Return Of The Primitive A New Sociological Theory Of Religion:

Revival: The Return of the Primitive (2001) Richard K. Fenn, 2017-07-12 This title was first published in 2001 This work presents a sociological theory of religion Richard K Fenn demonstrates that the shape of the sacred depends on what aspects of the psyche and of the environment seem to be beyond the pale of the human and the social that is the primitive Whatever is anti social or subhuman and whatever subverts the reign of convention or whatever defies notions of reason represents the primitive Indeed the primitive represents the range of possibilities that excluded us from any society or social system That is why hell is so often populated by those who are partly bestial or crooked and corrupting If there is to be a renewal of Christian thinking and aspiration in our time it has to come from a rediscovery of the dream not only in the metaphorical sense of a vision perhaps of racial equality but in the quite literal sense of the individual s own reservoir of suppressed and unconscious memories and yearnings magical thinking and wounded or grandiose self imagery The Return of the Primitive Richard K. Fenn, 2017 This title was first published in 2001 Richard K Fenn demonstrates that the shape of the sacred depends on what aspects of the psyche and of the environment seem to be beyond the pale of the human and the social that is the primitive Whatever is anti social or subhuman and whatever subverts the reign of convention or whatever defies notions of reason represents the primitive Indeed the primitive represents the range of possibilities that excluded us from any society or social system That is why hell as the author shows in this book is so often populated by those who are partly bestial or crooked and corrupting If there is to be a renewal of Christian thinking and aspiration in our time the author argues it has to come from a rediscovery of the dream not only in the metaphorical sense of a vision perhaps of racial equality but in the quite literal sense of the individual s own reservoir of suppressed and unconscious memories and yearnings magical thinking and wounded or grandiose self imagery Provided by publisher The Principle of Excellence Nimi Wariboko, 2009-10-26 This book disturbs the normal and depoliticized meaning of virtue through a genealogical reading of the debates conceptual struggles and ambiguities that were cleansed by virtue ethicists to produce today s conception of excellence This approach provides the narrative raw material to craft a new meaning of excellence as a creative actualization of the potentials for human prosperity The fundamental question asked and addressed about excellence is how communities can use excellence as the organizing principle for political and economic development The author explores how large scale modern societies can be better administered in environments characterized by contingency and possibilities At the very least excellence in societal governance practice should involve the creation of possibilities for community and participation by all its members so that their potentialities can be drawn out for the common good The book also explores the connection between excellence and creativity If excellence is the drive toward actualization of potentialities for all human beings it follows that human creativity is an adequate form for that movement The author not only attempts to trace and clarify the mystique of the creative functions of persons and social groups but also shows how the creative functions of human life can express the unconditional eros of divine creativity In the process of doing all this the author offers a fresh and provocative perspective of philosophy and theology s oldest concerns the good truth beauty justice love hope and the eschatological New Creation

The Split God Nimi Wariboko,2018-02-15 Although Pentecostalism is generally considered a conservative movement in The Split God Nimi Wariboko shows that its operative everyday notion of God is a radical one that poses under cover of loyalty a challenge to orthodox Christianity He argues that the image of God that arises out of the everyday practices of Pentecostalism is a split God a deity harboring a radical split that not only destabilizes and prevents God himself from achieving ontological completeness but also conditions and shapes the practices and identities of Pentecostal believers Drawing from the work of Slavoj i ek Jacques Lacan Jean Luc Nancy and Giorgio Agamben among others Wariboko presents a close reading of everyday Pentecostal practices and in doing so uncovers and presents a sophisticated conversation between radical continental philosophy and everyday forms of spirituality By de particularizing Pentecostal studies and Pentecostalism Wariboko broadens our understanding of the intellectual aspects of the global Pentecostal and Charismatic movements

Transcripts of the Sacred in Nigeria Nimi Wariboko,2023-06-20 Transcripts of the Sacred in Nigeria explores how the sacred plays itself out in contemporary Africa It offers a creative analysis of the logics and dynamics of the sacred understood as the constellation of im possibility available to a given community in religion politics epistemology economic development and reactionary violence Using the tools of philosophy postcolonial criticism political theory African studies religious studies and cultural studies Wariboko reveals the intricate connections between the sacred and the existential conditions that characterize disorder terror trauma despair and hope in the postcolonial Africa The sacred Wariboko argues is not about religion or divinity but the set of possibilities opened to a people or denied them the sum total of possibilities conceivable given their level of social technological and economic development These possibilities profoundly speak to the present political moment in sub Saharan Africa

Possession, Power and the New Age Mr Matthew Wood,2013-05-28 This book provides a new sociological account of contemporary religious phenomena such as channelling holistic healing meditation and divination which are usually classed as part of a New Age Movement Drawing on his extensive ethnography carried out in the UK alongside comparative studies in America and Europe Matthew Wood criticises the view that such phenomena represent spirituality in which self authority is paramount Instead he emphasises the role of social authority and the centrality of spirit possession linking these to participants class positions and experiences of secularisation Informed by sociological and anthropological approaches to social power and practice especially the work of Pierre Bourdieu and Michel Foucault Wood s study explores what he calls the nonformative regions of the religious field and charts similarities and differences with pagan spiritualist and Theosophical traditions

RE-IMAGINING CHURCH Gerald Rose,Philip Hughes,Gary D. Bouma,2014-11 Many church leaders are confused Patterns of ministry which worked so well in the past are no longer effective Churches which grew rapidly have ceased to grow The culture of the Western world has changed At its heart is a change in the nature of authority from tradition and reason to the authority of personal experience This book explores the changes in culture and church life Rev Dr Philip Hughes the senior research officer of the Christian Research Association outlines the problem the churches are facing Rev Gary Bouma Professor Emeritus of Sociology at Monash University and an Anglican Priest charts the origins of the problem The large part of the book is the work of Rev Dr Gerald Rose a senior minister in the Churches of Christ in Victoria Australia Through careful observation and detailed interviews of ministers he describes a range of ministry responses to the changing culture He explores not one solution but many the ministry of intentional mission of the charismatic movement of ministry based in relationships and of ministry rooted in classical spirituality This is a book which should be read by church leaders ministers and pastors of all denominations It provides great insight into the nature of contemporary culture and outlines positive pathways for ministry in the Western context

The Pentecostal Principle Nimi Wariboko,2012 This volume brings Pentecostal intuitions to bear on the task of reconceptualizing the process of ethical methodology in a pluralistic world applying a Pentecostal sensibility to the study of social ethics

Possession, Power and the New Age Matthew Wood,2016-04-08 This book provides a new sociological account of contemporary religious phenomena such as channelling holistic healing meditation and divination which are usually classed as part of a New Age Movement Drawing on his extensive ethnography carried out in the UK alongside comparative studies in America and Europe Matthew Wood criticises the view that such phenomena represent spirituality in which self authority is paramount Instead he emphasises the role of social authority and the centrality of spirit possession linking these to participants class positions and experiences of secularisation Informed by sociological and anthropological approaches to social power and practice especially the work of Pierre Bourdieu and Michel Foucault Wood s study explores

what he calls the nonformative regions of the religious field and charts similarities and differences with pagan spiritualist and Theosophical traditions
