Revolution Reform And Regionalism:

Revolution, Reform and Regionalism in Southeast Asia Ronald Bruce St John, 2006-01-16 Based on research carried out over the three decades this book compares the post war political economies of Cambodia Laos and Vietnam in the context of their individual and collective impact on contemporary efforts at regional integration The author highlights the different paths to reform taken by the three neighbours and the effect this has had on regional plans for economic development through the ASEAN and the Greater Mekong Subregion Through its comparative analysis of the reforms implemented by Cambodia Laos and Vietnam over the last thirty years the book draws attention to parallel themes of continuity and change The author discusses how the three states have demonstrated related characteristics whilst at the same time making different modifications in order to exploit the unique strengths of their individual cultures Contributing to the contemporary debate over the role of democratic reform in promoting economic development the book provides a detailed account of the political economies of three states at the heart of Southeast Asia Social Democracy in East Timor Rebecca Strating, 2015-10-05 Since the end of the Cold War considerable scholarly debates have been devoted to the nature and scope of international state building interventions in fragile post colonial states and their effectiveness in instituting democratic rule By examining the construction of political institutions in East Timor this book highlights the relationship between the social and political realms during these processes Focusing on the roles of East Timorese leaders and civil society organisations during the independence movement it analyses the effectiveness of democracy building in East Timor It examines the processes of drafting the new constitution establishing key political institutions such as the electoral system and articulating a new vision of citizenship and social justice The book argues that East Timor offers a relatively successful case of democratic transition enabled by a consistent set of goals and aspirations grassroots political legitimacy and participation and the development of a democratic civil nation Offering a coherent argument for why democracy has been successful in East Timor and the roles of political leaders and civil society during democratic transition this book will be of interest to those studying Southeast Asian Politics International Politics and Democracy Democratization in Post-Suharto Indonesia Marco Bunte, Andreas Ufen, 2008-08-21 In May 1998 the fall of Suharto marked the beginning of a difficult and multi layered transition process It was accompanied by intensified conflict in the political arena a dramatic increase of ethnic and religious violence and the danger of national disintegration Ten years after the collapse of the New Order Indonesia has made significant progress however the quality of democracy is still low Theoretically innovative and empirically sound this book is an in depth analysis of the Indonesian reform process since 1998 Marco Bunte and Andreas Ufen bring together a selection of noted Indonesia experts to provide new insights into the restructuring of core state institutions the empowerment of Parliament the slow and difficult evolution of the rule of law and the transfer of power to locally elected regional governments decentralization Based on the results of extensive fieldwork Democratization in Post Suharto Indonesia will be an important read for scholars engaged in research on Indonesia and the politics of Southeast Asia Separatist Conflict in Indonesia Antje Missbach, 2017-05-31 This book describes analyses and interprets more than thirty years of long distance politics exercised by the Acehnese diaspora and the diasporans attempts to influence Aceh's homeland developments in the lead up to during and after the internal conflict that afflicted the region between 1976 and 2005

Chinese Indonesians Reassessed Siew-Min Sai, Chang-Yau Hoon, 2013 The book shows how the Chinese minority is much more diverse and the picture much richer and more complicated than previous studies have allowed Subjects covered include the historical development of Chinese communities in peripheral areas of Indonesia the religious practices of Chinese Indonesians which are by no means confined to Chinese religions and Chinese ethnic events where a wide range of Indonesians not just Chinese participate Conflict Resolution and Peacebuilding in Laos Stephanie Phetsamay

Stobbe, 2015-06-19 Using the case study of Laos a small landlocked country in Southeast Asia that has seen some of the world's most brutal forms of poverty and violence this book examines the power of traditional and indigenous conflict resolution systems as a tool for social justice It explores how the conflict resolution mechanisms build infrastructures that support social harmony and address larger scale conflicts within communities nations and international arenas The book discusses how over centuries foreign powers have polarised and used the ethnic groups of Laos to support their own agendas and how in spite of this the Lao people have consistently managed to recreate the peace and harmony that support their social relationships whether that is within groups or between many distinct groups Through the development and use of appropriate grassroots conflict resolution structures that do not require a formal court system and exists outside the political arena they have been successful in resolving conflicts within and across cultural groups The book shows that the conflict resolution systems of Laos are embedded in the fabric of ordinary everyday life and operate independently of the hierarchical structures that dominate governing institutions Highlighting how peace continues to work its way into existence through elaborate mediation systems and rituals that bring people together this book will be of use to students and scholars of Southeast Asian Politics Peace Studies and War and Conflict Studies Party Politics in Southeast Asia Dirk

