Shadows Of Death Resistance No 3:

The Shadow of Death Mark Canuel,2016-07-26 The Shadow of Death is a timely and ambitious reassessment of English Romantic literature and the unique role it played in one of the great liberal political causes of the modern age Mark Canuel argues that Romantic writers in Great Britain led one of the earliest assaults on the death penalty and were instrumental in bringing about penal law reforms He demonstrates how writers like Percy Bysshe Shelley Lord Byron William Wordsworth and Jane Austen defined the fundamental contradictions that continue to inform today's debates about capital punishment Celebrated reformers like Sir Samuel Romilly and William Ewart campaigned against the widespread use of death to punish crimes ranging from murder to petty theft but they were most influential for initiating a system of penalties built upon conflicting motivations and justifications Canuel examines the ways Romantic poets and novelists magnified these tensions while treating them as uniquely aesthetic opportunities seized upon contending rationales of punishment to express imaginative power and revealed how the imagination fueled the new penal code's disturbing vitality Death penalty reform Canuel argues in fact emerged from a new way of thinking about punishment as a negotiation among rationales rather than a seamless whole with leniency and severity constantly at odds He concludes by exploring how Romantic penal reform continues to influence contemporary views about the justice and injustice of legal sanctions Out for Blood Bastion Press,2003-10-05 In the Shadow of Death P. Narang,2019-06-25 Andaman and Nicobar Islands popularly known as Kala Pani comprise of 572 islands only 36 being inhabited The early history of these islands of exquisite beauty is shrouded in mystery Occupied by East India Company towards the close of the 18th century they were used by the British for a penal settlement after 1857 Prisoners sentenced to life imprisonment were kept in a cellular jail The real inhabitants of these islands are however some aboriginal tribes like the Great Andamanese the Onge Jarawas Sentinelese and Shompens whose past is mysterious and future uncertain The Japanese had made all preparations for the occupation of the islands a decade before actual occupation on 23rd March 1942 New hopes and desires of independence were enkindled in the minds of the islanders However the duration of this period of friendship was extremely short and people were soon caught in a grip of terror resulting in atrocities round ups and mass murders Netaji's visit also could not improve the situation The nuclear attacks brought Japan to her knees and the Instrument of Surrender was signed at Port Blair on 9th October 1945 As a result of the war crime courts out of 16 accused 6 were executed at Singapore and the rest were sentenced to various terms ranging from 7 to 25 years The islands now enjoy the status of a union territory In the Shadow of Sharpeville Peter Parker,Joyce Mokhesi-Parker,1998-06 A history of the men who were sentenced to hang in South Africa following the death of a deputy mayor in Sharpeville in 1984 The authors focus on the trial sentencing and subsequent international campaign that eventually led to their release after a stay of execution was ordered only 18 hours before the death sentence was to be carried out Their exploration of the events also leads the authors into discussions of the way the criminal justice system in apartheid South Africa was biased against blacks The source material for the book included countless interviews and letters written from Death Row Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Essays on Hitler's Europe István Deák, 2001-01-01 István Deák is one of the world's most knowledgeable and clearheaded authorities on the Second World War and for decades his commentary has been among the most illuminating and influential contributions to the vast discourse on the politics history and scholarship of the period Writing chiefly for the New York Review of Books and the New Republic Deák has crafted review essays that cover the breadth and depth of the huge literature on this ominous moment in European history when the survival of democracy and human decency were at stake Collected here for the first time these articles chart changing reactions and analyses by the regimes and populations of Europe and reveal how postwar governments historians and ordinary citizens attempt to come to terms with or to evade the realities of the Holocaust war fascism and resistance movements They track the acts of scoundrels and the collusion of ordinary citizens in the so called Final Solution but also show how others in authority and on the street heroically opposed the evil of the day With its depth conciseness and interpretive power this collection allows readers to consider more clearly and completely than ever before what has been said how thought has shifted and what we have learned about these momentous world changing events

Death and Other Penalties Lisa Guenther, Scott Zeman, 2015-04-01 Mass incarceration is one of the most pressing ethical and political issues of our time In this volume philosophers join activists and those incarcerated on death row to grapple with contemporary U S punishment practices and draw out critiques around questions of power identity justice and ethical responsibility This work takes shape against a backdrop of disturbing trends The United States incarcerates more of its own citizens than any other country in the world A disproportionate number of these prisoners are people of color and today a black man has a greater chance of going to prison than to college The United States is the only Western democracy to retain the death penalty even after decades of scholarship statistics and even legal decisions have depicted a deeply flawed system structured by racism and class oppression Motivated by a conviction that mass incarceration and state execution are among the most important ethical and political problems of our time the contributors to this volume come together from a diverse range of backgrounds to analyze critique and envision alternatives to the injustices of the U S prison system with recourse to deconstruction phenomenology critical race theory feminism queer theory and disability studies They engage with the hyper incarceration of people of color the incomplete abolition of slavery the exploitation of prisoners as workers and as raw material for the prison industrial complex the intensive confinement of prisoners in supermax units and the complexities of capital punishment in an age of abolition The resulting collection contributes to a growing intellectual and political resistance to the apparent inevitability of incarceration and state execution as responses to crime and to social inequalities It addresses both philosophers and activists who seek intellectual resources to contest the injustices of punishment in the United States
