Shades Of Loneliness Pathologies Of A Technological Society:

Shades of Loneliness Richard Stivers, 2004-02-09 In this incisive and controversial book Richard Stivers rejects genetic explanations of psychological problems arguing instead that the very organization of technological societies is behind the pervasive experience of loneliness In its extreme form loneliness assumes pathological dimensions in neurosis and schizophrenia which reflect the contradiction between power and meaninglessness that characterizes modern life Loneliness in its many manifestations seems to be the price we must pay for living in a technological world Yet nurturing family friend and community ties can mitigate its culturally and psychologically disorganizing power This book is a clarion call for a renewal of moral awareness and custom to combat the fragmentation and depersonalization of our technological civilization Visit our website for sample chapters

Living into Focus Arthur Boers, 2012-01-01 In today's high speed culture there's a prevailing sense that we are busier than ever before and that the pace of life is too rushed Most of us can relate to the feeling of having too much to do and not enough time for the people and things we value most We feel fragmented overwhelmed by busyness and the tyranny of gadgets Veteran pastor and teacher Arthur Boers offers a critical look at the isolating effects of modern life that have eroded the centralizing focusing activities that people used to do together He suggests ways to make our lives healthier and more rewarding by presenting specific individual and communal practices that help us focus on what really matters These practices such as shared meals gardening hospitality walking prayer and reading aloud bring our lives into focus and build community The book includes questions for discernment and application and a foreword by Eugene H Peterson

Spirits of Community K. D. M. Snell, 2016-06-16 Concern about the decline of community and the theme of community spirit are internationally widespread in the modern world The English past has featured many representations of declining community expressed by those who lamented its loss in quite different periods and in diverse genres This book analyses how community spirit and the passing of community have been described in the past whether for good or ill with an eye to modern issues such as the so called loneliness epidemic or the social consequences of alternative structures of community It does this through examination of authors such as Thomas Hardy James Wentworth Day Adrian Bell and H E Bates by appraising detective fiction writers analysing parish magazines considering the letter writing of the parish poor in the 18th and 19th centuries and through the depictions of realist landscape painters such as George Morland K D M Snell addresses modern social concerns showing how many current preoccupations had earlier precedents In presenting past representations of declining communities and the way these affected individuals of very different political persuasions the book draws out lessons and examples from the past about what community has meant hitherto setting into context modern predicaments and judgements about spirits of community today
