

THE MOURNING TREES

BACKGROUND:

On Oct 28 2013 Denmark was ravaged by the worst storm in history. The tiny welfare nation was in shock. Wreckages of buildings, train lines and cars were everywhere. Everybody was mourning their material losses.

But no one thought of all the trees.

CREATIVE SOLUTION:

Forests of the World and their German sister organization Öko-Vende had previously given voice to trees with the campaign The Donation Army. Now it was time to engage them again. On the very day after the storm, trees all over Copenhagen could be seen with signs asking people for a minute of silence.

RESULTS:

People picked up the message and shared it through social media. Traffic to the organization's website doubled and engagement on their Facebook site increased with 46%. But most importantly: The trees spread consolation all over Denmark and raised awareness for the Forests of the World.

Christensen, 2015-12-30 An African Tree of Life demonstrates how mission involves not only a bringing to a people but a discovering of those deep symbols in human culture and God s creation that in the light of the gospel draw humanity to Christ This book in a scholarly yet intriguing way explores the stories and rituals of the Gbaya people of the Cameroon and the Central African Republic These deep symbols are typically centered not in the esoteric or exotic but in the familiar and everyday Christensen focuses on the especial importance of the peace bringing tree of life the sore tree central to the lives and worship of the Gbaya Gbaya Christians says Christensen offer to North American Christians fresh and hope filled images rich metaphors new and yet familiar to us Thus An African Tree of Life is an important book not only for theologians missiologists and Africanists but for all those concerned with issues of contextualization and seeking life giving symbols in the quest to communicate the gospel message Forest Guardians Sarah Coleman, AI, 2025-02-26 Forest Guardians explores the profound enduring relationship between humanity and forests revealing how trees and their guardian spirits are deeply embedded in mythology religion and literature across cultures The book examines the veneration of sacred trees and the prevalence of mystical forests highlighting how these elements reflect our innate connection to the natural world Consider for example how certain tree species like the oak yew and banyan recur as symbols of power life and death in diverse mythologies or how forests often serve as liminal spaces in folklore where characters undergo transformative experiences The book progresses from the origins of sacred groves and forest spirits in ancient religions to focused explorations of specific tree symbolism recurring forest motifs and the diverse forms of forest guardians Forest Guardians uniquely weaves together mythological religious historical and ecological perspectives supported by primary sources like ancient texts and folklore alongside modern scholarship This approach illuminates the urgent need to re evaluate our relationship with these essential ecosystems connecting ancient beliefs with contemporary environmental ethics and conservation especially in light of ongoing deforestation and climate change

Maternal Grief in the Hebrew Bible Ekaterina E. Kozlova, 2017-05-26 Setting out from the observation made in the social sciences that maternal grief can at times be a motor of societal change Ekaterina E Kozlova demonstrates that a similar mechanism operates also in the biblical world Kozlova argues that maternal grief is treated as a model or archetype of grief in biblical and Ancient Near Eastern literature The work considers three narratives and one poem that illustrate the transformative power of maternal grief in the biblical presentation Gen 21 Hagar and Ishmael in the desert 2 Sam 21 1 14 Rizpah versus King David 2 Sam 14 the speech of the Tekoite woman Jer 31 15 22 Rachel weeping for her children Although only one of the texts literally refers to a bereaved mother 2 Sam 21 on Rizpah all four passages draw on the motif of maternal grief and all four stage some form of societal transformation

The Death Rituals of Rural Greece Loring M. Danforth, 1982-12-21 This compelling text and dramatic photographic essay convey the emotional power of the death rituals of a small Greek village the funeral the singing of laments the distribution of food the daily visits to the graves and especially the rite of exhumation These rituals help Greek villagers face the universal paradox of mourning how can the living sustain relationships with the dead and at the same time bring them to an end in order to continue to live meaningfully as members of a community That is the villagers dilemma and our own Thirty one moving photographs reproduced in duotone to do justice to their great beauty combine with vivid descriptions of the bereaved women of Potamia and with the words of the funeral laments to allow the reader an unusual emotional identification with the people of rural Greece as they struggle to integrate the experience of death into their daily lives Loring M Danforth s sensitive use of symbolic and structural analysis complements his discussion of the social context in which these rituals occur He explores important themes in rural Greek life such as the position of women patterns of reciprocity and obligation and the nature of social relations within the family

Death's Social and Material Meaning beyond the Human Jesse D. Peterson, Natashe Lemos Dekker, Philip R. Olson, 2024-01-09 Death studies typically focus on the death of humans overlooking the wider factors involved in social and natural processes around death This edited volume provides an alternative focus for death studies by looking beyond human death to reveal the complex interconnections among human and more than human creatures entities and environments Bringing together a diverse range of international scholars the book sheds light on topics which have previously remained at the margins of contemporary death studies and death care cultures Organised around three themes Knowledge and Mediation Care and Remembrance and Agency and Power this book pushes the boundaries of death studies to explore death and dying from beyond the perspective of a nature culture binary

Trees, Stars and Birds; a Book of Outdoor Science, by Edwin Lincoln Mosely...illustrated in Colors from Paintings by Louis Agassiz Fuertes and with Photographs and Drawings Edwin Lincoln Mosely,1922 Eco-Emancipation Sharon R. Krause,2025-08-05 The case for an eco emancipatory politics to release the Earth from human domination and free us all from lives that are both exploitative and exploited Human domination of nature shapes every aspect of our lives today even as it remains virtually invisible to us Because human beings are a part of nature the human domination of nature circles back to confine and exploit people as well and not only the poor and marginalized but also the privileged and affluent even in the world s most prosperous societies Although modern democracy establishes constraints intended to protect people from domination as the arbitrary exercise of power it offers few such protections for nonhuman parts of nature The result is that wherever we fall in human hierarchies we inevitably find ourselves both complicit in and entrapped by a system that makes sustainable living all but impossible It confines and exploits not only nature but people too albeit in different ways In Eco Emancipation Sharon Krause argues that we can find our way to a better freer life by constraining the use of human power in relation to nature and promoting nature s well being alongside our own thereby releasing the Earth from human domination and freeing us from a way of life that is both exploitative and exploited complicit and entrapped Eco emancipation calls for new more than human political communities that incorporate nonhuman parts of nature through institutions of representation and regimes of rights combining these new institutional arrangements with political activism a public ethos of respect for nature and a culture of eco responsibility
