Sexuality And The Politics Of Ethos In The Writing Classroom:

Sexuality and the Politics of Ethos in the Writing Classroom Zan Meyer Goncalves, 2006-01-04 Applying the complexities of literacy development and personal ethos to the teaching of composition Zan Meyer Goncalves challenges writing teachers to consider ethos as a series of identity performances shaped by the often inequitable social contexts of their classrooms and communities Using the rhetorical experiences of students who identify as lesbian gay bisexual and or transgender she proposes a new way of thinking about ethos that addresses the challenges of social justice identity and transfer issues in the classroom Goncalves offers an innovative approach to teaching identity performance theory bound by social contexts She applies this new approach to theories of specificity and intersectionality illustrating how teachers can help students redefine the relationship between their social identities and their writing She also addresses bringing social activism and identity politics into the classroom helping writers make transfers across rhetorical contexts and linking students interests to public conversations Theoretical and practical Sexuality and the Politics of Ethos in the Writing Classroom provides teachers of first year and advanced composition studies with useful detailed assignments based in specific identity performance Goncalves offers techniques to subvert oppressive language practices while encouraging students to recognize themselves as writers citizens and active participants in their own educations and communities

Banks, 2011-03-16 Scholar Adam J Banks offers a mixtape of African American digital rhetoric in his innovative study Digital Griots African American Rhetoric in a Multimedia Age Presenting the DJ as a quintessential example of the digital griot high tech storyteller this book shows how African American storytelling traditions and their digital manifestations can help scholars and teachers shape composition studies thoroughly linking oral print and digital production in ways that centralize African American discursive practices as part of a multicultural set of ideas and pedagogical commitments DJs are models of rhetorical excellence canon makers time binders who link past present and future in the groove and mix and intellectuals continuously interpreting the history and current realities of their communities in real time Banks uses the DJ s practices of the mix remix and mixtape as tropes for reimagining writing instruction and the study of rhetoric He combines many of the debates and tensions that mark black rhetorical traditions and points to ways for scholars and students to embrace those tensions rather than minimize them This commitment to both honoring traditions and embracing futuristic visions makes this text unique as do the sites of study included in the examination mixtape culture black theology as an activist movement everyday narratives and discussions of community engagement Banks makes explicit these connections rarely found in African American rhetoric scholarship to illustrate how competing ideologies vernacular and academic writing sacred and secular texts and oral print and digital literacies all must be brought together in the study of African American rhetoric and in the teaching of culturally relevant writing A remarkable addition to the study of African American rhetorical theory and composition studies Digital Griots African American Rhetoric in a Multimedia Age will compel scholars and students alike to think about what they know of African American rhetoric in fresh and useful ways

Fashioning Lives Eric Darnell Pritchard, 2016-11-01 Honorable Mention 2018 Winifred Bryan Horner Outstanding Book Award Winner Lavender Rhetorics Award for Excellence in Queer Scholarship from CCCC 2018 Winner Advancement of Knowledge Award from CCCC 2018 Winner Outstanding Book Award from the Conference on Community Writing 2017 Fashioning Lives Black Queers and the Politics of Literacy analyzes the life stories of sixty Black lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer LGBTQ people along with archival documents, literature and film. Author Eric Darnell Pritchard provides a theoretical framework for studying the literacy work of Black LGBTQ people who do not fit into the traditional categories imposed on their language practices and identities. Examining the myriad ways literacy is used to inflict harm, Pritchard discusses how these harmful events prompt Black LGBTQ people to ensure their own survival by repurposing literacy through literacy performances fueled by accountability to self and communal love towards social and political change, a process the author calls restorative literacies. Pritchard highlights restorative literacies in literacy institutions: e.g., libraries, schools, historical records, repositories, religious and spiritual spaces, parties, community events, activist organizations and digital spheres. This trailblazing study draws connections between race and queerness in literacy, composition and rhetoric and provides the basis for a sustainable dialogue on their intersections in the discipline.

Two-Year College Writing Studies Darin Jensen, Brett Griffiths, 2023-12-15 Two Year College Writing Studies is a comprehensive overview of the two year college writing teaching experience within our current political and historical contexts with examples for teachers to better enact just teaching practices in their colleges. Editors Darin Jensen and Brett Griffiths present grounded, well theorized and practical strategies for teachers to implement in classrooms, institutions and geopolitical contexts to advocate more effectively for their students. Contributors draw on theories of identity, rhetorical, third space and linguistics to articulate a praxis of just teaching. They describe existing institutional challenges and opportunities that foster equity and offer cautionary tales of educational systems dismantled for short term economic and political gains. Two year college writing studies when properly resourced holds the potential to foster or undermine democratic ideals of civic literacy and uplift. Chapters in this volume offer case study examples of changes in departmental practices for reflection, interaction and assessment that empower faculty to break free and engage directly with institutional, regional, state and national constraints. By making these resilient practices visible, Two Year College Writing Studies amplifies the voices and validates the experiences of instructors engaging in this work. It will serve generalists, specialists and academics interested in the subdiscipline of student success pedagogies and the political histories of two year colleges and be useful for instructors.

new to the field as professional development for veteran instructors and as an introduction for graduate students entering two year college writing studies programs
