The Experiences of Queer Students of Color at Historically White Institutions Antonio Duran, 2020-10-27 This significant text employs an intersectional analysis and considers the role of queer frameworks to understand the experiences of Queer People of Color at historically white institutions of higher education in the U S By presenting data from student interviews and reflection journals the book explores what it means to hold multiple minoritized identities and asks how such intersections are navigated contested and experienced on college campuses Exploring both micro and macro level mappings of marginalization and power the text reveals issues including institutional erasure pervasive whiteness in college and LGBTQ communities and institutionalized racism and heterosexism and offers in depth insights into the material psychological emotional and social impacts on queer students of color Ultimately the analysis highlights the necessity of employing intersectional frameworks for addressing interlocking systems of oppression and offers recommendations for the integration and support of queer students of color at historically white institutions HWIs This monograph will offer invaluable insights for scholars researchers and graduate students working in the fields of gender and sexuality higher education and issues of educational equity who wish to realize the potential of intersectionality as an analytic framework for the study of identity and development of affirming educational environments Stonewall's Legacy Susan B. Marine, 2011-09-29 Contemporary American colleges are increasingly queer places where significant steps toward inclusion of BGLT students have been made Tracing the journey of BGLT students emergence which parallels the modern gay rights movement in America this monograph provides an overview of data and theory derived from studying BGLT students and student movements in higher education Offering context for the ways that previously marginalized students in higher education survive and thrive this issue Tells the story of their growing visibility on campus Summarizes collective knowledge to date about BGLT identity development Takes stock of transgender students distinctive position and experiences in higher education Assesses the role of the BGLT campus resource center in supporting students and advancing equity This issue develops a picture of the ways that BGLT community activism informs scholarship and vice versa In the telling of the movement s stories these lessons suggest a practice of collaborative transformation for advancing the future of BGLT equality in higher education This is Volume 37 Issue 4 of the Jossey Bass publication ASHE Higher Education Report Each monograph is the definitive analysis of a tough higher education problem based on thorough research and institutional experiences Topics are identified by a national survey Noted practitioners and scholars are then commissioned to write the reports with experts providing critical reviews of each manuscript before publication The Handbook of Student Affairs Administration George S. McClellan, Jeremy Stringer, 2011-01-11 What issues and trends affect higher education and student affairs today In this fully updated handbook leading experts discuss the answer to this and other essential questions They provide a definitive reference for student affairs professionals at all levels of administration and management The handbook offers specific practical advice as well as broad approaches to planning and problem solving It contains modernized discussions on such critical topics as institutional mission institutional governance understanding campus environments finance and budgeting assessment program planning staff selection training and evaluation and much more Rethinking Cultural Competence in Higher Education: An Ecological Framework for Student Development: ASHE Higher Education Report, Volume 42, Number 4 Edna Chun, Alvin Evans, 2016-06-21 Take a holistic look at an intentional educational ecosystem that builds cultural competence a critical skill college graduates need for careers and citizenship in a diverse global society This monograph unpacks the multilayered meanings of cultural competence and offers a term diversity competence that is more consistent with the broad spectrum of diversity learning outcomes that occur on campus Drawing on the findings of a survey of recent college graduates now working as professionals the monograph offers leading edge integrative models that bring together the multidimensional components of the learning environment including curricular co curricular and service learning research based factors contributing to a campus environment that encourages cultural competence in depth assessment and analysis of best practices and concrete recommendations that offer a transformative pathway to the attainment of diversity competence in the undergraduate experience This is the fourth issue of the 42nd volume of the Jossey Bass series ASHE Higher Education Report Each monograph is the definitive analysis of a tough higher education issue based on thorough research of pertinent literature and institutional experiences Topics are identified by a national survey Noted practitioners and scholars are then commissioned to write the reports with experts providing critical reviews of each manuscript before publication Debunking the Myth of Job Fit in Higher Education and Student Affairs Brian J. Reece, Vu T. Tran, Elliott N. DeVore, Gabby Porcaro, 2023-07-03 Co published with This groundbreaking book examines a concept that has gone unexamined for too long The concept of job fit in the student affairs profession Fit is a term used by nearly everyone in student affairs throughout the hiring process from search committees and hiring managers to supervisors and HR professionals This book opens a conversation about the use of job fit as a tool for exclusion that needs to be critically investigated from multiple standpoints This edited collection brings together a number of voices to look at the issues involved through various lenses to explore the ways policies procedures environments and cultural norms provide inequitable job search experiences for individuals from various marginalized groups These include looking at the legal aspects employer definitions communication barriers as well as scholarly personal narratives looking at the concept from the perspective of class race gender and sexual orientation Emerging from the Commission for Social Justice of ACPA the personal narratives and critical explorations in this book are an attempt to provide graduate students and professionals with a resource that is relevant to the job search in an increasingly competitive job market while taking into account the complex realities of their identities The normative assumptions of fit are analyzed by the authors to make visible the barriers those assumptions create for those with non dominant identities The student affairs profession strives for inclusion and acceptance as a core value and an essential competency The profession has made progress in the way it serves students but there is a disconnect between the conversation about students and the way those same values play out in the treatment of practitioners and scholars in the field This book aims to help job seekers looking to evaluate fit in their current and possible future positions as well as hiring managers who face challenges in creating equitable hiring processes Challenging the norms and rhetoric about job fit in student affairs means that scholars and practitioners alike must be able to incorporate this topic explicitly into various aspects of the profession
