Radio Boys Cronies - The Original Classic Edition, 2012-03-01 This is a high quality book of the original classic edition It was previously published by other bona fide publishers and is now finally back in print This is a freshly published edition of this culturally important work which is now at last again available to you Enjoy this classic work These few paragraphs distill the contents and give you a quick look inside The first speaker a lad of fifteen large for his age fair haired though as brown as a berry and athletic in all his easy deliberate yet energetic movements turned to the one he had called Bill a boy of about his own age or a little older but altogether opposite in appearance for he was undersized dark haired black eyed and though a life long cripple with a twisted knee as quick and nervous in action as the limitations of his physical strength and his ever present crutch permitted Young Edison had a friend up in the printing office who let him see proofs from the edition being set up so that he kept posted as to what was to be in the paper before it came off the press Watching the compositors at work he learned to set type and make up the forms so within two weeks after purchasing the press he brought out the first number of The Weekly Herald the first paper ever written set up proof read printed published and sold besides all his other work on a local train and this by a boy of fourteen He had to read to find out things there seemed to be no one who could tell him the half that he wanted to know and I guess a lot of people got pretty tired of having him ask so many questions they couldn't answer. Maybe he's not altogether right about that for education is mighty fine and I'd like to go to a technical school. Gus and I both are aiming for that but we're going to read and study a lot our own way too and experiment aren't we Gus.

The House Boat Boys St. George Rathborne, 1912 I say what's gone wrong now Maurice. Old Fel the speaker, a roughly clad boy of about fifteen or over, caught hold of his companion's sleeve and looked sympathetically in his face. The lad whom he called Maurice was better dressed and he seemed to carry with him a certain air of refinement that was lacking in his friend who was of a rougher nature. Despite this difference, he and Thad Tucker were the closest of chums, sharing each other's joys and disappointments small though they might be. They had met just now at the post office of a little country town, not many miles below Evansville, Indiana, as the afternoon mail was being sorted. The yellow flood of the great Ohio River could be seen from where they stood, glowing in the early November sunshine. Upon being greeted with these words, Maurice Pemberton shook his head dolefully.
