Reverence For The Soul:

Reverence for the Soul Richard Schain, 2001-05-15 This is a philosophical work dressed out in journal form It requires readers receptive to a point of view transcending the current intellectually dominant scientific monism The writer develops his conviction that Homo sapiens needs and wants to develop his metaphysical self the soul in traditional terminology The contemporary scientific world view is predicated on an opposite viewpoint which is that there is no such thing as a soul there is only a network of neurons within the brain resulting in physical activities affecting a physical world and creating a physical self Amidst the description of the writer's conflicts with this prevailing world view are interspersed discussions about brain mind relationships about the question of the soul about dualism versus monism and the nature of the real world about purposes in writing and about personal values arising from all these matters Reverence for one's own soul is the ultimate value arrived at by the writer This is not a religious work it may in fact be regarded as anti religious even blasphemous by those disposed to such judgements Nevertheless the writer believes in the value of an intellectual conscience and is not inclined to offend it through deference to superannuated or self serving societal entities offering opiates for metaphysical needs It is well known by now that all genuine philosophy represents the personality and experiences of a philosopher however much it may be covered over with a scholarly style The philosopher wishing to pose in the white coat of the scientific investigator is a ridiculous figure who should be confined to circus entertainment Meaningful value oriented philosophy and what other kind is there is subjective in nature albeit requiring knowledge experience and intellect in its formulation An unpublished monograph of the writer available to those interested is entitled The Subjective Will to Metaphysical Existence This title makes explicit what is presented in more personalized and literary form in Reverence for the Soul

Transforming The Soul: Volume 1 Rudolf Steiner, 2013-11-06 The spiritual scientific investigator has to transform the soul itself into an instrument then when his soul is awakened and he can see into a spiritual world he experiences on a higher level a similar great moment as blind people do when having been operated upon they look at a world they have not seen before In a key series of lectures on personal development Rudolf Steiner explains that the central mission of spiritual science is to enable people to ascend in full consciousness to a knowledge of spiritual realities But given that the means to achieve spiritual perception are now widely available the danger exists that some individuals will gain access to the spiritual world whilst harbouring impure motives This can lead to a distorted understanding and vision of that world Steiner's emphasis therefore is on the preparatory steps the metamorphosis and purification of the human soul required for achieving true spiritual enlightenment Life itself teaches and prepares us for progress and anthroposophy explains and brings this to consciousness In some of his most lucid lectures Steiner describes the missions of anger truth and reverence the significance of human character the meaning of asceticism and illness and the phenomenon of egoism He also clarifies the differences between Buddhism and Christianity describes the goal of spiritual science and makes some esoteric
