Revenge Of The Furies:

A History of Love and Hate in 21 Statues Peter Hughes, 2021-09-14 From antiquity to the present day this book offers a fascinating insight into the histories movements and conflicts which have come to shape our world viewed through the stories of the destruction of 21 statues Confederate soldiers hacked to pieces A British slave trader dumped in the river An Aboriginal warrior twice beheaded A Chinese philosopher consumed by fire A Greek goddess left to rot in the desert Statues stand as markers of collective memory connecting us to a shared sense of belonging When societies fracture into warring tribes we convince ourselves that the past is irredeemably evil So we tear down our statues But what begins with the destruction of statues ends with the killing of people This remarkable book is a compelling history of love and hate spanning every continent religion and era told through the destruction of 21 statues Peter Hughes original approach blending philosophy psychology and history explores how these symbols of our identity give us more than an understanding of our past In the wars that rage around them they may also hold the key to our future The 21 statues are Hatshepsut Ancient Egypt Nero Suffolk UK Athena Syria Buddhas of Bamiyan Afghanistan Hecate Constantinople Our Lady of Caversham near Reading UK Huitzilopochtli Mexico Confucius China Louis XV France Mendelssohn Germany The Confederate Monument US Sir John A Macdonald Canada Christopher Columbus Venezuela Edward Colston Bristol UK Cecil Rhodes South Africa George Washington US Stalin Hungary Yagan Australia Saddam Hussein Iraq B R Ambedkar India and Frederick Douglass US A History of Love and Hate in 21 Statues is a profound and necessary meditation on identity which resonates powerfully today as statues tumble around the world

The Furies Arno J. Mayer, 2013-05-16 The great romance and fear of bloody revolution strange blend of idealism and terror have been superseded by blind faith in the bloodless expansion of human rights and global capitalism Flying in the face of history violence is dismissed as rare immoral and counterproductive Arguing against this pervasive wishful thinking the distinguished historian Arno J Mayer revisits the two most tumultuous and influential revolutions of modern times the French Revolution of 1789 and the Russian Revolution of 1917 Although these two upheavals arose in different environments they followed similar courses The thought and language of Enlightenment France were the glories of western civilization those of tsarist Russia s intelligentsia were on its margins Both revolutions began as revolts vowed to fight unreason injustice and inequality both swept away old regimes and defied established religions in societies that were 85% peasant and illiterate both entailed the terrifying return of repressed vengeance Contrary to prevalent belief Mayer argues ideologies and personalities did not control events Rather the tide of violence overwhelmed the political actors who assumed power and were rudderless Even the best plans could not stem the chaos that at once benefited and swallowed them Mayer argues that we have ignored an essential part of all revolutions the resistances to revolution both domestic and foreign which help fuel the spiral of terror In his sweeping yet close comparison of the world s two transnational revolutions Mayer follows their unfolding from the French Declaration of the Rights of Man and the

Bolshevik Declaration of the Rights of the Toiling and Exploited Masses the escalation of the initial violence into the reign of terror of 1793-95 and of 1918-21 the dismemberment of the hegemonic churches and religion of both societies the externalization of the terror through the Napoleonic wars and its internalization in Soviet Russia in the form of Stalin's Terror in One Country Making critical use of theory old and new Mayer breaks through unexamined assumptions and prevailing debates about the attributes of these particular revolutions to raise broader and more disturbing questions about the nature of revolutionary violence attending new foundations

The Virtues of Vengeance Peter A. Shattered Voices Teresa Godwin Phelps, 2010-11-24 Following periods of mass atrocity and oppression states are faced with a question of critical importance in the transition to democracy how to offer redress to victims of the old regime without perpetuating cycles of revenge Traditionally balance has been restored through arrests trials and punishment but in the last three decades more than twenty countries have opted to have a truth commission investigate the crimes of the prior regime and publish a report about the investigation often incorporating accounts from victims Although many praise the work of truth commissions for empowering and healing through words rather than violence some condemn the practice as a poor substitute for traditional justice achieved through trials and punishment There has been until now little analysis of the unarticulated claim that underlies the truth commissions very existence that language in this case narrative stories can substitute for violence Acknowledging revenge as a real and deep human need Shattered Voices explores the benefits and problems inherent when a fragile country seeks to heal its victims without risking its own future In developing a theory about the role of language in retribution Teresa Godwin Phelps takes an interdisciplinary approach delving into sources from Greek tragedy to Hamlet from Kant to contemporary theories about retribution from the Babylonian law codes to the South African Truth and Reconciliation Report She argues that given the historical and psychological evidence about revenge starting afresh by drawing a bright line between past crimes and a new government is both unrealistic and unwise When grievous harm happens a rebalancing is bound to occur whether it is orderly and lawful or disorderly and unlawful Shattered Voices contends that language is requisite to any adequate balancing and that a solution is viable only if it provides an atmosphere in which storytelling and subsequent dialogue can flourish In the developing culture of ubiquitous truth reports Phelps argues that we must become attentive to the form these reports take the narrative structure the use of victims stories and the way a political message is conveyed to the citizens of the emerging democracy By looking concretely at the work and responsibilities of truth commissions Shattered Voices offers an important and thoughtful analysis of the efficacy of the ways human rights abuses are addressed

The Story of Drama Gary Day,2016-08-25 Tracing the history of tragedy and comedy from their earliest beginnings to the present this book offers readers an exceptional study of the development of both genres grounded in analysis of landmark plays and their context It argues that sacrifice is central to both genres and demonstrates how it provides a key to understanding the grand sweep of Western drama For students of literature and drama the volume serves as an accessible companion to over two millennia of drama organised by period and reveals how sacrifice represents a through line running from classical drama to today s reality TV and blockbuster movies Across the chapters devoted to each period Day explores how the meanings of sacrifice change over time but never quite disappear He charts the influences of religion social change and politics on the status and purposes of theatre in each period and on the drama itself But it is through a close study of key plays that he reveals the continuities centred around sacrifice that persist and which illuminate aspects of human psychology and social organisation Among the many plays and events considered are Aeschylus trilogy The Oresteia Aristophanes Women at the Thesmophoria Menander s The Bad Tempered Man the spectacles of the Roman Games Seneca s The Trojan Women Plautus s The Rope the Cycle plays and Everyman from the Middle Ages Shakespeare s King Lear and A Midsummer Night s Dream Middleton s The Revenger s Tragedy Jonson s Every Man in His Humour Thomas Otway s The Orphan William Wycherley s The Country Wife Wilde s A Woman of No Importance Beckett
