Just Peace Theory Book One Valerie Elverton Dixon, 2012-11 In these essays I often refer to social contracts such as the Declaration of Independence the Constitution of the United States the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and other international conventions that describe a vision of just human relations especially in the area of culture and health care We do not live behind a veil of ignorance where we enter into contemplation of questions of right and wrong without an awareness of our own particularities Moreover we do not always determine what is right based on reason But we do make decisions every day about how we will live within the social contracts that govern our lives Many of us go along to get along with a let s not rock the boat preserve the status quocaution Then there are those of us who use the documents of our social contracts to secure more justice and more peace The purpose is to rock the boat and to disrupt the status quo when it is unjust I understand Christ as a title not as a person It is a designation of an anointing This in my opinion is the anointing of radical love Christ is the human incarnation of divine love We each ought to strive to become this whether or not we are Christian whether or not we are even believers Those of us who are Christians believe that Jesus paid it all There is no more need for blood shed sacrifice Murder is never holy God does not need it or want it Our work now is to become living sacrifices that will redeem this world through justice and peace That is the meaning of these essays From the Introduction

Spirituality Practice From the Sanctuary to the Streets Wendy R. McCaig, 2010-05-06 What does it mean to be church Is it spending an hour on Sunday with people who look think and act much as we do Or is it something more incarnational that seeks out those who are different the ones living on the margins For centuries Christians have presumed that we are to take the gospel to the poor Instead Wendy McCaig invites us to receive the gospel from the poor Through a series of encounters with incarcerated homeless and impoverished individuals Wendy McCaig experienced the mysterious power of Christian hospitality that turns strangers into family Her gift for storytelling brings this mysterious transformation to life Inspired by the dreams of a homeless mother who wanted to help her neighbors McCaig started a ministry that empowers formerly homeless individuals to live out their dreams Together these dreamers are transforming their city one person one community and one church at a time Her true stories of the least the lost and the forgotten in her community will show you the Good News becoming reality in the midst of injustice in ways that will inspire you and deepen your faith These twenty stories within a story about what ordinary people can do when they come together across racial economic and geographic divides to fight poverty will expand your vision of what it means to be the church With your eyes opened to the needs and gifts of your neighbors you too can begin to dream God sized dreams for a hurting world And as you pray thy kingdom come on earth you will be inspired to live in such a way as to make it happen in your own community
