa Passerini Elisabeth Roudinesco Gerda Lerner and Sheila Fitzpatrick and to interventional historians such as Geoff Eley Jill Ker Conway Natalie Davis and Gabrielle Spiegel Using a comparative approach to these texts this book identifies six historical autobiographical styles humanistic biographic ego historical monographic postmodern and interventional By privileging historians autobiographies this book proposes a renewed history of historiography one that engages the theoretical evolution of the discipline the way history has been interpreted by historians and the currents of thought and ideologies that have dominated and influenced its writing in the 20th and 21st centuries ABC Pol Sci, 1999 Infants, Children, and Adolescents Laura E.

Berk, 2022-07-26 A best selling chronologically organized child development text Laura E Berk s Infants Children and Adolescents takes an integrated approach to presenting development in the physical cognitive emotional and social domains emphasizing the complex interchanges between heredity and environment providing exceptional multicultural and cross cultural focus and offering research based practical applications that students can relate to their personal and professional lives Franco-British Academic Partnerships Philippe Lane, Maurice Fraser, 2011-07-08 The steady increase in joint programmes and qualifications offered by UK and French universities is a cause for celebration But language constraints financial pressures and political uncertainty present real obstacles to continued expansion How are these to be overcome

And how can higher education institutions on either side of the Channel help each other to realise the enormous potential of Franco British partnerships Franco British Academic Partnerships The Next Chapter is a valuable opportunity not only to take stock of intensifying bilateral cooperation in the higher education sector but also to share experience and best practice and hopefully to identify some new initiatives and areas for collaboration Boasting contributions from leading politicians and higher education managers alongside essays from distinguished international scholars the book will be required reading for academics and university leaders New York ,2008-07 Resources in Education ,1993 Military Review ,1999
