19th Century Europe Hannu Salmi, 2013-04-24 Nineteenth Century Europe offers a much needed concise and fresh look at European culture between the Great Revolution in France and the First World War It encompasses all major themes of the period from the rising nationalism of the early nineteenth century to the pessimistic views of fin de siècle It is a lucid fluent presentation that appeals to both students of history and culture and the general audience interested in European cultural history The book attempts to see the culture of the nineteenth century in broad terms integrating everyday ways of life into the story as mental material and social practices It also highlights ways of thinking mentalities and emotions in order to construct a picture of this period of another kind that goes beyond a story of isms or intellectual and artistic movements Although the nineteenth century has often been described as a century of rising factory pipes and grey industrial cities as a cradle of modern culture the era has many faces This book pays special attention to the experiences of contemporaries from the fear for steaming engines to the longing for the pre industrial past from the idle calmness of bourgeois life to the awakening consumerism of the department stores from curious exoticism to increasing xenophobia from optimistic visions of future to the expectations of an approaching end The century that is only a few generations away from us is strange and familiar at the same time a bygone world that has in many ways influenced our present day world Library of the World's Best Literature, Ancient and Modern - Volume II (Illustrated Edition) (Dodo Press) Charles Dudley Warner, Hamilton Wright Mabie, Lucia Gilbert Runkle, 2008-03-01 Charles Dudley Warner 1829 1900 was an American essayist and novelist He worked with a surveying party in Missouri studied law at the University of Pennsylvania practiced in Chicago was assistant editor 1860 and editor 1861 1867 of The Hartford Press and after The Press was merged into The Hartford Courant was co editor with Joseph R Hawley in 1884 he joined the editorial staff of Harper s Magazine for which he conducted The Editors Drawer until 1892 when he took charge of The Editor s Study He travelled widely lectured frequently and was actively interested in prison reform city park supervision and other movements for the public good He was the first president of the National Institute of Arts and Letters He first attracted attention by the reflective sketches entitled My Summer in a Garden 1870 Amongst his other works are Saunterings 1872 Backlog Studies 1873 Being a Boy 1878 In the Wilderness 1878 Captain John Smith 1881 Washington Irving 1881 A Little Journey in the World 1889 As We Were Saying 1891 and That Fortune 1899

Doctor-Detectives in the Mystery Novel Howard Brody, 2021-01-18 This is the first book to offer a critical analysis of one variant of the mystery story or novel the use of a physician as the major detective There is little difference between a medical case study and a mystery story The book reviews the works of major authors from R Austin Freeman Helen McCloy Josephine Bell and H C Bailey to Patricia Cornwell Kathy Reichs Aaron Elkins and Colin Cotterill with briefer reviews of minor authors It also addresses historical fictional physician detectives psychological detectives and physician detective nonfiction Physicians and health workers are avid readers of detective fiction and will welcome this volume which addresses their specific interests Its critical analysis of books that have long been viewed as central to detective fiction will also appeal to fans of the mystery story

A Parcel of Ribbons : Letters of the 18th Century Lee Family in London and Jamaica
 Anne M Powers,2012 Set among the sugar plantations of Jamaica and the balls and masquerades of Georgian London the story is told by the Lee family in their own words In 1749 thirteen year old Robert Cooper Lee sailed to Jamaica taking a parcel of ribbons for sale When his family was left all but penniless Robert and his brothers forged new lives in Jamaica fathered children with women who were the descendants of slaves and supported their sister left behind in England Robert returned to London with his family in 1771 A prominent attorney respected throughout Jamaica and among the West Indian lobby in London he had built a fortune that enabled his children to mix with royalty This remarkable collection of letters tells a story of triumph against adversity of a family that suffered sickness bankruptcy sudden death a clandestine marriage and an elopement Through it all the bonds of family endured

