Return Of The Furies:

Return of the Furies Hollida Wakefield, Ralph C. Underwager, 1994 Recovered memory therapy which has become a rapidly growing industry in the past ten years is based on the controversial theory that adults often suffer emotional problems because of forgotten childhood traumas People who experience everyday difficulties like anxiety of overeating are now often told by therapists that the root of their trouble is a repressed memory of abuse in childhood The cure is to bring back the memory a process that usually takes many months and then publicly humiliate the alleged perpetrators of the abuse most often the victim's parents But are the supposed memories recovered in therapy genuine Or are they concocted by therapists and clients in the course of therapy Attempts to find independent corroboration of recovered memories have drawn a blank Contrary to folklore there is not a shred of scientific evidence for the notion that a memory can be repressed and there is plenty of evidence that false memories can be created

The Play of Space Rush Rehm, 2020-07-21 Is space a thing a container an abstraction a metaphor or a social construct This much is certain space is part and parcel of the theater of what it is and how it works In The Play of Space noted classicist director Rush Rehm offers a strikingly original approach to the spatial parameters of Greek tragedy as performed in the open air theater of Dionysus Emphasizing the interplay between natural place and fictional setting between the world visible to the audience and that evoked by individual tragedies Rehm argues for an ecology of the ancient theater one that nests fifth century theatrical space within other significant social political and religious spaces of Athens Drawing on the work of James J Gibson Kurt Lewin and Michel Foucault Rehm crosses a range of disciplines classics theater studies cognitive psychology archaeology and architectural history cultural studies and performance theory to analyze the phenomenology of space and its transformations in the plays of Aeschylus Sophocles and Euripides His discussion of Athenian theatrical and spatial practice challenges the contemporary view that space represents a text to be read or constitutes a site of structural dualities e g outside inside public private nature culture Chapters on specific tragedies explore the spatial dynamics of homecoming space for returns the opposed constraints of exile eremitic space devoid of normal community the power of bodies in extremis to transform their theatrical environment space and the body the portrayal of characters on the margin space and the other and the tragic interactions of space and temporality space time and memory An appendix surveys pre Socratic thought on space and motion related ideas of Plato and Aristotle and as pertinent later views on space developed by Newton Leibniz Descartes Kant and Einstein Eloquently written and with Greek texts deftly translated this book yields rich new insights into our oldest surviving drama

The Scandal of Self-contradiction Luca Di Blasi, Manuele Gagnolati, Christoph F. E. Holzhey, 2012 Pier Paolo Pasolini 1922 1975 was both a writer and filmmaker deeply rooted in European culture as well as an intellectual who moved between different traditions identities and positions Early on he looked to Africa and Asia for possible alternatives to the hegemony of Western Neocapitalism and Consumerism and in his hands the Greek and Judeo Christian Classics morphed into unsettling multistable figures constantly shifting between West and East North and South the present and the past rationality and myth identity and otherness The contributions in this volume which belong to different intellectual and disciplinary fields are bound together by a fascination for Pasolini's ability to recognize contradictions to intensify and multiply them as well as to make them aesthetically and politically productive What emerges is a euro eccentric and multifaceted Pasolini of great interest for the present
