Passionate Friends Mary Fullerton Mabel Singleton And Miles Franklin:

Passionate Friends Sylvia Martin, 2001 Traces the ambiguous line between female friendships and lesbian relationships A scholarly study of the literature and the political lives of Australian and English women Her Brilliant Career Jill Roe, 2009 Stella Miles Franklin became an international publishing sensation in 1901 with My Brilliant Career a portrayal of an ambitious and independent woman defying social expectations that still captivates readers In a magisterial biography Roe details Miles extraordinary life Parting with my Sex Lucy Chesser, 2018-08-30 Exploring the recurrence of cross dressing and gender inversion within Australian cultural life this book compares and contrasts sustained life long impersonations where women lived worked and even married as men with other forms of cross dressing such as cross dressing for stage and the prosecution of men seeking sexual encounters disguised as women Farming, Fascism and Ecology Philip Coupland, 2016-09-19 The life of Jorian Jenks 1899 1963 has great potential to upset settled assumptions Why did a sensitive and intelligent man from a liberal family become a fascist How did a Blackshirt go green The son of an eminent academic from his childhood onwards Jenks instead longed to farm Lacking the means to do so he worked as a farm bailiff and then in New Zealand as a government agricultural instructor Finally a legacy permitted him to come home and become a tenant farmer Struggling to survive in the economic depression of the 1930s he became an author and activist for rural reconstruction Then having lost faith in the established parties he joined the British Union of Fascists Becoming one of the Blackshirts leading figures he was imprisoned without trial during the war On his release Jenks returned to the struggle this time in the cause of ecology becoming a pioneer of today s organic movement and a founder of the Soil Association This book draws on an extensive range of sources a large proportion of which were previously unseen by historians For the first time it portrays the private and public life of this unusual man revealing many hitherto un glimpsed facets of Jenks life Let's Talk About Sex Lisa Featherstone, 2011-01-18 From the start of the new Australian nation in 1901 to the use of the female contraceptive pill in 1961 Let's Talk About Sex explores the ways sexuality has been constructed understood and experienced in Australia Far from being something hidden and private this work brings sexuality out into the open and explains why sex is of social cultural political and economic importance Let's Talk About Sex is an inclusive history surveying multiple and interwoven forms of sexuality desire pleasure regulation and resistance It begins with the long Victorian period the hidden desires of women and the hydraulic sexual needs of men both in the cities and on the frontier It moves across the decades considering heterosexuality homosexuality lesbians and nascent ideas about queer and sexual difference Lisa Featherstone highlights the tensions of the ages venereal disease homophobia birth control rape and child sexual assault She analyses the ways non normative sexuality was constructed as evil and perverse but also how men and women responded to this pathologising of their desires Let's Talk About Sex provides a fascinating account of sex gender age and race across the formative years of Australian society Ink in Her Veins Sylvia Martin, 2016 Aileen Palmer poet translator political activist adventurer was the daughter of two writers prominent in Australian literature in the first half of the twentieth century Vance and Nettie Palmer were well known as novelists poets critics and journalists and Nettie suspected that their eldest would grow up with ink in her veins Aileen certainly inherited her parents talents publishing poetry translating the work of Ho Chi Minh and recording what she referred to as semi fictional bits of egocentric writing She also absorbed their interest in leftist politics joining the Communist Party at university This combined with her bravery led to participation in the Spanish Civil War and the ambulance service in London during World War II The return to Australia was not easy and Aileen never successfully reintegrated into civilian life In Ink in Her Veins Sylvia Martin paints an honest and moving portrait in which we see a talented woman slowly brought down by war family expectations and psychiatric illness and the sometimes cruel treatments common in the 20th century
