Retreat From China British Policy In The Far East 1937 1941:

Retreat From China Nicolas Clifford,1976-09-21 Retreat from China Nicholas Rowland Clifford,1967 Britain's Imperial Retreat from China, 1900-1931 Phoebe Chow,2016-07-15 Britain's relationship with China in the nineteenth and early twentieth century is often viewed in terms of gunboat diplomacy unequal treaties and the unrelenting pursuit of Britain's own commercial interests This book however based on extensive original research demonstrates that in Britain after the First World War a combination of liberal Labour party pacifist missionary and some business opinion began to argue for imperial retreat from China and that this movement gathered sufficient momentum for a sympathetic attitude to Chinese demands becoming official Foreign Office policy in 1926 The book considers the various strands of this movement relates developments in Britain to the changing situation in China especially the rise of nationalism and the Guomindang and argues that contrary to what many people think the reassertion of China's national rights was begun successfully in this period rather than after the Communist takeover in 1949 Sino-British Negotiations and the Search for a Post-War Settlement, 1942-1949 Zhaodong Wang,2022-03-21 The book is a systematic study of the China Britain relationship during the 1942 1949 period with a particular focus on the two countries discussions over both the 1943 Sino British treaty and the discarded Sino British commercial treaty the future of Hong Kong and the political status of Tibet These were dominated by two underlying themes the elimination of the British imperialist position in China and the establishment of an equal and reciprocal bilateral relationship The negotiations started promisingly in 1942 1943 but by 1949 had failed to reach a satisfactory settlement Behind the failure lay a complex set of domestic considerations and external factors including the powerful influence of the United States Even after seven decades the failure still has a contemporary impact Recent Sino British disputes over the Hong Kong Anti Extradition Law Amendment Bill Movement and incessant Indo Chinese conflicts and skirmishes over their unsettled borders all attest to the enduring legacy of the years 1942 1949 as setting the scene for subsequent Sino British and Sino Indian relations From this perspective the history has never left us 1928-1945 Heinz-Dietrich Fischer,2020-01-20 No detailed description available for 1928 1945 Britain's Imperial Cornerstone in China Donna Brunero,2006-03-02 This book provides an overview of the Chinese Imperial Maritime Customs Service focussing especially on its later years and in particular on the experiences of the foreign administration The Standard-Vacuum Oil Company and United States East Asian Policy, 1933-1941 Irvine H. Anderson Jr.,2015-03-08 Oil was a basic source of conflict between the United States and Japan This book examines the role played by the Standard Vacuum Oil Company in the crisis that led to Pearl Harbor Stanvac was the largest American supplier of oil to Japan and represented the single largest American direct investment in Asia before the war In the context of Stanvac's relations with various governments the author examines the ways in which United States petroleum policy was formulated and the arrangements by which Japan sought to increase its oil reserves He provides new insight into the impact of the financial

The Great Reversal Kerry Brown, 2024-07-23 A vivid history of the relationship between Britain and China from 1600 to the present The relationship between Britain and China has shaped the modern world Chinese art philosophy and science have had a profound effect upon British culture while the long history of British exploitation is still bitterly remembered in China today But how has their interaction changed over time From the early days of the East India Company through the violence of the Opium Wars to present day disputes over Hong Kong Kerry Brown charts this turbulent and intriguing relationship in full Britain has always sought to dominate China economically and politically while China's ideas and exports from tea and Chinoiserie to porcelain and silk have continued to fascinate in the west But by the later twentieth century the balance of power began to shift in China's favour with global consequences Brown shows how these interactions changed the world order and argues that an understanding of Britain's relationship with China is now more vital than ever

Hitler's Foreign Policy 1933-1939 Gerhard L. Weinberg, 2010-03-01 Hitler's path to war consisted of two different stages that paralleled the internal development of Germany From 1933 to the end of 1936 he created a diplomatic revolution in Europe From a barely accepted equal Germany became the dominant power on the continent With the remilitarization of the Rhineland the stalemate in the Spanish Civil War the forming of the Axis and the signing of the Anti Comintern Pact the first phase was completed In the second phase the diplomatic initiative in the world belonged to Germany and its partners Germany's march toward war therefore became the central issue in world diplomacy
