Return To Punjab 1961 1975:

Constructing Post-Colonial India Sanjay Srivastava, 2005-09-27 An interdisciplinary and engaging book which looks at the nature of Indian society since Independence and unpacks what post colonialism means to Indian citizens Using the case study of the Doon School a famous boarding school for boys and one of the leading educational institutions in India the author argues that to be post colonial in India is to be modern rational secular and urban In placing post colonialism in this concrete social context and analysing how it is constructed the author renders a complex and often rather abstract subject accessible

Modern History of Punjab J. C. Aggarwal, 1992 The Civilized Organization Ad van IJterson, Willem Mastenbroek, Tim Newton, Dennis Smith, 2002-10-29 This book brings a major new resource to organization studies the work of Norbert Elias By applying his ideas in a critical but sympathetic way the authors provide a new perspective on the never ending stream of management fads and fashions Standing back and taking a more detached perspective inspired by the work of Norbert Elias 1897 1990 it becomes clear that many new types of organizations are often variations on an old theme Elias gives us considerable purchase on current debates through his emphasis on long term historical perspectives his highlighting of issues of power emotion and subjectivity his interweaving of analysis at the level of the state the organization groups and individuals his alternative take on issues of agency and structure and his relevance to a wide range of current organization theories The contributions show the current relevance of Elias's work in numerous fields of organizational analysis such as the sociology of finance and markets the comparative and cross cultural study of organization comparative management development organizational meetings organizational boundaries gossip and privacy in organizations emotion in organizations and the significance of humiliation within organizations It is indeed time for Elias
