Three Voices Bernice E. Cullinan, 1995 Teachers know that poetry is a great deal more than just an add on or an enrichment to be fitted into the curriculum at a spare moment And they are aware of how positively children respond to and learn from reading and writing poetry The key is to know where to start and how to develop teaching ideas that make poetry a natural and enjoyable part of classroom work The text is organized around strategies for using poetry There are thirty three detailed strategies spelled out and nearly three hundred brief suggestions Sidebars contain information on such topics as criteria and a checklist for selecting the kinds of poetry children like and descriptions of poetry forms Children's Catalog H.W. Wilson Company,1991 The 1st ed includes an index to v 28 36 of St Nicholas Literature and the Child Bernice E. Cullinan, Lee Galda,1998 With a slender design and appealing art Cullinan and Galda present a thought provoking discussion on how children can read to respond read to learn and read to enjoy This text provides evaluation criteria for selecting superior children's books rather than listing thousands of titles and synopses Booklists direct readers to quality literature and extended discussions of selected titles demonstrate the selection criteria Multicultural literature is discussed throughout the text with a separate chapter on more specific multicultural issues Numerous teaching ideas many of which are contributed by classroom teachers provide practical applications This is a book for teachers stressing the use of good books in a literature based curriculum Children's Literature in the Elementary School Charlotte S.
