Radical Islam Rising Muslim Extremism In The West:

Radical Islam Rising Quintan Wiktorowicz, 2005-07-21 Although the West denounces the spread of radical Islam in Saudi Arabia Pakistan and elsewhere in the Muslim world it tends to overlook the development of Islamic extremism in its own societies Over the past several decades groups like al Qaeda have been supported by thousands of citizens of the United States the United Kingdom and other Western democracies Rejecting their national identity they have heeded international calls to jihad and formed extremist groups to fight their own countries This groundbreaking book represents one of the first systematic attempts to explain why Westerners join radical Islamic groups Quintan Wiktorowicz details the mechanisms that attract potential recruits the instruments of persuasion that convince them that radical groups represent real Islam and the socialization process that prods them to engage in risky extremism Throughout he traces the subtle process that can turn seemingly unreligious people into supporters of religious violence The author's invaluable insights are based upon nearly unprecedented access to a radical Islamic group in the West His extraordinary fieldwork forms the basis of a detailed case study of al Muhajiroun a transnational movement based in London that supports Bin Laden and other Islamic terrorists Through its rich empirical detail this book explains why ordinary people join extremist movements Radical Islam and International Security Efraim Inbar, Hillel Frisch, 2007-12-12 Radical Islam poses a political challenge in the modern world which is like that of no other radical religious movement Ideologically it is perceived by Western policy makers as threatening the liberal democratic ideology by which most states in the West abide and which most other states rhetorically espouse This book serves as a welcome addition to the intellectual and policy debate on the nature of the radical Islam phenomenon and how to respond to it The collection is divided into three parts the first part seeks to understand the Islamic challenge in broad comparative and historical terms while the second part deals with specific regional case studies which seek to identify patterns of uniformity and variation in radical Islam across a wide swath of terrain The third part is policy oriented suggesting possible responses to the Islamic challenge The contributors include distinguished researchers from Europe North America and the Middle East This book will be of much interest to students of Islamism political violence international security and Middle Eastern politics Islam and Muslims in the West Adis Duderija, Halim Rane, 2018-07-27 This book analyzes the development of Islam and Muslim communities in the West including influences from abroad relations with the state and society and internal community dynamics The project examines the emergence of Islam in the West in relation to the place of Muslim communities as part of the social fabric of Western societies It provides an overview of the major issues and debates that have arisen over the last three to four decades surrounding the presence of new Muslim communities residing in Western liberal democracies As such the volume is an ideal text for courses focusing on Islam and Muslim communities in the West Extreme Britain Elizabeth Pearson, 2024 Drawing on interviews with extremists this timely study explores the relationship between gendered culture and political radicalism using Britain as a case study The Politics of Terrorism and Counterterrorism in Bangladesh Saimum Parvez, Mohammad Sajjadur Rahman, 2022-12-30 This book examines contemporary issues and debates of terrorism in Bangladesh including national and transnational terrorist outfits operating within the country their narratives and counternarratives ideologues women and the youth media representation counterterrorism laws and challenges Bangladesh is a fascinating and often paradoxical case study for terrorism studies The book examines major terrorist groups in contemporary Bangladesh and their international connections and narratives as well as a case study of an influential ideologue who encouraged some Bangladeshis to engage in violence The chapters discuss how women and youth play a role in Bangladeshi terrorism how the internet is used for recruiting terrorists the discourses of the media and state regarding terrorism as well as the politics of law and counterterrorism initiatives including critically evaluating non state actors and government responses In addition to providing an up to date analysis of terrorism and counterterrorism in Bangladesh this book offers a balanced and unbiased perspective on this subject It will appeal to academics and international policymakers who are researching violence and extremism in South Asia ISIS and the Pornography of Violence Simon Cottee, 2019-05-30 ISIS and the Pornography of Violence is a collection of iconoclastic essays on ISIS spanning the four year period from its ascendancy in late 2014 to its demise in early 2018 From a trenchant critique of the infantilization of jihadists to a probing examination of the parallels between gonzo porn and ISIS beheading videos the pieces collected in this volume challenge conventional ways of thinking about ISIS and the roots of its appeal Simon Cottee s core argument is that Western ISIS recruits far from being brainwashed or vulnerable dupes actively responded to the group s promise of redemptive violence and self sacrifice to a total cause

