Rock A Tale Of Seventh Century Jerusalem:

The Rock Kanan Makiya, 2002-08-27 The Rock of Jerusalem is one of the world's most spiritually resonant and politically contentious sites where Adam first stepped upon leaving Paradise Abraham attempted to sacrifice Isaac Jesus preached and Muhammad began his night journey to heaven Sorting through the rubble of the three competing faiths Kanan Makiya has woven a vivid tapestry from centuries of legend and belief to imagine the origins of Islam's first monument the Dome of the Rock A narrative of mythic power The Rock offers a grand tour of seventh century Jerusalem and by reminding us of how much Jews and Muslims once shared serves as a bracing talisman for our times The Rock Brandeis University.

International Center for Ethics, Justice and Public Life, Brandeis University. Jacob and Libby Goodman Institute for the Study of Zionism and Israel, 2002 Perspectives on Early Islamic Art in Jerusalem Lawrence Nees, 2015-09-17 Through its material remains Perspectives on Early Islamic Art in Jerusalem analyzes several overlooked aspects of the earliest decades of Islamic presence in Jerusalem during the seventh century CE Focusing on the Haram al Sharif also known as the Temple Mount Lawrence Nees provides the first sustained study of the Dome of the Chain a remarkable eleven sided building standing beside the slightly later Dome of the Rock and the first study of the meaning of the columns and column capitals with figures of eagles in the Dome of the Rock He also provides a new interpretation of the earliest mosque in Jerusalem the Haram as a whole with the sacred Rock at its center Selling Jerusalem Annabel Jane Wharton, 2006-08-15 Selling Jerusalem offers an introduction to the explosive combination of piety and capital at work in religious objects and global politics It is sure to interest students and scholars of art history economic history popular culture religion and architecture

Figuring Jerusalem Sidra DeKoven Ezrahi, 2022-04-22 Figuring Jerusalem explores how Hebrew writers have imagined Jerusalem both from the distance of exile and from within its sacred walls For two thousand years Hebrew writers used their exile from the Holy Land as a license for invention The question at the heart of Figuring Jerusalem is this how did these writers bring their imagination home in the Zionist century Sidra DeKoven Ezrahi finds that the same diasporic conventions that Hebrew writers practiced in exile were maintained throughout the first half of the twentieth century And even after 1948 when the state of Israel was founded but East Jerusalem and its holy sites remained under Arab control Jerusalem continued to figure in the Hebrew imagination as mediated space It was only in the aftermath of the Six Day War that the temptations and dilemmas of proximity to the sacred would become acute in every area of Hebrew politics and culture Figuring Jerusalem ranges from classical texts biblical and medieval to the post 1967 writings of S Y Agnon and Yehuda Amichai Ultimately DeKoven Ezrahi shows that the wisdom Jews acquired through two thousand years of exile as inscribed in their literary imagination must be rediscovered if the diverse inhabitants of Jerusalem are to coexist God's Crucible:

Islam and the Making of Europe, 570-1215 David Levering Lewis, 2009-01-12 From the two time Pulitzer Prize winning author God's Crucible brings to life a furiously complex age New York Times Book Review Resonating as profoundly today as when it was first published to widespread critical acclaim a decade ago God's Crucible is a bold portrait of Islamic Spain and the birth of modern Europe from one of our greatest historians David Levering Lewis's narrative filled with accounts of some of the most epic battles in world history reveals how cosmopolitan Muslim al Andalus flourished a beacon of cooperation and tolerance while proto Europe floundered in opposition to Islam making virtues out of hereditary aristocracy religious intolerance perpetual war and slavery This masterful history begins with the fall of the Persian and Roman empires followed by the rise of the prophet Muhammad and five centuries of engagement between the Muslim imperium and an emerging Europe Essential and urgent God's Crucible underscores the importance of these early world altering events whose influence remains as current as today's headlines

The First Love Story Bruce Feiler, 2018-03-20 An exploration of the way Adam and Eve introduced the idea of love into the world and how they continue to shape our deepest feelings about relationships family and togetherness Since antiquity Adam and Eve have stood at the center of every conversation about men and women Yet instead of celebrating them history has blamed them for bringing sin deceit and death into the world In this fresh retelling of their story Bruce Feiler travels from the Garden of Eden in Iraq to the Sistine Chapel in Rome discovering how Adam and Eve should be hailed as exemplars of a long term healthy resilient relationship At a time of discord and fear over the strength of our social fabric Feiler shows how history's first couple can again be role models for unity forgiveness and love

