are usually characterized by minimum information disclosure however this situation differed after worldwide events shed light on the role they possess to mitigate their downturns The substantial economic influence they bring along due to their size and long term impact have recently created an uproar of debate that eventually led to the ratification of the Santiago Principles The Principles set the stage for governing SWFs operations and grant them more clarity They also contribute to a more stable environment for cross border investment flows With the importance of SWFs emerging economies also rose as key institutional investors only this time they called for harnessing their funds towards sustainable development investment strategies Despite pressuring need to improve transparency and governance structures of SWFs in EMs the former are regarded as promising means for achieving the sustainable development goals G-24 Eduardo Mayobre,1999 The authors distinguished scholars from developing countries all have had direct practical experience in international affairs and policy making They provide rare insight regarding the continuing efforts of the developing countries to express coordinate and advance their positions and interests BOOK JACKET Basic Services for All in an Urbanizing World United Cities and Local Governments,2014-07-25 UCLG s Third Global Report on Local Democracy and Decentralization GOLD III examines basic service provision and the current state of play of the local governance of basic services around the world Basic Services for All in an Urbanizing World examines the enormous challenge of ensuring the universal provision of basic services in a world that is being shaped by rapid global urbanization climate change and economic social and technological transformation The world s urban population is predicted to reach 5 billion people within the next 20 30 years The report analyses the conditions necessary for local governments to provide these new urban residents with quality basic services Water sanitation waste management transport and energy are essential not only for the preservation of human life and dignity but also in driving economic growth and ensuring social equality Each chapter examines a world region drawing on existing research and consultation with local authorities on the ground The chapters review access levels legal and institutional frameworks and the different ways in which basic services are managed and financed as well as showcasing diverse examples of innovation in the local and multi level governance of services It concludes with a set of recommendations for all stakeholders with a view to making the goal of basic services for all a reality This report contributes to discussions on the Millennium Development Goals and the UN Post 2015 Development Agenda The findings of GOLD III will also be essential to promoting the vision of local governments at the 2016 UN Conference on Human Settlements Habitat III Kuwait ,1964

International Business Finance Douglas Wood,James Byrne,1981-06-18 The Dilemma of Development in the Arabian Peninsula Osama Abdul Rahman,2023-07-07 This book first published in 1987 and by one of Saudi Arabia s most distinguished academics reviews the experience of the Arab oil producers in social economic and political development in the key period of the Seventies and Eighties It is broadly pessimistic about the prospects for future development and sceptical about past achievements It argues that the petro bureaucracy in the Arabian Peninsula has failed to establish the basic principles of effective development because it has been mesmerised by the vast oil revenues it has attempted to administer. The book suggests that in many respects the oil revenues have obstructed serious development because they have made the Arabian economies totally dependent on one expendable resource and this has made them too vulnerable to external pressures and interests. Furthermore, the oil revenues have encouraged fantasy and wishful thinking which have skewed the development process and stimulated pseudo development. The book makes clear that until the petro bureaucracy adopts a realistic approach to development, there can be no prospect of real development in the Arabian Peninsula.
