Rogues And Vagabonds The Vagrant Underworld In Britain 1815 1985:

Rogues and Vagabonds Lionel Rose,2001 'Rogues and Vagabonds' Lionel Rose,2016-01-29 In this lively social history first published in 1988 Lionel Rose explores in detail the plight of the street poor between 1815 and 1985 He describes the Victorian Rogues and Vagabonds who made elicit peddling begging frauds and other petty crime their profession He considers the relevant legislation and systems for coping with the street poor from the 1824 Vagrancy Act and accompanying improvements in policing through the casual ward systems of the workhouses and the role of common lodging houses to the development of Social Services in the 1940s and local authority provision of accommodation This title will be of interest to students of history criminology and sociology Rogues and Early Modern English Culture Craig

Dionne,Steve Mentz,2010-02-01 A definitive collection of critical essays on the literary and cultural impact of the early modern rogue Queer London Matt Houlbrook,2006-10-15 Queer London explores the underground gay culture of London during four decades when homosexual acts between consenting adults remained illegal The author discovers how queer men made sense of their sexuality and how their lifestyles were affected by and in turn influenced the life of the metropolis

Begging, Charity and Religion in Pre-Famine Ireland Ciarán McCabe,2019-01-24 Beggars and begging were ubiquitous features of pre Famine Irish society yet have gone largely unexamined by historians This book explores for the first time the complex cultures of mendicancy as well as how wider societal perceptions of and responses to begging were framed by social class gender and religion At Home in the Institution J. Hamlett,2014-11-27 At Home in the Institution examines space and material culture in asylums lodging houses and schools in Victorian and Edwardian England and explores the powerful influence of domesticity on all three institutional types Crime Over Time Robyn

Lincoln,2010-08-11 Crime Over Time features original contributions from some of Australia s most respected criminologists and historians The book marries these two disciplines to offer a unique examination of crime and deviance over more than 200 years of Anglo Australian history This innovative compilation explores the intriguing ways in which Australian crime has evolved and the pioneering ways criminal justice agencies have dealt with offenders The topics investigated range from colonial bushranging to terrorist attacks along with emerging forms of criminal activity such as cybercrime The book also highlights the social construction of crime by using case studies including the way that homosexual activity was policed in earlier times The collection provides an engaging and thorough examination of the historical factors that have shaped crime and punishment and its contemporary context Poverty and Welfare in England, 1700-1850 Steven King,2000-12-15

As the Blair government launches a new campaign against poverty the notion of the deserving and undeserving poor raises its head again in the media The Poor Law particularly the Old New Poor Law at the junction of the 18th and 19th centuries in England is again the focus of attention This book provides the first accessible and comprehensive overview of the literature on poverty and of the welfare policies of the state as well as the alternative welfare strategies of the poor for the period 1700

1850 Rogues and Vagabonds Lionel Rose, The SAGE Handbook of Historical Geography Mona Domosh, Michael Heffernan, Charles W. J. Withers, 2020-11-25 Historical geography is an active theoretically informed and vibrant field of scholarly work within modern geography with strong and constantly evolving connections with disciplines across the humanities and social sciences Across two volumes The SAGE Handbook of Historical Geography provides you with an international and cross disciplinary overview of the field presenting chapters that examine the history present condition and future potential of the discipline in relation to recent developments and research The New Police in the Nineteenth Century Paul Lawrence, 2017-07-05 The period 1829 1856 witnessed the introduction of the New Police to Great Britain and Ireland Via a series of key legislative acts traditional mechanisms of policing were abolished and new supposedly more efficient forces were raised in their stead Subsequently the introduction of the New Police has been represented as a watershed in the development of the systems of policing we know today But just how sweeping were the changes made to the maintenance of law and order during the nineteenth century The articles collected in this volume written by some of the foremost criminal justice historians show a process which while cumulatively dramatic was also at times protracted and acrimonious There were significant changes to the way in which Britain and Ireland were policed during the nineteenth century but these changes were by no means as straightforward or as progressive as they have at times been represented