Controlling the Past, Owning the Future Ran Boytner, Lynn Swartz Dodd, Bradley J. Parker, 2010-12-15 What are the political uses and misuses of archaeology in the Middle East In answering this question the contributors to this volume lend their regional expertise to a variety of case studies including the Taliban's destruction of Buddhas in Afghanistan the commercialization of archaeology in Israel the training of Egyptian archaeology inspectors and the debate over Turkish identity sparked by the film Troy among other provocative subjects Other chapters question the ethical justifications of archaeology in places that have alternative engagements with the material past In the process they form various views of the role of the archaeologist from steward of the historical record to agent of social change The diverse contributions to this volume share a common framework in which the political use of the past is viewed as a process of social discourse According to this model political appropriations are seen as acts of social communication designed to accrue benefits to particular groups Thus the contributors pay special attention to competing social visions and the filters these impose on archaeological data But they are also attentive to the potential consequences of their own work Indeed as the editors remind us people's lives may be affected sometimes dramatically because of the material remains that surround them Rounding out this important volume are critiques by two top scholars who summarize and synthesize the preceding chapters

100 Years of Middle East Conflict - Honorable Peace Gottfried Hutter,2019-02-23 Only mutual compassion can bring reconciliation and lasting peace to the Middle East This conflict is about far more than just land The honor of Muslims was grossly violated when Israel was implanted next to one of the holiest sites of Islam al Haram ash Sharif in Jerusalem which in turn occupies the site of the former Jewish Temple For thirteen hundred years Jews had been able to live mostly in peace in the Muslim world because they subordinated themselves under the rule of Islam They could even attain high positions serving Caliphs With a State of their own this was no longer an option Under such changed conditions how could there be an honorable peace Only if Muslims recollect Surat 5 48 in the holy Koran which commands a competition in virtue among the religions of the book Jews can contribute by showing awareness of how shocking their sudden takeover of part of the land must have felt for the community of all Muslims and concurrently by pleading for understanding of the deadly threat that left Jewish survivors no choice when in 1947 the UN declared the partition of Palestine Even more important the very name Israel itself sprang up in the solution of an archetypal biblical conflict between brothers one pregnant with meaning for today Christians too have their share They must contribute by helping restore one of the most fundamental values of all three religions descending from Abraham namely peace peacefully with the existence of other religions without having to abandon its own claim to truth and if so what already inherent specific characteristics would have to be emphasized Or is secular culture the path to convince different religions of a shared ideal of peaceful co existence These questions are approached considering the socio political implications of religions in Asian African Latin American and European contexts This collection of essays reflects on the entire spectrum of the highly topical and complex academic discussions pertaining to the interrelation of society state and religion One example in this collection features the analysis of a secular state engaging in dialog with Muslim communities through a state moderated communication platform another article concentrates on the political impact of Christian churches on Nigerian society by means of political advertisement Moreover the different concepts of religion in Western societies are considered one essay argues that in democratic societies it is the state that must guarantee the freedom of religion and thereby provide the basis for a peaceful co existence between all religions

Sea of Faith Stephen O'Shea, 2009-05-26 In Sea of Faith O'Shea chronicles both the meeting of minds and the collisions of armies that marked the interaction of Cross and Crescent in the Middle Ages the better to understand their apparently intractable conflict today For all the great and everlasting moments of cultural interchange and tolerance in Cordoba Palermo Constantinople the ultimate geography of belief was decided on the battlefield O'Shea vividly recounts seven pivotal battles between the forces of Christianity and Islam that shaped the Mediterranean world from the loss of the Christian Middle East to the Muslims at Yarmuk Turkey in 636 to the stemming of the seemingly unstoppable Ottoman tide at Malta in 1565 In between the battles raged round the Mediterranean from Poitiers in France and Hattin in the Holy Land during the height of the Crusades to the famed contest for Constantinople in 1453 that signaled the end of Byzantium As much as the armies were motivated by belief their exploits were inspired by leaders such as Charles Martel Saladin and Mehmet II whose stirring feats were sometimes accompanied by unexpected changes of heart
