Reveries of the Wild Woman Helene Cixous, 2006-05-29 Born to an Algerian French father and a German mother both Jews Helene Cixous experienced a childhood fraught with racial and gender crises In this moving story she recounts how small domestic events a new dog the gift of a bicycle reverberate decades later with social and psychological meaning The story s protagonist whose life resembles that of the author endures a double alienation from Algerians because she is French and from the French because she is Jewish The isolation and exclusion Cixous and her family feel especially under the Vichy government and during the Algerian War of independence underpin this heartbreaking but also warmly human and often funny story The author narrator concedes that memories of Algeria awaken in her longings for the sights sounds and smells of her home country and ponders how that stormy relationship has influenced her life and thought A meditation on postcolonial identity and gender Reveries of the Wild Woman is also a poignant recollection of how childhood is author to the woman BOOK JACKET