Aging: Caring for Our Elders David N. Weisstub, David C. Thomasma, S. Gauthier, G.F. Tomossy, 2013-06-29 Caring for Our Elders is the second of three volumes on Aging conceived for the International Library of Ethics Law and the New Medicine Leading scholars from a range of disciplines address some of the major issues in elder care facing modern nations familial duties of care the future of social welfare systems housing dementia abuse and neglect Vagrancy in the Victorian Age Alistair Robinson, 2021-10-14 An interdisciplinary study of the rich Victorian taxonomy of vagrancy and the concepts of poverty mobility and homelessness it expressed Prostitution, Women and Misuse of the Law Helen J. Self, 2004-08-02 This is an examination from a feminist historian s standpoint of the background to the present system of regulating prostitution in Britain which is generally admitted to be not only unjust and discriminatory but ineffective even in achieving its stated aims Concentrating on the 1950s and especially on the Wolfenden Report and the 1959 Street Offences Act it is a thorough exposure of the sexual double standard and general misogynist assumptions underlying legislation relating to prostitution In addition to the detailed analysis of the 1950s legislation and the background to it there is an exposition of the subsequent workings of the Act and of attempts to amend or repeal it Thomas 'Jupiter' Harris Warren Oakley, 2018-08-31 This is the first biography of Thomas Harris confidant of George III spin doctor philanthropist sexual suspect brothel owner and the man who controlled Covent Garden theatre for nearly five decades Sex, Sects and Society Russell Davies, 2018-03-28 This book will provide an educational and entertaining read It will explain the contradictions and complexities of the Welsh national identity This book will reveal the hardships and horrors of some people s lives It will reveal how religion and superstition ebbed and flowed together Law, Insecurity and Risk Control John Pratt, 2020-08-05

This book examines our contemporary preoccupation with risk and how criminal law and punishment have been transformed as a result of these anxieties. It adopts an historical approach to examine the development of risk control measures used across the US, UK, New Zealand, Australia and Canada, particularly since the 1980s with the rise of the security sanction. It also takes a criminological and sociological approach to analysing shifts in criminal law and punishment and its implications for contemporary society and criminal justice systems. Law, Insecurity and Risk Control analyses the range and scope of the security sanction and its immobilizing measures ranging from control over minor incivilities to the most serious crimes. Despite these innovations, though, it argues that our anxieties about risk have become so extensive that the security sanction is no longer sufficient to provide social stability and cohesion. As a consequence, people have been attracted to the magic of populism in a revolt against mainstream politics and organisations of government, as with the EU referendum in the UK and the US presidential election of Donald Trump in 2016. While there have been political manoeuvres to rein back risk and place new controls on it, these have only brought further disillusionment, insecurity and anxiety. This book argues that the security sanction is likely to become more deeply embedded in the criminal justice systems of these societies as new risks to both the well-being of individuals and the nation-state are identified.

The European City and Green Space Peter Clark, 2016-12-05

Recent years have seen sustained public debate and controversy over the greening of European cities associated with the environmental movement, pressures of urban redevelopment and the promotional strategies of cities competing in a global market. But the European debate over urban green space has a long history dating back to Victorian concerns for the green lungs of the city to combat the health and social problems caused by rapid population and industrial growth. This book explores the multiplicity of green space developments in the modern city, ranging over parks and commons, garden suburbs and the cities in the park, allotment gardens, green belts and national urban parks. It is concerned not only with the different types of green space but the many influences shaping their evolution, from international planning ideas to the rise of modern-day sport and leisure and the effects of the transport revolution. No less vital in this story is the interaction of the many actors involved in the often fractious political process of creating green spaces: architects and planners, politicians, developers and other businessmen, NGOs and local residents. This volume is particularly concerned with contexts: how international planning ideas are transmitted and adapted in different European cities; how the construction of green space is affected by local power structures and relationships; and how ordinary people perceive and use green spaces, quite often at variance with official designs. The European City and Green Space looks at these and other issues through the prism of four metropolises: London, Stockholm, Helsinki and St Petersburg. All represent different types of North European city, yet each has experienced distinctive economic, political and cultural trajectories whilst also facing powerful challenges and problems of similar kinds with regard to green space. This volume examines how each has responded to them and what patterns emerge The Five Hallie Rubenhold, 2019 Miscast in the media for nearly 130 years the victims of Jack the Ripper finally get their full stories told in this eye opening and chilling reminder that life for middle class women in Victorian London could be full of social pitfalls and peril The 1920s Tamás Bényei, Shene Boskani, Nick Hubble, 2025-07-24 The particularity of 1920s British fiction has become obscured by an academic focus on modernism This book takes a fresh approach to the decade by examining both canonical writers such as Virginia Woolf and E M Forster as well as less widely studied writers such as A A Milne and Naomi Mitchison From the aftermath of First World War to the Great Depression of 1929 and its political consequences the 1920s were a decade marked by radical social change Internationally there was an ongoing shift of global power and nationally Britain was adjusting to the aftermath of First World War to no longer being the dominant imperial power in the world and to the introduction of universal male suffrage and votes for women over thirty which was extended to those over twenty one in 1928 This volume relates the British fiction of the decade to these contexts in order to reassess and explain trends of the period such as war books fantastic romance literary modernism and new expressions of gender and sexuality A major critical re evaluation of the decade the book covers such writers as Agatha Christie E M Forster Ethel Mannin Somerset Maugham R H Mottram D H Lawrence Wyndham Lewis A A Milne Hope Mirrlees Naomi Mitchison Dorothy Richardson and Virginia Woolf among others illustrating how their key themes and concerns fit within the social and political circumstances of the decade
