World's Rarest Bird Alvin Powell, 2008-03-12 Real life scientific adventure A thought provoking exploration of how the Endangered Species Act works and how it fails Thirty years ago researchers discovered a previously unknown species of bird in the rain soaked and remote mountains of Hawaii As they studied the creature which sported a black mask and was called the po ouli they soon learned that its population was shrinking quickly and they worked frantically to find out what was killing the species and how they might prevent its extinction This fast paced account of their work done in one of the world's most inhospitable environments describes a stirring fight for survival It also illustrates the challenge of protecting endangered species in a rapidly changing world Nature Watch Austin Lynne M. Weber, Jim Weber, 2011-09-28 Ducks in January bats in March rain lilies in April meteors in August the predictable appearance of fauna and flora allows humans to experience the natural cycles in the environment no matter how urban the setting In Nature Watch Austin avid amateur naturalists Lynne and Jim Weber provide an introduction and guide to some of the natural events that define the seasons in the city of Austin and its surrounding areas Month by month each chapter profiles the plants animals insects and other natural phenomena that are particularly noteworthy at that time of year The authors also provide suggestions on how and where to see them from driving to a nearby water treatment plant to lounging by the backyard bird feeder Opening with a chart on weather temperature and daylight hours each month's chapter features photographs and original illustrations by the authors A list of references includes area field guides and more in depth sources of information by subject No matter how clogged with traffic and entombed in concrete even large cities harbor wildlife and support a community of plants either in tucked away places both familiar and unexpected or in parks and preserves dedicated to city dwellers in search of open space Learning the annual rhythms of urban wildland encourages everyone to be in tune with nature and welcome the opportunities to enjoy it year after year The Dalemark Quartet, Volume 2 Diana Wynne Jones, 2005-04-26 It is a country divided by war For centuries the earldoms of the North and South have battled Now four young people from different times with the help of their mysterious gods the Undying must unite to save their beloved land When the great floods come to their village and Tanaqui and her family are driven out they suspect the workings of the evil mage Kankredin As Tanaqui tells the story of their journey she begins to fit together clues that could halt his destruction and help her family fulfill their destiny Against his will Mitt has been commanded to assassinate a young girl named Noreth who travels to unite Dalemark Joining the travelers he meets the powerful musician Moril and discovers that Maewen a girl from the future has taken Noreth's place Can they defeat Kankredin's ancient evil VOICES TO THE CLOUDS The Collective Nature Journal Cliff J Sidnell, 2017-01-07 VOICES TO THE CLOUDS is more than merely a study with a fifteen year compass but a collection of gathered nature notes set in context with the writings of arguably England's greatest naturalists Gilbert White John Clare and Richard Jefferies and others The book is divided into 5 year sections and within each is a monthly narrative with climate tables first butterfly sighting birds and butterflies by month top three daily birds temperature and pressure summary frost and heat sequences and more The final section assembles all the data from the previous three sections and to conclude this collective nature journal there is a fulsome index VOICES TO THE CLOUDS may best be described as another slice of the natural world that has been extrapolated from the toilsome drudgery of amassing observations for experience proves that the longer a single locality is studied the more is found in it Richard Jefferies 1885 Facing Extinction Paul Donald, Nigel Collar, Stuart Marsden, Deborah J.
