Revolt Against The Dead:

Revolt Against the Dead Douglas E. Brintnall, 2025-07-01 First published in 1979 Revolt Against the Dead describes the changing lifestyle of the Aguacatec Indians a Mayan peasant people of the northwestern highlands of Guatemala The author presents the societal transformation from an economic social political and religious perspective The book explores both internal and external factors responsible for bringing about the change in the Aguacatan community It emphasizes the interplay between changing local conditions and outside influences As many factors that occurred at different times were responsible for the transformation most of the book is organized into a kind of history The local events are therefore presented as three major epochs traditional Aguacatan a transitional period of collapse and the contemporary new order This volume will be of interest to students and researchers of anthropology and history Revolt Against Maturity R. J. Rushdoony, 2020-04-13 Revolt Against Maturity is a study of Biblical psychology Biblical psychology contrasts sharply with a science of the mind based on the religious presuppositions of humanism which regards man as having no constant nature A science of the mind based on humanism views the mind as a clean slate and man's nature as plastic to be molded by men and institutions in the image of man for the new order he will establish The Biblical view sees Psychology as a branch of theology theology is a study of all that the Scriptures declare about God Theology is essential not only to the study of psychology but to ethics anthropology soteriology eschatology etc Biblical Psychology assumes that man is created in the image of God directly and not indirectly through theistic or any other kind of evolution Being created directly by God man is not in the process of defining or determining his ontological qualities Man has already been determined and defined by God Thus it is God who has established the limits and nature of the mind The mind of regenerate man experiences radically different motives and presuppositions from those of unregenerate man The author sees the central task of Christian Psychology as that of discerning the mind and soul differences that exist between the regenerate and unregenerate Pastoral counseling should first seek to establish whether or not a person is truly regenerate and then aid the regenerate to further growth in sanctification Work was to have provided the joy of fulfillment in God's goal of maturity for man but because of the curse man is often subject to the frustration of meaningless and degrading work True work is the exercise of dominion over the creation under God When man's work is separated from dominion of the created world he is often subject to moral and religious paralysis and becomes a sick soul Man suffers similarly when he abstracts God from reality Since God created everything nothing can be interpreted apart from God When man attempts this impossibility he suffers psychologically True knowledge of anything is revelational of God Thus an aspect of man's revolt against maturity and against life is his revolt against knowledge Psychological damaging is inevitable for those in revolt against the maturity which the God of all life and all knowledge has purposed for man The certain and true guilt which the human personality suffers because of sin can be alleviated only when God effects regeneration through the atoning blood of Christ Thus having laid aside the old self with its evil practices the new self is being renewed to a true knowledge according to the image of the One who created him in righteousness and holiness of the truth Col 3 10 Eph 4 24 In the general or wider sense the image of God in man means that man like God is a personality The author notes that in the redeemed man this means that man becomes progressively more and more a person self conscious in his growth and character as opposed to being unconscious of his nature and steadily manifesting more and more the image of God in knowledge righteousness holiness and dominion Sanctification is unto holiness by which man realizes his chief end to glorify God and enjoy Him forever But because of his revolt against maturity man continues to suffer psychological damage both personally and collectively through the chaotic condition of his mind and his culture

Revolt Against the Modern World Julius Evola, 2018-07-13 With unflinching gaze and uncompromising intensity Julius Evola analyzes the spiritual and cultural malaise at the heart of Western civilization and all that passes for progress in the modern world As a gadfly Evola spares no one and nothing in his survey of what we have lost and where we are headed At turns prophetic and provocative Revolt against the Modern World outlines a profound metaphysics of history and demonstrates how and why we have lost contact with the transcendent dimension of being The revolt advocated by Evola does not resemble the familiar protests of either liberals or conservatives His criticisms are not limited to exposing the mindless nature of consumerism the march of progress the rise of technocracy or the dominance of unalloyed individualism although these and other subjects come under his scrutiny Rather he attempts to trace in space and time the remote causes and processes that have exercised corrosive influence on what he considers to be the higher values ideals beliefs and codes of conduct the world of Tradition that are at the foundation of Western civilization and described in the myths and sacred literature of the Indo Europeans Agreeing with the Hindu philosophers that history is the movement of huge cycles and that we are now in the Kali Yuga the age of dissolution and decadence Evola finds revolt to be the only logical response for those who oppose the materialism and ritualized meaninglessness of life in the twentieth century Through a sweeping study of the structures myths beliefs and spiritual traditions of the major Western civilizations the author compares the characteristics of the modern world with those of traditional societies The domains explored include politics law the rise and fall of empires the history of the Church the doctrine of the two natures life and death social institutions and the caste system the limits of racial theories capitalism and communism relations between the sexes and the meaning of warriorhood At every turn Evola challenges the reader's most cherished assumptions about fundamental aspects of modern life A controversial scholar philosopher and social thinker JULIUS EVOLA 1898 1974 has only recently become known to more than a handful of English speaking readers An authority on the world's esoteric traditions Evola wrote extensively on ancient civilizations and the world of Tradition in both East and West Other books by Evola published by Inner Traditions include Eros and the Mysteries of Love The Yoga of Power The Hermetic Tradition and The Doctrine of Awakening

The Fate of the Dead Richard Bauckham, 2014-04-09 These studies focus on personal eschatology in the Jewish and early Christian apocalypses The apocalyptic tradition from its Jewish origins until the early middle ages is studied as a continuous literary tradition in which both continuity of motifs and important changes in understanding of life after death can be charted As well as better known apocalypses major and often pioneering attention is given to those neglected apocalypses which portray human destiny after death in detail such as the Apocalypse of Peter the Apocalypse of the Seven Heavens the later apocalypses of Ezra and the four apocalypses of the Virgin Mary Relationships with Greco Roman eschatology are explored Several chapters show how specific New Testament texts are illuminated by close knowledge of this tradition of ideas and images of the hereafter
