success Equity Equality and Reform in Contemporary Public Education provides emerging research on the reformation of education curriculum to provide proportionate opportunities for marginalized students and support for student achievement in public education While highlighting topics such as achievement gaps gender biases and multicultural responsiveness this book explores the theories and applications of different measures of reform to promote fairness among individual students This book is an important resource for educators professionals school administrators researchers and practitioners in the field of education Motivation and Learning Strategies for College Success Helena Seli,Myron H. Dembo,2016-06-21 Combining theory research and applications this popular text guides college students on how to become self regulated learners Students gain knowledge about human motivation and learning as they improve their study skills The focus is on relevant information and features to help students to identify the components of academic learning that contribute to high achievement to master and practice effective learning and study strategies and then to complete self regulation studies that teach a process for improving their academic behavior A framework organized around motivation methods of learning time management control of the physical and social environment and monitoring performance makes it easy for students to recognize what they need to do to become academically more successful Pedagogical features include Exercises Follow Up Activities Student Reflections Chapter end Reviews Key Points and a Glossary New in the Fifth Edition Discussion of the importance of sleep in learning and memory Revised and updated chapter on self regulation of emotions Current research on impact of students use of technology including digital learning platforms and tools social media and online learning Updated Companion Website resources for students and instructors Student and Teacher Writing Motivational Beliefs Steve Graham,Gary A. Troia,Gustaf Bernhard Uno Skar,2024-06-21 The study of students motivational beliefs about writing and how such beliefs influence writing has increased since the publication of John Hays 1996 model of writing This model emphasized that writers motivational beliefs influence how and what they write Likewise increased attention has been devoted in recent years to how teachers motivational beliefs about writing especially their efficacy to teach writing impact how writing is taught and how students progress as writers As a result there is a need to bring together in a Research Topic studies that examine the role and influence of writing beliefs Historically the psychological study of writing has focused on what students write or the processes they apply when writing Equally important but investigated less often are studies examining how writing is taught and how teachers efforts contribute to students writing What has been less prominent in the psychological study of writing are the underlying motivational beliefs that drive or inhibit students writing or serve as catalysts for teachers actions in the classroom when teaching writing This Research Topic will bring together studies that examine both students and teachers motivational beliefs about teaching writing This will include studies examining the operation of such beliefs how they develop cognitive and affective correlates how writing motivational beliefs can be fostered and how they are related to students writing achievement By focusing on both students and teachers beliefs the Research

Topic will provide a more nuanced and broader picture of the role of motivation beliefs in writing and writing instruction This Research Topic includes papers that address students motivational beliefs about writing teachers motivational beliefs about writing or teaching writing Students motivational beliefs about writing include beliefs about the value and utility of writing writing competence attitudes toward writing goal orientation motives for writing identity epistemological underpinnings writing and attributions for success failure as examples Teacher motivational include these same judgements as well as beliefs about their preparation and their students competence and progress as writers to provide additional examples This Research Topic is interested in papers that examine how such beliefs operate develop are related to other cognitive and affective variables how they are impacted by instruction and how they are related to students writing performance Submitted studies can include original research both quantitative qualitative or mixed methods meta analysis and reviews of the literature Journal of Proceeding and Addresses National Education Association of the United States,1911 Vols for 1866 70 include Proceedings of the American Normal School Association 1866 69 include Proceedings of the National Association of School Superintendents 1870 includes Addresses and journal of proceedings of the Central College Association Job Motivations and Satisfactions of College Teachers United States. Education Office,1961 The Roles of Social Media in Education: Affective, Behavioral, and Cognitive Dimensions Hung Phu Bui,Mark Bedoya Ulla,Veronico N. Tarrayo,Chien Thang Pham,2023-10-24 technologies in education A large body of research has attempted to measure the extent to which social media change human communication In education researchers and educators have employed social media to increase students engagement inside and outside the classroom They have been exploring the effects of the use of social media on the learning outcome and learners beliefs and experiences However some of