Wagner's Ring in 1848 Richard Wagner, 2010 In 1848 Richard Wagner began what would become the largest stage work of his career the Ring of the Nibelung In preparation for the task he composed an overview of the Nibelung myth designed to lead to a drama he then composed the verse libretto Siegfried's Death Although he abandoned the idea of a single opera on Siegfried in favor of the huge project that developed out of it in the succeeding years the Ring cycle he did consider the two early documents important enough to include them in his collected works The present volume seeks to inform the English speaking reader in three ways by providing modern reliable translations of the two Wagner texts which are otherwise not available the German original is provided on facing pages by furnishing an overview of German scholarship available to Wagner and others working on the Nibelung legend in the first half of the nineteenth century and by making available a bibliography of further reading The volume will be useful to students of musicology to students and historians of myth and legend and to all Wagnerians interested in the genesis of the Ring cycle Accessible to the general reader it maintains scholarly rigor and provides information about materials not available in English Edward R Haymes is Professor in the Department of Modern Languages at Cleveland State University

Concept TV Luca Bandirali, Enrico Terrone, 2021-11-08 What is a television series A widespread answer takes it to be a totality of episodes and seasons Luca Bandirali and Enrico Terrone argue against this characterization In Concept TV An Aesthetics of Television Series they contend that television series are concepts that manifest themselves through episodes and seasons just as works of conceptual art can manifest themselves through installations or performances In this sense a television series is a conceptual narrative a principle of construction of similar narratives While the film viewer directly appreciates a narrative made of images and sounds the TV viewer relies on images and sounds to grasp the conceptual narrative that they express Here lies the key difference between television and film Reflecting on this difference paves the way for an aesthetics of television series that makes room for their alleged prolixity their tendency to repetition and their lack of narrative closure Bandirali and Terrone shed light on the specific ways in which television series are evaluated arguing that some apparent flaws of them are indeed aesthetic merits when considered from a conceptual perspective Hence to maximize the aesthetic value of television series one should not assess them in the same framework in which films are assessed but rather in a distinct conceptual framework
