Maryland In The Civil War A House Divided:

Maryland in the Civil War Robert I. Cottom, 1994 Torn between North and South Maryland experienced the Civil War in ways that were at once unique and a reflection of the state's reputation as America in miniature Now Robert Cottom and Mary Ellen Hayward offer a vivid and engaging history of Maryland Maryland's Blue and Gray: A Border State's Union and Confederate Junior Officer Corps Kevin Conley Ruffner, 1997 Civil War Maryland Richard P Cox, 2011-08-16

Compelling stories from a state on the border of the Mason Dixon line that illustrate its unique role in the American Civil War By the time the American Civil War began the agrarian slave owning South and the rapidly industrializing North had become almost two separate nations As a border state with ties to both sides Maryland and its people played a unique role in the war This series of essays on Maryland's involvement in the conflict and its aftermath highlights some of the personalities and events that make Maryland's Civil War stories unusual and compelling Author Richard P Cox draws on original sources and contributions from historians to relate the many ironies curiosities and legends that abound The Civil War in the Border South Christopher Phillips, 2013-07-16 The border states during the Civil War have long been ignored or misunderstood in general histories This book corrects that oversight explaining how many border state residents used wartime realities to redefine their politics and culture as Southern By studying the characteristics of those positioned along this fault line during the Civil War the centrality of the war issue of slavery which border residents long eschewed as being divisive became apparent This book explains how the process of Southernization occurred during and after the Civil War a phenomenon largely unexplained by historians Beyond the broader more traditional narrative of the clash of arms within these border slave states raged an inner civil war that shaped the military and political outcomes of the war as well as these states cultural landscapes Author Christopher Phillips describes how the Civil War experience in the border states served to form new loyalties and communities of identity that both deeply divided these states and distorted the meaning of the war for postwar generations Baltimore in the Civil War Harry A. Ezratty, 2021-02-22

On April 19 1861 the first blood of the Civil War was spilled in the streets of Baltimore En route to Camden Station Union forces were confronted by angry Southern sympathizers and at Pratt Street the crowd rushed the troops who responded with lethal volleys Four soldiers and twelve Baltimoreans were left dead Marylanders unsuccessfully attempted to further cut ties with the North by sabotaging roads bridges and telegraph lines In response to the Battle of Baltimore Lincoln declared martial law and withheld habeas corpus in much of the state Author Harry Ezratty skillfully narrates the events of that day and their impact on the rest of the war when Baltimore became a city occupied First & Second Maryland Infantry, C.S.A. Robert J. Driver, 2003-01-01 The First Maryland Infantry was formed from Marylanders who chose to cast their lot with the Confederacy against a Union government that had invaded their state and established martial law forcing those who disagreed with the invasion of the South to join the Confederates or to submit to what they considered as tyranny Organized at Harpers Ferry they fought in the first battle of the war at Bull Run and distinguished themselves for their valor The Marylanders fought in the Shenandoah Valley under Jackson bringing new honors to their fame During the Seven Day Campaign they made an outstanding charge across open fields to help break the Union lines at Gaines s Mill Disbanded in 1862 they quickly reorganized and gathered new recruits to become the Second Maryland Infantry These gallant Marylanders defended the Shenandoah Valley during the winter of 1862 63 and then fought in the battle of Winchester in 1863 Joining Lee s Army of Northern Virginia they charged up Culp s Hill on July 2 3 losing half their number In June 1864 the Marylanders charged without orders and closed a gap in the Confederate lines at Cold Harbor Defending Petersburg they were in several counterattacks to recover the Weldon Railroad During the winter of 1864 65 the Marylanders were constantly called on for picket duty while others around them deserted They fought to the last at Petersburg in April 1865 and the survivors surrendered at Appomattox Court House on April 9 1865 2003 6 x 9 index cloth 581 pp 35 00 D0901 ISBN 1 58549 901 3 Explorer's Guide Maryland Leonard M.
