Radio Tv And Modern Life A Phenomenology Of Broadcasting:

Radio, Television and Modern Life Paddy Scannell, 1996-12-23 Written by one of the foremost and widely respected writers in the field this volume sheds new light on the forms and premises of the communicative experience In doing so it challenges the theoretical positions of marxist and political economy of media analysts who focus largely on the structure of economic and social power within the media Instead Scannell explores the structuring of engagement of the viewer listener with the broadcaster by analysing the communicative intentions of the broadcaster and the understanding by the audience of those intentions This powerful and accessible book makes an important contribution to media studies in showing students how the history of the media can be enriched by communications theory

Media Talk: Conversation Analysis and the Study of Broadcasting Ian Hutchby, 2005-12-16 Media Talk provides an accessible introduction to the analysis of the spoken word by examining linguistic and discursive aspects of broadcast media Beginning with the observation that talk is central to all genres of radio and television Ian Hutchby examines the forms of speech used by broadcasters as their primary means of communicating with audiences He looks at a range of media forms and genres including televised audience debates confrontational TV talk shows such as Oprah Winfrey and Ricki Lake open line talk radio shows advice giving broadcasts news interviews and political panel discussions Hutchby argues that the study of talk provides insights into the very nature of mass communication and invites the reader into further consideration of a range of important issues such as the relationship between broadcasters and audiences and the public role of media output The book not only describes the role of media talk but also provides detailed examples of analytical tools It is key reading for students on courses in language and the media media discourse communication and cultural studies

Challenges of Christian Communication and Broadcasting Dominic Emmanuel, 2016-07-27 The book attempts to establish historically why it became important for Christian Churches in general and the Catholic Church in particular to reconsider their communicative practices It shows how the Churches tried to change their mode of monological communication to adopt a dialogical one including dialogue with non Christian religions The distinctive character of the book lies in showing that such parallel changes in communicative practices were witnessed in philosophical thinking as well as in the field of secular and religious broadcasting
