Robinson Jeffers Poet Of California The Literary West Series:

Robinson Jeffers James Karman, 1987 A Literary History of the American West Western Literature Association (U.S.), 1987 Literary histories of course do not have a reason for being unless there exists the literature itself This volume perhaps more than others of its kind is an expression of appreciation for the talented and dedicated literary artists who ignored the odds avoided temptations to write for popularity or prestige and chose to write honestly about the American West believing that experiences long knowns to be of historical importance are also experiences that need and deserve a literature of importance Western American Literature ,1989 Robinson Jeffers Newsletter ,1988 The Literary West Thomas Jefferson Lyon, 1999 With more than forty selections including essays short stories poetry excerpts from novels and diaries and a complete play this authoritative and adventuresome collection shows why the West has occupied such a prominent place in the national consciousness and reveals that western writers may currently be mapping out a significant development in American thought The Wild God of the World Robinson Jeffers, Albert Gelpi, 2003 An intense collection of poems from the great Western poet surveys the writer's work and features revealing statements about his poetics and philosophy Simultaneous Poetry Updating the Literary West ,1997 Western writers says Thomas J Lyon in his epilogue to Updating the Literary West have grown up with the frontier myth but now find themselves in the early stages of creating a new western myth The editors of the Literary History of the American West TCU Press 1987 hoped that the first volume would begin not conclude their exploration of the West's literary heritage Out of this hope comes Updating the Literary West a comprehensive reference anthology including essays by over one hundred scholars A selected bibliography is included with each piece In the ten years since publication of LHAW western writing has developed a significantly larger presence in the national literary stream A variety of cultural viewpoints have developed along with new tactics for literary study New authors have risen to prominence and the range of subjects has changed and widened Updating the Literary West looks at topics ranging from western classics to cowboys and Cadillacs and considers children's literature ethnicity environmental writing gender issues and other topics in which change has been rapid since publication of LHAW This volume again affirms the West's literary legitimacy status hard earned by the Western Literary Association and the lasting place of popular western writing as part of the growing and changing literary and American experience An excellent reference for a wide range of readers and an invaluable resource for scholars and libraries Selected list of contributors James Maguire Fred Erisman Susan J Rosowski Gerald Haslam Tom Pilkington A Carl Bredahl Richard Slotkin John G Cawelti Robert F Gish Ann Ronald Mick McAllister The Collected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Robinson Jeffers, Tim Hunt, 2002-03 Robinson Jeffers 1887-1962 is not only the greatest poet that California and indeed the American West has produced but a major poet of the twentieth century who occupies a prominent place in the tradition of American prophetic poetry Now for the first time all of Jeffers's completed poems both published and unpublished are presented in a single comprehensive and textually authoritative edition

The Idea of Wilderness Max Oelschlaeger, 1991-01-01 How has the concept of wild nature changed over the millennia And what have been the environmental consequences In this broad ranging book Max Oelschlaeger argues that the idea of wilderness has reflected the evolving character of human existence from Paleolithic times to the present day An intellectual history it draws together evidence from philosophy anthropology theology literature ecology cultural geography and archaeology to provide a new scientifically and philosophically informed understanding of humankind's relationship to nature Oelschlaeger begins by examining the culture of prehistoric hunter gatherers whose totems symbolized the idea of organic unity between humankind and wild nature and idea that the author believes is essential to any attempt to define human potential He next traces how the transformation of these hunter gatherers into farmers led to a new awareness of distinctions between humankind and nature and how Hellenism and Judeo Christianity later introduced the unprecedented concept that nature was valueless until humanized Oelschlaeger discusses the concept of wilderness in relation to the rise of classical science and modernism and shows that opposition to modernism arose almost immediately from scientific literary and philosophical communities He provides new and in some cases revisionist studies of the seminal American figures Thoreau Muir and Leopold and he gives fresh readings of America's two prodigious wilderness poets Robinson Jeffers and Gary Snyder He concludes with a searching look at the relationship of evolutionary thought to our postmodern effort to reconceptualize ourselves as civilized beings who remain in some ways natural animals International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets
