Motherhood And Space Configurations Of The Maternal Through Politics Home And Body:

Motherhood and Space C. Wiedmer, S. Hardy, 2016-04-30 This is a collection of essays on the spatial dimensions of motherhood Engaging both theoretical and empirical perspectives contributors describe the intersection of space and gender across a variety of contexts with both familiar and unexpected territories explored Spaces and Politics of Motherhood Kate Boyer, 2018-04-18 Spaces and Politics of Motherhood offers a fresh perspective on maternity based on original qualitative research from the United Kingdom and the United States Drawing on interviews participant observation an analysis of parenting websites and policy analysis this book presents a series of interlinking arguments about the role of space place and matter in early motherhood and the processes by which mothers come to understand themselves as such Building on existing scholarship Spaces and Politics of Motherhood considers motherhood through themes at the cutting edge of social and feminist theory including materiality and material agency place and memory in the formation of maternal identity issues relating to parenting in public and the politics of combining breastfeeding with wage work It argues that motherhood is an achievement realised through myriad engagements with a range of human and non human others as well as through everyday interactions in public space which can be both emotional and political The Maternal Imagination of Film and Film Theory Lauren Bliss, 2020-09-03 This book challenges common sense understandings of the unconscious effects of cinema and visual culture It explores the castrating power of the early modern witch and the historical belief that pregnant women could manipulate and distort body image as figurative analogies for feminist theories of objectification and the male gaze Through developing this history as an impure but lively analogy this book serves as a provocation against the dominant imagining of objectification It offers innovative analyses of a wide ranging selection of films and topics including Joyce Wieland's Water Sark 1964 and its resonance with the works of John Cage and Stan Brakhage the documentary Histoires d'A A History of Abortion 1973 which contributed to the successful legalisation of abortion in France the Hong Kong horror film Dumplings Jiaozi 2004 where foetal cannibalism serves up an image of censorship and the dual productions The Book of Mary Le livre de Marie and Hail Mary Je vous salue Marie 1985 by Anne Marie Mi ville and Jean Luc Godard that figure a self reproducing virgin who hears herself while remaining a virgin unseen Rhetorics of Motherhood Lindal Buchanan, 2013-04-08 Becoming a mother profoundly alters one's perception of the world as Lindal Buchanan learned firsthand when she gave birth Suddenly attentive to representations of mothers and mothering in advertisements fiction film art education and politics she became intrigued by the persuasive force of the concept of motherhood an interest that unleashed a host of questions How is the construct defined How are maternal appeals crafted presented and performed What do they communicate about gender and power How do they affect women Her quest for answers has produced Rhetorics of Motherhood the first book length consideration of the topic through a feminist rhetorical lens Although both male and female rhetors employ motherhood to promote themselves and their agendas Buchanan argues it is particularly slippery terrain for women on the one hand affording them authority and credibility but on the other positioning them disadvantageously within the gendered status quo Rhetorics of Motherhood investigates that paradox by detailing the cultural construction and performance of the Mother in American public discourse tracing its use and impact in three case studies and by theorizing how when and why maternal discourses work to women's benefit or detriment In the process the reader encounters a fascinating array of issues including birth control civil rights and abortion and rhetors ranging from Diane Nash and Margaret Sanger to Sarah Palin and Michelle Obama As Buchanan makes clear motherhood is a rich site for investigating the interrelationships among gender power and public discourse Her latest book contributes to the discipline of rhetoric by attending to and making a convincing case for the significance of this understudied subject With its examination of timely controversies contemporary and historical figures and powerful women Rhetorics of Motherhood will appeal to a wide array of readers in rhetoric communications American studies women's studies and beyond

Motherhood and Choice Amrita Nandy, 2017-10-02 How can women live fully If autonomy is critical for humans why do women have little or no choice vis vis motherhood Do women know they have a choice if they do How free are these choices in a context where the self is socially mired and deeply enmeshed into the familial What are implications of motherhood on how human relatedness and belonging are defined These questions underlie Amrita Nandy's remarkable research on motherhood as an institution one that conflates woman with mother and personal with political As the bedrock of human survival and an unchallenged norm of normal female lives motherhood expects and even compels women to be mothers symbolic and corporeal Even though the ideology of pronatalism and motherhood reinforce reproductive technology and vice versa the care work of mothering suffers political neglect and economic devaluation However motherhood and non motherhood is not just physiological As the pivot to a web of heteronormative institutions such as marriage and the family motherhood bears an overwhelming and decisive influence on women's lives Against the weight of traditional and contemporary histories socio political discourse and policies this study explores how women as embodiments of multiple identities could live stigma free authentic lives without having to abandon reproductive self determination Published by Zubaan

Maternal Geographies Jennufer L. Johnson, 2019-05-01 This collection broaches the intersections of critical motherhood studies and feminist geography Contributors demonstrate that an important dimension of the social construction of motherhood is how mothering happens in space and place leading to the articulation of diverse maternal geographies Through 16 concise chapters divided into three thematic sections the contributors provide an account of motherhood and mothering as spatial practices that are embedded in relations of power across time and place While some contributors explore how dominant discourses of motherhood seek to keep mothers in their place others take up the notion of maternal geographies as productive in their own right and follow their subjects as they create a new sense of place Collectively the authors demonstrate that mothers are produced and regulated as subjects in relation to space and place and also that practices of mothering produce spatial relationships

21st-Century Narratives of Maternal Ambivalence Rachel Williamson, 2023-09-15 Motherhood has long been depicted in reductive or limited terms At once valorized and configured as the ultimate end goal for socially condoned femininity maternity is also highly mediated and scrutinized This has resulted in a representational tradition that persists in imagining maternal subjects in rigid binary terms pitting good mothers against bad Largely in response to this repressive schema recent years have marked the emergence of a diverse range of visual and literary texts about motherhood While such texts vary in style genre and form this book argues that they are unified in their efforts to publicize embodied maternal experience and foreground maternal ambivalence a concept that is best understood as a mother s capacity to simultaneously love and hate her child Although maternal ambivalence has become an increasingly popular topic of study with maternal scholars its articulation within contemporary representations and narratives has yet to be adequately theorized and addressed and this book aims to fill this gap