Tomsa, Andreas Ufen, 2013 Contributing to the growing discourse on political parties in Asia this book looks at parties in Southeast Asia's most competitive electoral democracies of Indonesia Thailand and the Philippines It highlights the diverse dynamics of party politics in the region and provides new insights into organizational structures mobilizational strategies and the multiple dimensions of linkages between political parties and their voters The book focuses on the prominence of clientelistic practices and strategies both within parties as well as between parties and their voters It demonstrates that clientelism is extremely versatile and can take many forms ranging from traditional personalized relationships between a patron and a client to the modern reincarnations of broker driven network clientelism that is often based on more anonymous relations The book also discusses how contemporary political parties often combine clientelistic practices with more formal patterns of organization and communication thus raising questions about neat analytical dichotomies Straddling the intersection between political science and area studies this book is of interest to students and scholars of contemporary Southeast Asian politics and political scientists and Asian Studies specialists with a broader research interest in comparative democratization studies

Adolescents in Contemporary Indonesia Lyn Parker, Pam Nilan, 2013-07-18 The youth demographic is a large and growing cohort in Indonesia and adolescents embody the currents of social change Throughout the twentieth century they were significant agents of social protest leading to social and political transformation This book looks at the importance of adolescents in contemporary Indonesia and how they are spearheading not just globalisation and a growing consumer youth culture but also the Islamisation movement The book explores both the inner worlds and social selves of Indonesian adolescents It presents an in depth knowledge of Indonesian society and culture in various parts of Indonesia and discusses national patterns and trends Grounded in two field sites the book enables an analysis of young people's local ethnic and religious identities and their commitment to the Indonesian nation state It goes on to look at the physical age bracket of youth the definitions used by the Indonesian state and other agencies and the perceptions of youth themselves about adolescence and adulthood Providing a comprehensive study of young people in contemporary Indonesia the book addresses gender relations the importance of education for youth and youth engagement with popular culture and the moral issue concerning the sexual propriety of young people It is a useful contribution for students and academics of Asian Studies Sociology and Cultural Studies

Southeast Asia and the Cold War Albert Lau, 2012-07-26 The origins and the key defining moments of the Cold War in Southeast Asia have been widely debated This book focuses on an area that has received less attention the impact and legacy of the Cold War on the various countries in the region as well as on the region itself The book contributes to the historiography of the Cold War in Southeast Asia by examining not only how the conflict shaped the milieu in which national and regional change unfolded but also how the context influenced the course and tenor of the Cold War in the region It goes on to look at the usefulness or limitations of using the Cold War as an interpretative framework for understanding change in Southeast Asia Chapters discuss how the Cold War had a varied but notable impact on the countries in Southeast Asia not only on the mainland countries belonging to what the British Foreign Office called the upper arc but also on those situated on its maritime lower arc The book is an important contribution to the fields of Asian Studies and International Relations

Cambodia and the Politics of Aesthetics Alvin Cheng-Hin Lim, 2013 Illuminating developments in contemporary Cambodia with political and aesthetic theory this book analyses the country's violent transition from socialism to capitalism through an innovative method that combines the aesthetic approach and critical theory To understand the particularities of the country's transition and Cambodia's unfolding encounter with neoliberal capitalism the book pursues the circuits of desire connecting the constellation of objects and relations which is identified as Cambodia Chapters focus on the pre colonial empire of Angkor the invasions of Siam and Vietnam in the nineteenth century the devastation of the Khmer Rouge genocide and the subsequent Vietnamese occupation and the present rapacity of Hun Sen's neoliberal government. A creative combination of auto ethnography, critical theory, and area studies and the analysis of a historical moment, the book is of interest to academics working on comparative politics, Asian studies, Holocaust studies, critical theory, and in the politics of aesthetics.
