Rainbow Hand Poems About Mothers And Children:

The Rainbow Hand Janet Wong, 2008-11-03 The poems in this collection are about mothers and their children both from the child's perspective and the mother's. Ranging in subject from a child walking in her mother's comforting protective shadow to a ten year old girl wondering if her mother was a freak when she was ten years old to a mother holding her infant son these poems touch on all aspects of the mother child relationship. Here is Mother's Heart. My mother's heart is a bottle I want to fill with warm milk to soothe her hurts with honey to trap her bitterness with a squirt of Tabasco. Shake her up. Inspired by her memories of her mother and her own role as a mother of a young son these poems skillfully illustrated in full color by Jennifer Hewitson create an honest portrait of timeless human connections. Sometimes funny sometimes sarcastic always sensitive the poems will find a ready audience among young people. Poetry People Sylvia M. However not all teachers use poetry in their classroom either because they are not aware of the value of poetry or because they have not had positive experiences with poetry. Given the importance of sharing poetry with today's youth educators must feel confident in evaluating well written poetry and how
