

every dollar they evade paying becomes an added burden on honest citizens; the politicians whose first allegiance is to some special group or interest. Such things become almost rampant. President Arnold rides again across the land.

Recently our citizens throughout the nation had a revealing and painful experience. For the first time in our national history they saw, through the miracle invention of television, their government at work in the hearings conducted by the Senate Crime Committee, of which I was privileged to be a member. They watched a parade of witnesses from the underworld appear in court before the committee. They studied the faces of these witnesses, watched their reactions to questions propounded by committee members, heard their refusals to answer questions, as they repeated parrotlike, time after time, those words, "I refuse to answer on the grounds that it might tend to incriminate me." Guilt was manifest, but the only recourse our committee had was to order them to answer and them, if they persisted in their refusal, to cite them for contempt on the Senate floor.

In our visits to various sections of the country we found sordid and corrupt conditions almost everywhere.

In Kansas City, for instance, we questioned twenty-six men, all with criminal records, who covered their faces with their hands as they entered the courtroom, and whose incomes ranged from $4,000 to over $20,000 a year, all gained by gambling and illegal activities.

We found sheriffs who admitted taking bribes, and men who had failed to live up to their oaths of office as law enforcement officials. We uncovered proof of definite collusion between criminals and public officials.

In Las Vegas, Nevada, which is the only state in the Union where gambling is legal, we visited large gambling enterprises. It
