Sexual Language An Essay In Moral Theology:

The Sexual Language André Guindon, 1976 The Bond of Love: Catholic Teaching on Marriage & Sexual Ethics Willem Jacobus Cardinal Eijk, 2025-09-10 Contemporary attitudes toward marriage family life and human sexuality have undergone profound changes since the mid twentieth century spurred by a host of social and cultural factors Large segments of the population in the West now hold views on marriage and sexual ethics that are very different from the values and norms taught by the Church Indeed Catholic teaching on the truth of marriage and human sexuality is open to strong criticism including among groups of Catholics and seems at best poorly understood In The Bond of Love Willem Jacobus Cardinal Eijk provides a comprehensive and unflinching account of the Church's teaching on marriage and sexual ethics dispelling misconceptions and elucidating its truth with grace and clarity As he demonstrates far from being a set of arbitrary rules that constrain human freedom this teaching is instead a deep wisdom for human flourishing anchored in the truth of God and man divinely revealed within Scripture Tradition and the Gospel Eijk first locates Catholic teaching on marriage and sexuality in relation to the currently dominant views in Western society He follows this with an exposition of the fundamental starting point of the Church's teaching on the nature of marriage and sexuality rooted in theological anthropology Next discussed is the virtue of chastity the integration of the sexual faculties into the personality and what it requires of both married and unmarried persons The volume concludes by addressing practices and circumstances that violate the essence of marriage This powerful witness to the truth and beauty of Catholic teaching on marriage and sexual ethics is a vital resource for pastors teachers and all of the Church's faithful striving to live in the love and communion that is grounded in Christ The Sexual Language André Guindon, 1976 Erotic Attunement Cristina L. H. Traina, 2011-06-15 Heightened awareness of the problem of sexual abuse has led to deep anxiety over adults touching children in nearly any context This book probes the disquieting issue of how we can draw a clear line between natural affection towards children and perverse exploitation of them Human Sexuality in the Catholic Tradition Kieran Scott, Harold Daly Horell, 2007 Contemporary culture provides conflicting and confusing messages about the meaning and purpose of human sexuality and often sex education that is offered often does not promote a mature integrated understanding of sexuality Human Sexuality in the Catholic Tradition meets the great need for pastoral guidance in addressing moral issues of sexuality in both the Church and broader culture today Kieran Scott and Harold Horell explore with other leading scholars how to draw from the best Christian faith traditions to renew our understanding of sexuality explore the integration of our sexuality and our spirituality and develop life affirming and life sustaining ways of approaching contemporary sexual issues This book explores sexuality from spiritual psychological moral and ministerial perspectives and addresses specific issues such as sex and marriage celibacy homosexuality and cohabitation Sex, Gender, and Christian Ethics Lisa Sowle Cahill, 1996-08-28 This book endorses feminist critiques of gender yet upholds the insight of traditional Christianity that sex commitment and parenthood are fulfilling human relations

Their unity is a positive ideal though not an absolute norm Women and men should enjoy equal personal respect and social power In reply to feminist critics of oppressive gender and sex norms and to communitarian proponents of Christian morality Cahill argues that effective intercultural criticism of injustice requires a modest defence of moral objectivity She thus adopts a critical realism as its moral foundation drawing on Aristotle and Aquinas Moral judgment should be based on reasonable practical prudent and cross culturally nuanced reflection on human experience This is combined with a New Testament model of community centred on solidarity compassion and inclusion of the economically or socially marginalised

Reframing Catholic Theological Ethics Joseph A. Selling, 2016 Traditionally Catholic moral theology has been based upon an approach that over emphasized the role of normative ethics and subsequently associated moral responsibility with following or disobeying moral rules Reframing Catholic Theological Ethics offers an alternative ethical method which without destroying any of the valuable insights of normative ethics reorients the discipline to consider human motivation and intention before investigating behavioral options for realizing one's end Evidence from the New Testament warrants the formation of a teleological method for theological ethics which is further elaborated in the approach taken by Thomas Aquinas Unfortunately the insights of the latter were misinterpreted at the time of the counter reformation Joseph A Selling's analysis of moral theological textbooks demonstrates the entrenchment of a normative method aimed at identifying sins in service to the practice of sacramental confession With a firm basis in the teaching of Vatican II the human person integrally and adequately considered provides the fundamental criterion for approaching ethical issues in the contemporary world The perspective then turns to the crucial question of describing the ends or goals of ethical living by providing a fresh approach to the concept of virtue Selling concludes with suggestions about how to combine normative ethics with this alternative method in theological ethics that begins with the actual ethical orientation of the human person toward virtuous living

Sexuality and the Sacred, Second Edition Marvin M. Ellison, Kelly Brown Douglas, 2010-09-21 Christian discourse on sexuality spirituality and ethics has continued to evolve since this book's first edition was published in 1994 This updated and expanded anthology featuring more than thirty contemporary essays includes more theologians and ethicists of color and addresses issues such as the intersection of race racism and sexuality transgender identity same sex marriage and reproductive health and justice

Leaving and Coming Home David M. Cloutier, 2010-06-04 SINCE 2002 THE SYMPOSIUM NEW WINE NEW WINESKINS HAS OFFERED AN OPPORTUNITY for young Catholic moral theologians to engage in shared work and conversation Here the fruits of these labors are gathered into one collection which represents the wide scope of the future of Catholic sexual ethics This volume offers the first collection of a new generation's approaches to Catholic sexual ethics The collection displays young scholars with diverse views yet whose work moves beyond the impasses that have beset the field The volume offers original and engaging essays on a variety of topics from the hook up culture and dating violence to cohabitation and homosexuality to contraception and natural family planning to the promises and pitfalls of the theology of the body The authors display a fresh engagement with these issues in conversation with the Christian tradition and with contemporary culture David Cloutier provides an introduction that locates this work within the past decades of Catholic scholarship and articulates new categories for future work The essays also offer practical insights and models that will interest pastors and lay ministers as well as scholars Between the Sexes Lisa Sowle Cahill, 1989 The basis for a Christian sexual ethic says Cahill is a correlation of four sources Scripture Christian tradition of faith theology and practice philosophy normative accounts and the empirical sciences descriptive accounts
