Sex and the Sexual during People's Leisure and Tourism Experiences Neil Carr, Yaniv Poria, 2010-05-11 Sex and the sexual have for far too long been consigned to the dark corners by social scientists in general and tourism and leisure scholars in particular Sex and the Sexual During People's Leisure and Tourism Experiences seeks to begin to rectify this situation by bringing the position and nature of sex and the sexual into the light of academic debate As such this book is designed to highlight cross disciplinary emerging work on sex and the sexual in leisure and tourism and provide the readers with insights into this social realm It encompasses a broad array of sex related issues and tourism and leisure environments from across a variety of countries The book should appeal to researchers and students across the humanities and social sciences both for the value of the research in its own right and the ability of it to be used as a lens through which to view the position of sex and the sexual as well as tourism and leisure in today's world Overall it is argued that sex and the sexual should play a part in the academic discourse especially if we wish to describe what is actually happening out there as far as tourism and leisure are concerned

Women and Sex Tourism Landscapes Erin Sanders-McDonagh, 2016-08-12 Sexual spaces normally inhabited by mostly female sex workers are understood as masculine spaces and positioned for and around male consumers However red light zones and public sex performances in both Thailand and Holland are being explored and visually consumed by female tourists in significant numbers Their presence in red light districts and sexual venues is at odds with the ways in which sexual spaces have normally been positioned Woman and Sex Tourism Landscapes explores female tourists interactions with highly sexualized spaces and places in two very different contexts the Netherlands and Thailand Addressing this incongruence this text explores the ways in which these spaces are constructed and examines the different relations that govern the management of and female tourist interactions with these liminal sexual zones Ethnographic data collected in both countries suggests that far from being male centred spaces the red light districts and associated sexual entertainment venues are very much open to female tourists Drawing on this research the author argues that some women are indeed interested in exploring sexualized zones challenging assumptions about women's involvements with sexual space Thinking specifically about the visual nature of women's sexualized experiences the
