Mary Cassatt The Life Of An Artist:

Mary Cassatt Nancy Mowll Mathews,1998-01-01 One of the few women Impressionists Mary Cassatt 1844 1926 had a life of paradoxes American born she lived and worked in France a classically trained artist she preferred the company of radicals never married she painted exquisite and beloved portraits of mothers and children This book provides new insight into the personal life and artistic endeavors of this extraordinary woman Brilliant lively life of long lived American Impressionist Kirkus Reviews Rich in historical and archeological detail thoroughgoing in its resurrection of the contexts and conditions of Cassatt s life as an artist Carol Armstrong New York Times Book Review Mathews informatively and entertainingly documents Cassatt s tumultuous relations with various members of both the American and Parisian avant garde An impressive biography Siri Huntoon New York Newsday A superb piece of scholarship Ruth Johnstone Wales Christian Science Monitor In this admirable biography art historian Mathews presents a compelling portrait of this contradictory woman Publishers Weekly Authoritative unsentimental clear as a bell this is a model of the new biography by and about talented women Kennedy Fraser This will probably be the definitive biography for our generation John Wilmerding Princeton University

Mary Cassatt Carolyn Casey,2004 Mary Cassatt is considered one of the greatest Impressionist painters of all time Instead of the dark colors and precise details that had been common in portrait painting the Impressionists used light colors and quick brush strokes to give the viewer a quick impression of what something looked like at one particular moment Cassatt is best known for her relaxed style and for her images of mothers and children She became famous at a time when it was unusual for women to become artists In Mary Cassatt The Life of an Artist author Carolyn Casey tells the story of Cassatt s life and art and how they affected the world around her Book jacket

Mary Cassatt Gerhard Grutrooy,2018 American born painter Mary Cassatt grew up in Pennsylvania but spent the better part of her life and career in France yet that did not prevent her from gaining a preeminent position among artists in the United States At the height of her career she focused almost exclusively on depictions of mothers and children a subject that became her signature theme By the outbreak of World War I Cassatt had to give up painting entirely due to failing eyesight but she preserved her original enthusiasm and devotion to art until the end of her life In the American Artist series you ll read about more masters of the art world who not only depicted American life and landscape through beautiful works but also broadened our perspectives by employing the tools of their trade with the highest levels of creativity and insight Experience firsthand these artists vision and influence through the seventy or more spectacular full color reproductions of their work Each title in this series includes color photos throughout and back matter including an index and further reading lists for books and internet resources Educational Videos are offered in the back through the use of QR codes that when scanned takes the student to an online video showing a video relating to the book topic This gives the readers additional content to supplement the text