'home-Grown' Jihad Samuel John MULLINS, 2015-11-09 Based on seven years of original research this book contains one of the most detailed and comprehensive assessments of home grown Islamist terrorism HGIT in the US and UK to date Beginning with an examination of the development of militant networks during the 1980s and 1990s it traces the origins of HGIT and highlights the significance of these early experiences in different countries for shaping the future trajectory of the threat The book also examines the range of motivations for violent jihad in the West suggesting a composite theoretical model that specifies three necessary conditions for involvement and challenges popular explanations for differential rates of terrorism which emphasize socioeconomic factors The book analyzes the background and operational activities of nearly 800 American and British jihadis who mobilized between 1980 and September 11th 2013 including factors such as mental health education processes of radicalization leadership use of the Internet sources of funding and links to foreign terrorist organizations This analysis is then complemented with an examination of how these individuals have been dealt with by the respective security services From the first proponents of global jihad to the recent wave of volunteers inspired by events in the Middle East this book provides an extensive yet lucid analysis of one of the greatest security concerns facing America and Great Britain today Home Grown Jihad challenges existing studies on a number of key issues and expands our understanding of HGIT It will be invaluable to academics practitioners and policymakers alike

The World Almanac of Islamism American Foreign Policy Council,2014-01-30 From Western Europe to Asia from the Middle East to the Horn of Africa societies are finding themselves under growing assault from radical Islamist forces In some countries such as Spain and France the challenge posed by radical Islam is still limited in scope and embryonic in nature But in others including Somalia and Pakistan it poses a mortal danger to the future of the existing state The World Almanac of Islamism is the first comprehensive reference work to detail the global reach of Islamism across six continents Each country study written by leading subject matter experts examines the full scope of the Islamist phenomenon from the activities of radical Islamist groups to the role of Islamist actors and ideas in society to the response or complicity of the local government An additional series of movement studies explores the global reach ideology and capabilities of the world s most powerful transnational Islamist movements Finally Almanac includes regional summaries and a global overview designed to provide context and strategic insights into current and emerging trends relating to Islamism the world over Features of the new edition include Three new country studies Nigeria Brazil Tanzania Two new movement studies the Gulen movement and Boko Haram Updates to all original chapters Consolidation of trends analyses into one Global Overview

Hizbut Tahrir Indonesia and Political Islam Mohamed Nawab Mohamed Osman,2018-05-15 This book offers a timely examination of Hizbut Tahrir Indonesia HTI a chapter of the transnational movement Hizb ut Tahrir HT whose key aim is the revival of the caliphate It cautions against an overly simplistic read of a group like HTI and political Islam in Indonesia While there is much to laud particularly with regard to how leaders in Indonesia have attempted to counteract Islamist extremism insofar as the trajectory of non violent Islamism in Indonesia is concerned there are clear reasons for apprehension Groups like the HTI have been adept at using the democratic space in Indonesia to propound their illiberal objectives including encouraging the curtailment of Indonesian art forms deemed un Islamic and more importantly pushing for certain Islamic sects such as the Ahmadiyahs to be banned Yet despite its extreme posturing HTI is accepted as a mainstream Muslim organization As such the Indonesian chapter of Hizb ut Tahrir represents a unique case unlike other chapters which are deemed extreme and fringe HTI though radical still exists within the space provided by the Indonesian religio political landscape This book offers new insights into HTI s history organizational structure and ideology adding considerable new details about HTI and correcting errors in existing literature while directing its primary focus on explaining HTI s rapid growth in Indonesia The central argument is that the key to understanding HTI s growth lies in the role collective identity plays in attracting new members and retaining its existing members within the party Factors such as institutional and non institutional opportunities within the Indonesian political system HTI s resource mobilization strategies and the anti systemic ideology of HTI serve as political organizational and religious incentives for individuals to join the party and launch collective action This goes on to emphasize and show that collective identity remains the most crucial factor in the party s growth Analysing this process of collective identity formation and its impact on recruitment and membership retention is central to this book This book will be of much interest to students of Southeast Asian politics regional security political Islam and International Relations in general

Prevent strategy Great Britain: Home Office,2011-06-07 The Prevent strategy launched in 2007 seeks to stop people becoming terrorists or supporting terrorism both in the UK and overseas It is the preventative strand of the government s counter terrorism strategy CONTEST Over the past few years Prevent has not been fully effective and it needs to change This review evaluates work to date and sets out how Prevent will be implemented in the future Specifically Prevent will aim to respond to the ideological challenge of terrorism and the threat we face from those who promote it prevent people from being drawn into terrorism and ensure that they are given appropriate advice and support and work with sectors and institutions where there are risks of radicalization which need to be addressed