their endeavors are inconclusive As the effects of social media in education are context sensitive research results reflecting different contexts around the world will contribute to the literature on social media and education Student engagement in learning a growing interest in educational research is widely believed to contribute to the success of learning The contemporary literature shows that students can engage in learning affectively behaviorally and cognitively Recent studies are also interested in using technology to mediate students social and metacognitive engagement in learning As student engagement is a multidimensional area interdisciplinary studies have recently expanded their literature The use of social media to increase student engagement in learning remains underexplored Motivation: Theory and Research Harold F. O'Neil,Michael Drillings,2012-12-06 Designed for professionals and graduate students in the personality social military and educational psychology and assessment evaluation communities this volume explores the state of the art in motivational research for individuals and teams from multiple theoretical viewpoints as well as their effects in both schools and training environments The great majority of education and training R an examination of the impact of motivation on performance and thus also on cognition rather than only on motivation itself research in training as well as educational settings The data reported were collected in various venues including schools laboratories and field settings The chapter authors are the researchers that in many cases have defined the state of the art in motivation Proceedings of the 5th International Conference on Language, Literature, and Education (ICLLE-5 2022) Zulfadhli Zulfadhli,Muhammad Adek,Malta Nelisa,Jeihan Nabila,2023-02-10 This is an open access book The 5th ICLLE will be held in Padang Indonesia in July 27th 2022 The conference aims to provide a forum for researchers practitioners and professinals from the industry academia and government to discourse on research and development professional practice in linguistics literature and education Motivation for Physical Activity, volume II Pedro Morouço,Aleksandra Maria Rogowska,Behzad Behzadnia,2024-12-31 Physical activity engagement is a complex and multifaceted phenomenon driven by a variety of motivations This Research Topic seeks to advance our understanding of the factors that inspire individuals to participate in physical activity The collection of papers in this volume aims to shed new light on this topic offering fresh insights into motivational aspects With this collection we hope to offer valuable insights into the complex realm of motivations for physical activity and underscore the significance of individual characteristics social and cultural factors and environmental influences in shaping exercise behaviors Our goal is also to highlight research findings that hold implications for the promotion of physical activity across various populations including college students older adults athletes professionals recreational sports participants sedentary individuals seeking lifestyle changes etc Empowering Students Through Multilingual and Content Discourse Finley, Stacie Lynn,Correll, Pamela,Pearman, Cathy,Huffman, Stephanie,2023-07-25 Empowering Students Through Multilingual and Content Discourse is a peer reviewed research book that challenges the traditional monolingual classroom approach where the teacher s voice dominates and only the dominant culture s language is considered the path to success The book aims to empower students by creating classroom spaces where all voices are heard valued and empowered It draws on research from scholars who study discourse and offers insights into how discourse can be used to promote language and literacy development honor all students voices and empower them This book also provides guidance on culturally and linguistically sustaining discourse practices and encourages educators to incorporate students home languages and discourse practices in classroom instruction It challenges educators to move away from centering White English and represent language more responsibly within the classroom This research is a valuable resource for academic scholars and a useful tool for teachers looking to cultivate student centered classroom practices By encouraging discourse among students educators can create a space where human life holds meaning and students feel empowered to act and use their voices Teacher Education and Professional Development In Industry 4.0 Ashadi,Joko Priyana,Basikin,Anita Triastuti,Nur Hidayanto Pancoro Setyo Putro,2020-10-20 The main theme of the proceedings of the 4th International Conference on Teacher Education and Professional Development InCoTEPD 2019 is Teacher Education and Professional Development in Industry 4 0 The papers have been carefully grouped under the subthemes of teacher education and professional development curriculum learning materials teaching learning process technology and media and assessment in Industry 4 0 education They also cover vocational education in the era in question and one section is devoted to Industrially disadvantaged societies As these papers were presented at an internationally refereed conference dedicated to the advancement of theories and practices in education they provide an opportunity for academics and professionals from various educational fields with cross disciplinary interests to bridge the knowledge gap and promote research esteem and the evolution of pedagogy Proceedings of the Annual Meeting - National Education Association of the United States National Education Association of the United States,1911