The Poetry Toolkit: The Essential Guide to Studying Poetry
 Rhian Williams,2013-01-17 With examples from an extensive range of poets from Chaucer to today The Poetry Toolkit offers simple and clear explanations of key terms genres and concepts that enable readers to develop a richer more sophisticated approach to reading thinking and writing about poems Combining an easy to use reference format defining and illustrating key concepts forms and topics with in depth practice readings and further exercises the book helps students master the study of poetry for themselves Now in its second edition The Poetry Toolkit includes a wider range of examples from contemporary poetry and more American poetry In addition an extended close reading section now offers practice comparative readings of the kind students are most likely to be asked to undertake as well as readings informed by contemporary environmental and urban approaches The book is also supported by extensive online resources including podcasts weblinks guides to further reading and advanced study guides to reading poetry theoretically

The Grotesque in the Fiction of Charles Dickens and Other 19th-century European Novelists Isabelle Hervouet-Farrar,Max Vega-Ritter,2015-01-12 This book provides an overview of the literary grotesque in 19th century Europe with special emphasis on Charles Dickens whose use of this complex aesthetic category is thus addressed in relation with other 19th century European writers The crossing of geographical boundaries allows an in depth study of the different modes of the grotesque found in 19th century fiction It provides a comprehensive analysis of the reasons behind the extensive use of such a favoured mode of expression Intertextuality and comparative or cultural analysis are thus used here to shed new light on Dickens s influences both given and received as well as to compare and contrast his use of the grotesque with that of key 19th century writers like Hugo Gogol Thackeray Hardy and a few others The essays of this volume examine the various forms taken by the grotesque in 19th century European fiction such as for example the fusion of the familiar and the uncanny or of the terrifying and the comic as well as the figures and narrative techniques best suited for the expression of a novelist s grotesque vision of the world These essays contribute to an assessment of the links between the grotesque the gothic and the fantastic and more generally the genres and aesthetic categories which the 19th century grotesque fed on like caricature the macabre and tragicomedy They also examine the novelists grotesque as contributing to the questioning of society in Victorian Britain and 19th century Europe echoing its raging conflicts and the shocks of scientific progress This study naturally adopts as its theoretical basis the works of key theorists and critics of the grotesque namely Victor Hugo Charles Baudelaire and John Ruskin in the 19th century and Mikhail Bakhtin Wolfgang Kayser Geoffrey Harpham and Elisheva Rosen in the 20th century

State, Politics, and Social Classes Armando Boito, 2023-03-24 This book offers a reassessment politics against the predominating economicist approach to historical materialism within contemporary Marxism Boito draws on the structural interpretation of Marxism inspired by Althusser's works of the mid 1960s and especially by Poulantzas Political Power and Social Classes The volume aims to demonstrate the role of the political dimension together with the economy and to a further extent to contribute to renew contemporary Marxist political theory The chapters cover topics such as the nature of political power the structure and functions of the state the role of politics in historical change political crises and the political formation of the working class The book highlights the role of political structures and practices in the reproduction of economic and social relations and also in the process of historical change The aim of the book is to contribute to the renewal of Marxist thought breaking with the economicist conception that dominated it throughout the last century and finally meeting the demands of the socialist struggle in the 21st century

Memories of the Classical Underworld in Irish and Caribbean Literature Madeleine Scherer, 2021-09-20 Classical Memories is an intervention into the field of adaptation studies taking the example of classical reception to show that adaptation is a process that can be driven by and produce intertextual memories I see classical memories as a memory driven type of adaptation that draws on and reproduces schematic and otherwise decontextualised conceptions of antiquity and its cultural exports in broadly speaking the twentieth and twenty first centuries These memory driven adaptations differ often in significant ways from more traditional adaptations that seek to either continue or deconstruct a long running tradition that can be traced back to antiquity as well as its canonical points of reception in later ages When investigating such a popular and widespread set of narratives characters and images like those that remain of Graeco Roman antiquity terms like adaptation and reception could and should be nuanced further to allow us to understand the complex interactions between modern works and classical antiquity in more detail particularly when it pertains to postcolonial or post digital classical reception In Classical Memories I propose that understanding certain types of adaptations as intertextual memories allows us to do just that The Watkins Dictionary of Religions and Secular Faiths Gerald Benedict,2008 Describes the major religions and belief systems as well as many of the denominations cults and sects that have stemmed from them
