Shahhat An Egyptian:

Shahhat, an Egyptian Richard Critchfield, 1978 The story of a young peasant man from the upper Nile reveals the cultural and psychological turbulence of a country being thrust into the twentieth century Shahhat, 1982 Greek Culture in

Hellenistic Egypt Lucio Del Corso, Antonio Ricciardetto, 2024-11-04 This book investigates some aspects of the cultural consequences of the settlement of Greeks in Egypt during the Hellenistic period through a discussion of papyrological material archaeological evidence and literary sources It is divided into three sections The first Space and Images reflects on the evolutions and changes in iconography spatial organization and landscape The second Ethnic Interactions offers new hints on the long debated topic of ethnicity relying on a wide range of Greek and Demotic sources The third The Literary Experience shifts the attention from documents to literature examining the circulation of Greek texts and books in Egypt from different perspectives Mixing case studies and overviews the volume offers an updated multifaceted representation of complex phenomena which can be understood only going beyond disciplinary boundaries Egypt 1945-1990 Derek

Hopwood, 2002-03-11 The second edition of this lucid and accessible work rapidly established itself as a textbook for universities and colleges This new edition brings it further up to date and places the achievements and failures of President Mubarak in context The new material includes an examination of Egypt's role in the Gulf Crisis The book is divided by topic and areas covered include The political ideologies of Presidents Nasser and Sadat The economic problems facing the nation The role of Islam in politics and in society Egyptian culture and literature Sex and Society in Græco-Roman Egypt

Dominic Montserrat, 1996 First Published in 1996 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Power of Representation Michael Ezekiel Gasper, 2008-11-06 The Power of Representation traces the emergence of modern Egyptian national identity from the mid 1870s through the 1910s During this period a new class of Egyptian urban intellectuals teachers lawyers engineers clerks accountants and journalists came into prominence Adapting modern ideas of individual moral autonomy and universal citizenship this group reconfigured religiously informed notions of the self and created a national sense of Egyptian-ness drawn from ideas about Egypt's large peasant population The book breaks new ground by calling into question the notion common in historiography of the modern Middle East and the Muslim world in general that in the nineteenth century secular aptitudes and areas of competency were somehow separate from religious ones Instead by tying the burgeoning Islamic modernist movement to the process of identity formation and its attendant political questions Michael Gasper shows how religion became integral to modern Egyptian political social and cultural life

Religion and Societies Carlo Caldarola, 2011-06-01 The series Religion and Society RS contributes to the exploration of religions as social systems both in Western and non Western societies in particular it examines religions in their differentiation from and intersection with other cultural systems such as art economy law and politics Due attention is given to paradigmatic case or comparative studies that exhibit a clear theoretical orientation with the empirical and historical data of religion and such aspects of religion as ritual the religious imagination constructions of tradition iconography or media In addition the formation of religious communities their construction of identity and their relation to society and the wider public are key issues of this series Rule of Experts Timothy Mitchell, 2002-11-18 Publisher Description Africana Journal , 1979 The Traveler's Key to Ancient Egypt John Anthony West, 1995 Information to the art and architecture of the sacred sites of ancient Egypt and of items in the Cairo and Luxor museums also provides coverage of modern Egyptology