study reflects on discourses politics and culture of islamophobia with reference to Muslim diaspora communities in a post migration Western European context It argues that islamophobia is the product as well as carries the agency of Muslim diaspora enclave exclave phenomenon These socio spatial encounters are not to be seen as divisive but are to be understood as productive to seek to negotiate a transnational multi cultural public space for integration It is in this context that this study has sought to relocate European Islamophobia in Muslim diaspora enclaves Dissertation Series Islam in the Existence of Europe Islam in der Lebenswelt Europa Vol 11 Subject Islamic Studies Middle East Studies Muslim Studies Bleeding Hearts Abdallah Hendawy,2021-10-20 Bleeding Hearts From Passionate Activism to Violent Insurgency in Egypt examines the wave of violence that broke out in Egypt in the aftermath of the 2013 military takeover against the country s first democratically elected president Abdallah Hendawy sheds light on stories of several political activists who abandoned their commitment to nonviolence and took up arms against the state Through multiple interviews ethnographic observations field work and qualitative data analysis Hendawy challenges the dominant theoretical paradigms on radicalization that often attribute this complex phenomenon to ideological or religious beliefs Hendawy thoroughly examines the tumultuous events that followed the 2013 military takeover and the journey of several radicalized individuals He demonstrates how and why select Egyptian activists turned to violent tactics in the course of their political engagement The book ultimately concludes that repressive political environments particularly the systematic authoritarian practices by state security agencies against political activists are largely responsible for radicalization Abusive state practices traumatized the activists and created a litany of unsettled grievances without recourse giving rise to a formidable desire for revenge against those who violated them both individuals and the institutions they represent Counter-Radicalisation Christopher Baker-Beall,Charlotte Heath-Kelly, Lee Jarvis,2014-09-15 This book offers a wide ranging and critical examination of recent counter radicalisation policies using case studies from several countries Counter radicalisation policies such as the UK Prevent strategy have been highly controversial and increasingly criticised since their introduction In this edited volume voices from disciplines including sociology political science criminology and International Relations are brought together to address issues across the global roll out of counter radicalisation agendas In so doing the book critically interrogates i the connections between counter radicalisation and other governmental programmes and priorities relating to integration and community cohesion ii the questionable dependence of counter radicalisation initiatives on discourses and assumptions about race risk and vulnerability to extremism and iii the limitations of existing counter radicalisation machineries for addressing relatively new types of extremism including amongst right wing activists Through examining these questions the book draws on a range of contemporary case studies spanning from counter radicalisation in the UK Germany and Denmark through to detailed analyses of specific preventative initiatives in Australia and the United States Conceptually the chapters engage with a range of critical approaches including discourse theory autoethnography and governmentality This book will be of much interest to students of radicalisation critical terrorism studies counter terrorism sociology security studies and IR in general Jihadist Terror Anthony Richards, 2019-08-22 The past 18 months have seen a radical increase in incidents of jihadist terrorism within the United Kingdom from the Manchester Arena attack to the Houses of Parliament to London Bridge As a result there are renewed calls for a high level national conversation about the causes of and the responses to this particular terrorist problem This book identifies policy and research gaps from an evidence based perspective it analyses what we know what we don't know and what we need to know in relation to understanding and countering the jihadist terrorist threat It provides readers with a synthesis of the knowledge and evidence that exists on each of the key topic areas representing a distinctive and valuable resource for policymakers academics and students The contributors to the volume are leading international and national experts from both the scholarly and policy making communities who are ideally placed to comment on the question of jihadist terrorism and the future of the threat in the UK

Islamic Militant Activism in Belgium, The Netherlands and Germany Martijn de Koning, Carmen Becker, Ineke Roex, 2020-06-25 Based on ethnographic research in Belgium The Netherlands and Germany this book presents a novel approach to studying Muslim militant activism While much existing research focuses on the process of radicalization these authors introduce a different set of questions that investigate specific modes of activism and their engagement with dominant discourses and practices in media and state policies Drawing on social movement theory and Foucault's work on counter conduct this research explores how da wa networks came about and how activists developed themselves in interaction with state and media practices This perspective highlights a form of activism and resistance in which activists turn against policies and debates centring on Muslims and Islam while attempting to create and protect an alternative space for themselves in which they can experience Islam according to their own perception of it The study will contribute to debates about resistance social movements and militant activism among Muslims in Europe

Methods and Contexts in the Study of Muslim Minorities Nadia Jeldtoft, Jørgen Nielsen, 2014-07-16 In the past decade Muslims in Europe have been the subject of heated debates on the place and role of religion in the public space Research into the issues involved has often used visible and formalised expressions of Muslim religiosity as its empirical point of departure This book instead examines the microlevel workings of Muslim minority religiosity to offer a new perspective on these debates Contributors to this volume examine the forms of Muslim religiosity which are not dependent on the official or semi official settings of organised religion These ethnographic studies investigate a range of examples of non organised Islam ranging from salafi jihadism to converts to Islam to everyday spiritualities of Muslim in Europe By exploring these neglected forms of Muslim religiosity this book is able to build up a more nuanced picture of the role of Muslims in Europe It will be of interest to academics researchers and graduate students of Religion Ethnic Studies Migration Studies Sociology and Political Science This book was previously published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies
