The Great Radio Heroes, rev. ed. Jim Harmon, 2015-11-13 In 1967 Jim Harmon published the first edition of The Great Radio Heroes to great acclaim. Thirty three years later comes an illustrated corrected revised and greatly expanded new edition. Once there was a time and it was not so long ago when radio listening especially to the dramas was one of the most important events in many a young person's life. People developed a love affair with the radio and though the old times are now gone forever the love affair continues. The heroes and settings of radio drama spurred the imagination to supply its own and much better images than visual media provided. There were no padded shoulders on the Lone Ranger. Superman flew with no jiggly trick photography and the Martians whom Orson Welles helped attack the Earth were more convincing than anything the movies can provide. For those who have been under the thrall of radio's alluring call your new host Jim Harmon provides reminiscences of the heyday of radio programming with insights on such radio dramas as I Love a Mystery, Gangbusters, The Shadow, Inner Sanctum, Batman and Robin, Superman, Tom Mix, The Lone Ranger, The Green Hornet, Adventures by Morse and a couple of dozen more. Photographs, a bibliography and an index are included to enhance the reader's journey into a past time when radio was the favorite pastime.

Radio Drama and Comedy Writers, 1928-1962 Ryan Ellett, 2017-11-02 More than 700 uncredited scriptwriters who created the memorable characters and thrilling stories of radio's Golden Age receive due recognition in this reference work. For some radio was a stepping stone on the way to greater achievements in film or television; on the stage or in literature. For others it was the culmination of a life spent writing newspaper copy. Established authors dabbled in radio as a new medium while working writers saw it as another opportunity to earn a paycheck. When these men and women came to broadcasting they crafted a body of work still appreciated by modern listeners.
